MANIFESTO
OF THE
Social Democratic Federation of Australasia.

In the account of the constant misrepresentations of the aims and objects of Socialism and the many definitions, both in the press and by politicians of all shades of opinion, which have been given, it is clearly impossible for a social democrat to find any common ground for discussion with the advocates of the old conservative principles and policies. As a result, the social democrat has been rendered a voice in the wilderness, for the simple reason that his views are not appreciated by the world of the past.

The Social Democratic Federation of Australasia is the result of this need for a common ground for discussion. It is a movement that seeks to unite all social democrats in a common cause, to work towards a world where everyone has equal opportunities and rights.

In the Federation, we believe in the power of the people to govern themselves and to create a better world. We believe in the right to work, the right to education, and the right to a decent standard of living.

We believe in the need for social justice and equality, and we are committed to fighting for these values. We will continue to work towards a world where everyone has the opportunity to实现 their full potential and live a life of dignity and respect.

W. H. MELLOR
Secretary
May 1887