STATE ELECTIONS

The State Elections have closed and the result is now known. The Labor Party has been victorious in the election, as was expected by the majority of the people.

The Brisbane Wharfies are pleased with the result, as it will ensure a government that will be more favorable to their interests. The Labor Party is known for its strong support of workers' rights and its commitment to social justice.

Good policy better than soap stories

A few words on the “soap stories” that are carried in the local papers. The “soap stories” are not the result of genuine reporting, but are the creation of the Editor, who seems to be more interested in sensationalism than in truth. These stories are often false and misleading, and they do not provide any real benefit to the readers.
