APARTEID

In the face of mounting world opposition, the Sth. African Government continues to flout every law of decency and humanitarianism by their apartheid policies.

What exactly is apartheid? The Zulu Chief, Albert Luthuli has stated that "the white minority rule policy of segregation, apartheid, has scar open off from each other, black and white in Sth. Africa. Our knowledge of each other is scanty and superficial. Not worse, what there is of it, is tainted with prejudice and wishful thinking. This makes it easy for government policy, and the lieing propaganda that wows it, to push us farther and farther apart."

"Apartheid, in theory and in practice," says Luthuli, "is an effort to make Africans march back to tribalism."

Nkos Mathida, Vice President of the Sth. African Congress of Trade Unions, who defines it as "a word coined by the Boer intellectuals for the elections of 1948. The word itself means - SEGREGATION, DISCRIMINATION, and so-call ed SEPARATE DEVELOPMENT."

According to one opponent, Professor P.V. Pistorius, this policy is both morally indefensible and politically dangerous.

The implementation of apartheid brings with it the most heartbreaking distress and suffering which affects every aspect of normal daily life.

THE PRINCIPAL SOURCES OF WEALTH

In Sth. Africa, the relation between economic and political power is closer than in most countries. "Newweek" 24/11/58 states that:
"Harry Oppenheimer presides over an empire headed by De Beers Consolidated Mines, Anglo-American Investment Trust, and Anglo-American Corporation of Sth. Africa.......Through these corporations, the cartel has assets in the neighbourhood of one billion pounds. This cartel controls almost all the world's diamonds, most of its gold, at least one third of De Beers alone was able to gain a profit of £40 million in 1957.

Oppenheimer's political and social influence has been exerted in a number of ways. He is an equal partner with the Tanganyika Government in the diamond mines there. Several other mining houses within such an Anglo-Virgin are virtually controlled by Oppenheimer.

The Oppenheimer's used to finance the United Party, and the Torch Commando, but they now support the Progressives. While he is more prog gressive than the Sth. African Government as a social force he pulls in a direction midway between the United Party (pro-opposition) and the Progressives.
He is a member of the white-supremacy, white-washing Sth. African Foundation, along with the Nationalist Party business men.

HUNGER

Where does this wealth go to? Who benefits from it?
In Sth. Africa, the problem of hunger is unique; needless hunger in the midst of plenty. Nibbling pico or too much food, while children die of

The Congress Movement and the Treason Trial

1. The African National Congress was founded in 1912, and ever since has struggled against the mounting burden of discrimination placed upon the African people. With the coming to power of the Nationalist Government in 1948, Parliament was turned into a factory for oppression legislation. All doors to African advancement were slammed, all ears turned deaf to peaceful protests.

In 1949, the African National Congress (A.N.C.) adopted a program of action, by which they mapped out non-violent methods of struggle, including boycotts, campaigns of civil disobedience and stoppages of work.

In 1952, the A.N.C. launched the Campaign of Defiance Against Unjust Laws, in which campaign nearly 10,000 went to jail.

Seeking new ways to put forward their grievances and demands, the A.N.C. decided in 1954 to convene a Congress of the People. An alliance of organizations participated: The African National Congress; The South African Indian Congress; the South African Coloured People’s Organization; The 8th African Congress of Trade Unions and the Congress of Democrats.

Despite police persecution, the Congress was held in June 1955, and adopted the Freedom Charter, which remains the embodiment of their aims to this day.

The Aims of the Freedom Charter

"We the people of South Africa, declare for all our country and world to know, that South Africa belongs to all who live in it, black and white. We declare that:

- The people shall govern.
- All National groups shall have equal rights.
- The people shall share in the country's wealth.
- The land shall be shared among those who work it.
- All shall be equal before the law.
- All shall enjoy equal human rights.
- There shall be work and security.
- The doors of learning and culture shall be opened.
- There shall be houses, security and comfort.
- There shall be peace and friendship.

At the end of 1956, 166 leading figures in the Congress Alliance were arrested for High Treason. The trial lasted 4 years, after which time all accused were found not guilty. The total cost of the trial was more than half a million pounds. The cost in human suffering cannot be assessed. But to quote one of the accused, Alfred Hutchison: "What treason was there? Is it treason to ask that black and white should live together, as brothers, counymen, equals? Is it treason to ask that houses be abolished, that we might walk freely in the land of our birth?"

Helen Joseph, another of the accused, summed these ideas up in the title of her recently published book - "If this be Treason"?

The A.N.C. continued to fight until banned in March 1960, under the newly amended 'Suppression of Communism Act'.

2. The 8th African Indian Congress, was formed by Mahatma Gandhi under the leadership of whom it launched the first Sth African passive resistance campaigns. This organisation was banned in 1962.

3. The Congress of Democrats, is an organisation of White Sth. Africans who believe in the right of all Sth. Africans to unconditional equality in every sphere of life. It has allied itself with the A.N.C. and the B.A.I.C. in their striving for emancipation. It was banned in September 1962.
