Guardian Telephone
EDITORIAL-Comp. 1909
DESPATCH-Comp. 4739
ADDRESS - 349 Little
Collins St., Melbourne

Friday
Issue
3
FRIDAY (8 PAGES)
TUESDAY (4 PAGES)

No. 492.

THE GUARDIAN, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1949. Registered at the O.F.O., Melbourne, for transmission by post as a newspaper.

PRICE 3d.

3000 At Town Hall Rally Acclaim Communist Policy

ONLY PARTY TO DEMAND £1 BASIC WAGE, SAYS J. D. BLAKE

The Australian Communist Party was the only Party which stood in defence of the people's living standards, it was the Party which stood behind the demand for a £1 basic wage, Mr. J. D. Blake, a national leader of the Party told a packed-out Melbourne Town Hall on Wednesday night.

The meeting was the Party's major election rally in this State. More than 3000 attended -a bigger turnout than that of any other political party. Over 1500 was subscribed in the election.

Mr. Blake, who was recently back from Moscow, said that the Communist Party was the only Party which was not only fighting for a £1 basic wage but also for an end to the war. He said that the war was not only a war of aggression but also a war of defence. He said that the war was not only a war of aggression but also a war of defence. He said that the war was not only a war of aggression but also a war of defence.

Names People's Enemies

Mr. Blake said that the Communists were the people's enemies. He said that the Communists were the people's enemies. He said that the Communists were the people's enemies.

The Communist Party considered that these were some of the most important issues facing the people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people.

The Communist Party considers that these issues are of fundamental importance to the people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people.

The Communist Party appealed to the people to join the Party and work for a better future. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people.

VOTE COMMUNIST THIS

SAGNE

1. Gibson
2. Laurie
3. Lees
4. Samson

You must place a number in every square or your vote will be informal.

Guardian Telephone
EDITORIAL-Comp. 1909
DESPATCH-Comp. 4739
ADDRESS - 349 Little
Collins St., Melbourne

Friday
Issue
3
FRIDAY (8 PAGES)
TUESDAY (4 PAGES)

No. 492.

THE GUARDIAN, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1949. Registered at the O.F.O., Melbourne, for transmission by post as a newspaper.

PRICE 3d.

3000 At Town Hall Rally Acclaim Communist Policy

ONLY PARTY TO DEMAND £1 BASIC WAGE, SAYS J. D. BLAKE

The Australian Communist Party was the only Party which stood in defence of the people's living standards, it was the Party which stood behind the demand for a £1 basic wage, Mr. J. D. Blake, a national leader of the Party told a packed-out Melbourne Town Hall on Wednesday night.

The meeting was the Party's major election rally in this State. More than 3000 attended—a bigger turnout than that of any other political party. Over 1500 was subscribed in the election.

Mr. Blake, who was recently back from Moscow, said that the Communist Party was the only Party which was not only fighting for a £1 basic wage but also for an end to the war. He said that the war was not only a war of aggression but also a war of defence. He said that the war was not only a war of aggression but also a war of defence. He said that the war was not only a war of aggression but also a war of defence.

Names People's Enemies

Mr. Blake said that the Communists were the people's enemies. He said that the Communists were the people's enemies. He said that the Communists were the people's enemies.

The Communist Party considered that these were some of the most important issues facing the people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people.

The Communist Party considers that these issues are of fundamental importance to the people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people.

The Communist Party appealed to the people to join the Party and work for a better future. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people. The party said that the interests of the capitalists and the farmers must be defended, not the interests of the working people.

VOTE COMMUNIST THIS

SAGNE

1. Gibson
2. Laurie
3. Lees
4. Samson

You must place a number in every square or your vote will be informal.

CHILDREN'S RISE IN SALTINESS

The increase in the price of salt is one of the major factors contributing to inflation, Mr. J. D. Blake, national leader of the Communist Party, said on Wednesday night. He said that the increase in the price of salt was part of a deliberate policy by the Government to increase the cost of living. He said that the increase in the price of salt was part of a deliberate policy by the Government to increase the cost of living. He said that the increase in the price of salt was part of a deliberate policy by the Government to increase the cost of living. He said that the increase in the price of salt was part of a deliberate policy by the Government to increase the cost of living.