World's Leading Intellectuals Appeal To Australians: "Unite For Peace"

FROM ERUPT LOCKWOOD

PARIS—Some of the world's outstanding intellectuals have addressed an appeal to Australian intellectuals to fulfill the program of the historic Peace Congress in Paris—to unite your colleagues to put all your talents at the service of Peace and Culture.

The signing of this appeal was a response to a message of support to the Peace Congress byTadashi Amano, director of the Indian News Agency. The appeal was signed by such prominent figures as Albert Einstein, Bertrand Russell, and many others.

Guardian Short Story Contest

Guardian Short Story Contest. The following cartoons have been approved by the paper for publication:

1. Beer Bails Up
2. Tell Them To Go Hopping
3. Lack Of Customers, Not Goods

Churchmen Resist Veiled Threat

PRESIDENTIAL REPORT ON COMMUNISM

Churchmen resist veiled threat. President J. P. Schmuere and J. H. St. Onge, when asked about increasing Church and Government anti-Communist pressures through the American Pravda, said the President's veiled threat was "not a thing to worry about." Mr. Schmuere said the President's anti-Communist measures are "not a thing to worry about."

Churehmen Resist Veiled Threat

CHURCHMEN RESIST VEILED THREAT

Churchmen resist veiled threat. President J. P. Schmuere and J. H. St. Onge when asked about increasing Church and Government anti-Communist pressures through the American Pravda, said the President's veiled threat was "not a thing to worry about." Mr. Schmuere said the President's anti-Communist measures are "not a thing to worry about."

Churchmen Resist Veiled Threat

PROFIT IN OUR SWEAT FOR FOREIGN INVESTORS

Victoria will be asked to pay millions to foreigners. Mr. Don Thompson will make a trip to Paris next Sunday to hear the story of his life. Mr. Thompson will be the guest of the Australian Consulate in Paris."