ANOTHER FESTIVAL OF SOVIET FILMS

Arranged by Australia-Hong Kong, six Soviet films of international repute will be screened at the Union Theatre on February 20th, 21st and 22nd.

The programme, which will be representative of the wide range and variety of the Soviet cinema, will include The Great Turning Point, Cannes International Festival prize-winner, a musical film and two humorous films of naturalistic kind.

Adventure in Bashkort

The film concerns itself with the story of an ambitious young boy who, with the help of an old Admiral, has to fight a battle against the wind in order to save his brother, a pilot. He succeeds in his mission and becomes a national hero.

Soviet cinema will be represented by The Great Turning Point, a musical film which was released last year and has been screened in many countries. The film tells the story of a young couple who, in order to escape from the hardships of life, decide to embark on a journey to the West. However, they are captured by the police and sent back to their native country. The film has been praised for its music and for its beautiful scenery.

The other films which will be screened are Z7, Z7 and Z7, which are all documentaries about the Soviet Union. They will give an insight into the life and culture of the country, and will be shown to highlight the different aspects of Soviet life.

Adventures in Bashkort

The film is a new Soviet production which has been released in time for the festival. It tells the story of a young man who, in order to escape from the hardships of life, decides to go on a journey to the West. However, he is captured by the police and sent back to his native country. The film has been praised for its music and for its beautiful scenery.

The programme will include a selection of films from across the Soviet Union, including documentaries about the country's culture and history. These films will give an insight into the different aspects of Soviet life and will be shown to highlight the country's achievements.

The festival will be held at the Union Theatre, which has been specially decorated for the occasion. The programme will be announced in due course, and tickets will be available from the theatre box office.
