A new organization exhibit. The Metropolitan Art Club, with headquarters at 5 Fifth Avenue, New York, has just been formed. The club will hold an exhibit of the works of the club's members, which are being shown in the way of a sale. Every artist is expected to contribute something for the club's benefit.

The members of the club are Mr. Charles M. White, Mr. John G. White, and Mr. Robert G. White. They have agreed to contribute a hundred dollars each to the club's fund. The members are also expected to contribute a hundred dollars each to the club's fund.

This is the first time that the Metropolitan Art Club has had an exhibition. The club has been formed for the purpose of bringing together artists who are interested in the art of painting. The members of the club are expected to contribute something for the club's benefit.
