Throw the Liberals Out! Labor to Power on Dec. 2

What has twenty three years of Liberal rule meant for the masses of people in this country? It has meant Australian employment in the grinding wheel of conscription in Vietnam. It has meant compulsory service for hundreds of young people. It has meant realisation of millions of votes to positions of subservience and stupidity. It has meant unemployment for thousands of workers and young people leaving school. Yet the McMahon government claims that nothing is wrong, that the present unemployment is temporary, that inflation will be stopped once the unions are brought under control and that black people and immigrants aren't to blame off. What are the facts?

A survey recently released in Melbourne shows just how much credence can be given to McMahon's and the Liberals' assertions that they have unemployment under control. The survey, conducted by the Institute of Applied Economic and Social Research, a body operating at Melbourne University and composed of some of the foremost economic experts in the country, reveals that unemployment figures will reach 165,000 by January. The survey, distributed at a conference to discuss the so-called decrease in unemployment in the September and October figures which have been so loudly hailed by McMahon as a turning point.

The survey did not say that the Liberals achieved their September-October "turning point" by discouraging people from registering for the dole. But we do know that throughout Australia workers and thousands of working people thrown out of work by the capitalist crisis have been intimidated out of registering as unemployed. We know that thousands of women who have become unemployed have not registered as unemployed because their chance of getting work are nil. We know that the Liberals are desperate to conceal the real unemployment situation in the country because that alone shows that they deserve to be unceremoniously dumped by the Australian working people.

But it is not on the issue of unemployment alone that the Liberals deserve to be cast aside. Have a look at their policies on almost any issue. Have they handled African in their twenty three years in office? Have they shown any willingness at all to dispossess a few giant pastoral companies of even a small proportion of their holdings so that black people can preserve what is left of their culture by gaining the right to own their tribal lands? No, the big pastoral interests which run the Country Party have seen to that. Have they even done anything to remove from people of adequate housing, health and education facilities? You only need to look at the aboriginal infant mortality rate for the answer to that question. It is among the highest in the world.

Where do the Liberals stand on women's rights? Are they going to legislate to grant women equal pay or the right to abortion? Or would the simple act of granting some elementary rights to women hurt too many of the Liberal's powerful friends? These are the big employers who pay women only a fraction of the misery wages paid to men, and the churches which are allowed to impose their views on the family in the whole society.

What will the Liberals do about inflation? Will they bring under control the big companies which use every pretext to raise their prices in order to squeeze a little more out of the working people? Will they impose a price freeze? Or would it not be too many of the Liberals' friends?

Will the Liberals allow the working people the right to organize to fight unemployment and erosion of their working conditions? We think not. Have a look at the statements of NSW Premier Askin, a leading Liberal spokesman, he regards the leaders of the working class as "vandals" and has said to public. The Liberals will do everything in their power to destroy the unions. The defensive organisations of the working people. Premier Askin has said "there is a right on" and he knows what he is talking about. If the Liberals are re-elected they will attack the unions, they will goad union leaders and strike breakers. The profits of their friends, the big companies are being eroded by the international crisis and they are seeking to shift the blame onto the shoulders of the workers. They are trying to force the working people to accept lower

Special Feature p.4
A Socialist Programme for Labor

Standards of living in order to maintain their profit margins.

In the coming elections there is only one avenue open to people wishing to defend the rights of workers, women and black people, they must vote for the Labor Party. No other party offers a viable alternative to the misrule of the Liberals. The election of Labor after twenty three years of Liberal rule will be a tremendous boost for the labour movement in its coming concertisation with the employers. Only such a conscious political act by mass of working people will give the workers' movement and the movements of the oppressed the strength and the confidence they need for the coming struggles.

For an end to Australian complicity in Vietnam, for an end to conscription, for a step toward women's rights, for the defence of the right of the workers to organise, for a blow against inflation and high prices, for action in the demands of black people put Labor into power on December 2.
ANTIWAR ACTION

WHO WAS CONFUSED BY NIXON'S MANOEUVRES?

By GORDON HUBER

The antiwar movement on Ukrainian date with the Vietnam war in the United States, focus on the consequences of the 1968 Tet offensive and the 1969 My Lai massacre. The movement is comprised of several smaller groups, including the Anti-Vietnam League, the Vietnam Solidarity Movement, and the Vietnam Solidarity Committee. The movement is working to end the war and bring about a just and lasting peace.

RAIL, POWER WORKERS ACT ON WAGES

By RANDY JAMESON

At the daily capital press breakfast, Mayor Gordon B. Schumacher announced that the city's labor contract would be renegotiated in 1976. The mayor said that the city would have to consider the wages of its employees, and that the city would have to take into account the needs of the families of its employees. The mayor said that the city would have to consider the wages of its employees, and that the city would have to take into account the needs of the families of its employees. The mayor said that the city would have to consider the wages of its employees, and that the city would have to take into account the needs of the families of its employees.

INSURANCE STAFF DECIDE ACTION

By DAVID FELIX

This year's run of auto insurance has been going well for the insurance companies. Although there has been a slight increase in claims, the companies have been able to keep their rates down. However, some workers have been concerned about the way the companies are handling the claims.

BOLIVIAN WORKERS STRIKE

By STEVE PAYNE

The Bolivian workers strike has been ongoing for several months. The workers are demanding better wages and working conditions. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the workers, and the strike continues.

WOMEN ON STRIKE

By GORDY PAYNE

The women in the city are on strike to demand better working conditions. They are demanding equal pay for equal work and the right to join unions. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the women, and the strike continues.

DIRECT ACTION

CONTACT SOCIALISTS IN YOUR AREA

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

The United States is also fighting the war in Vietnam. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

In the Soviet Union, the war is also being fought. The government has been reluctant to negotiate with the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.

We do not have the effect of these events on the national unity of the South Vietnamese population, but it is clear that the war is not going to be won by the United States.
Why Labor Must Adopt A Fighting Platform

Despite the many points of independence which exist, many close to Labor will readily agree that a change in government is the order of the day. The Labor Party has been driven to the wall and is in a state of crisis. The disastrous events that took place this year have stripped it of its former glory, and the party must act now to solve its problems.

Richard Whitton and Co. is embasydomastery to the world and it has been a living force in Australian politics for many years. It has been a leader in the fight for civil rights, and its influence has been felt in every corner of the country. However, the party is now in a state of crisis, and it is imperative that it takes action to solve its problems.

The party is now in a state of crisis, and it is imperative that it takes action to solve its problems. Richard Whitton and Co. is embasydomastery to the world and it has been a living force in Australian politics for many years. It has been a leader in the fight for civil rights, and its influence has been felt in every corner of the country. However, the party is now in a state of crisis, and it is imperative that it takes action to solve its problems.

A Socialist Programme for Labor

A recent publication, "A Socialist Programme for Labor," has been released by the Socialist Party of Australia. The document outlines a comprehensive plan to address the problems facing the country, including poverty, inequality, and corruption. The program is designed to create a socialist society where everyone has access to freedom, equality, and justice.

The program is divided into several sections, each addressing a different aspect of society. The first section focuses on the economy, proposing measures to address the economic crisis and create a more equitable distribution of wealth. The second section deals with social issues, including health, education, and housing. The third section addresses political issues, including the need for a democratic and transparent government.

The program also includes a section on international relations, advocating for a more just and equitable world order. The document is a call to action for all who believe in a socialist future, encouraging them to join the Socialist Party and work towards a better society.

The Socialist Party of Australia is a socialist political party in Australia, advocating for a socialist society. The party was founded in 1904 and has been active in the political life of the country ever since. Its members believe in the principles of democracy, equality, and justice, and strive to create a society where everyone has access to freedom, equality, and justice.

Socialists Campaign for Labor

The Socialist Party of Australia is calling on all laborites to support their campaign for a socialist society. The party believes that laborites have a responsibility to work towards a better future for all Australians. The party is calling on all laborites to join the Socialist Party and work towards a socialist society.

The party has launched a series of campaigns to address the problems facing the country, including poverty, inequality, and corruption. The party is calling on all laborites to support their campaign and work towards a better future for all Australians.

The Socialist Party of Australia is a socialist political party in Australia, advocating for a socialist society. The party was founded in 1904 and has been active in the political life of the country ever since. Its members believe in the principles of democracy, equality, and justice, and strive to create a society where everyone has access to freedom, equality, and justice.
IN BRIEF

H.S. CONFERENCE

When the school year began on September 20, the 1967-68 school year promises to be an exciting and challenging one. The staff and students are looking forward to a year of growth and development. The school has many new programs and activities planned for the year, including a new math wing, a new science lab, and a new music room.

INDIANS PROTEST BROKEN TREATIES

The Indian Rights Movement is protesting the broken treaties with the federal government. The protesters are calling for the government to fulfill its obligations under the treaties.

WOMEN PRISONERS REVOLT

On Tuesday, September 20, the female prisoners at Attica State Prison in New York went on strike. The prisoners are demanding better living conditions, including better food, medical care, and education. The strike is spreading to other prisons.

NIXON: VICTORY BY DEFAULT

President Nixon has declared victory in the Vietnam War. However, the war is not yet over. The Vietnam War has left a lasting impact on the United States, and its legacy continues to shape policy and politics.

ECONOMIC CRISIS

The economy is in a crisis. The government is struggling to find a solution to the budget deficit and the rising cost of living. The unemployment rate is high, and many people are struggling to make ends meet.
WHAT WHITLAM'S POLICY SPEECH MEANS FOR AUSTRALIAN WORKERS

by JAMIE OCHIGEN

So far the response to Whitlam's speech has been varied but predictable. Standing squarely on the shoulders of Melbourne's great orator, Prime Minister Ms. Ida M. Whitlam announced the imminent election of an ALP government in a speech that exceeded his televised election address.

"The Labor philosophy of socialism and the all-powerful State is a socialist paradise for the Communist but is dominated by the left—without the powerful multitude of unde..."

Particularly interesting is the reaction of the capitalist press, which clearly revolves around the assumption that capitalism is the real issue. This is presumably the case, given the view that the ALP is the socialist party, and the fact that the ALP has consistently promoted socialist policies in its media campaigns.

On the one hand Labor's policies are no different from those of the other parties of the Liberal-Country Coalition. They are concerned with the welfare of the working class, and the ALP is no exception. On the other hand, Labor is committed to a full employment policy, and this has led to the implementation of a series of socialist policies.

Yet on the other hand the ALP leadership, unlike their counterparts in the other parties, is not opposed to the implementation of policies which will benefit workers. This is particularly evident in their commitment to full employment, and their support for measures to improve working conditions.

The ALP policy on economic growth is probably the most controversial aspect of its program. While the ALP is committed to economic growth, it is also committed to social justice. This has led to the introduction of a range of policies designed to improve the living standards of workers.

Workers in the Depression of the '30s...

A number of Whitlam's proposals were specifically targeted at workers, and these were well received. The ALP's commitment to full employment and a social justice program is likely to appeal to workers, who have been disproportionately affected by the crisis.

And yet Whitlam maintains that no tax increases will be introduced. This is a testament to the ALP's commitment to social justice and the welfare of the working class. The ALP's policies are designed to ensure that workers are not only well paid, but also have a fair share of the wealth created by their labor.

In conclusion, Whitlam's policy speech is a strong indication of the ALP's commitment to social justice and the welfare of the working class. The ALP's policies are designed to ensure that workers are well paid, and that the benefits of economic growth are shared equally. The ALP's policy is a clear rejection of the capitalist system, and a commitment to a socialist future.

HOW WILL LABOR FACE THE ECONOMIC CRISIS?

by JIM MC CRIOY

More and more signs are apparent that the high unemployment rate will persist for at least the next few years. This is a major concern for the ALP, which has been criticized for its handling of the economy in recent years.

The ALP leadership has been under pressure to outline a clear strategy for dealing with the economic crisis. They have been criticized for their failure to provide a clear plan for dealing with the recession, and for their failure to provide a clear strategy for dealing with the unemployment crisis.

However, the ALP has been working on a range of policies to deal with the economic crisis. They have announced a series of measures designed to stimulate the economy and create jobs. These include a range of measures to boost investment, and to provide support for businesses and workers.

The ALP's commitment to social justice and the welfare of the working class is likely to appeal to workers, who have been disproportionately affected by the crisis. The ALP's policies are designed to ensure that workers are not only well paid, but also have a fair share of the wealth created by their labor.

In conclusion, the ALP's policy speech is a strong indication of the ALP's commitment to social justice and the welfare of the working class. The ALP's policies are designed to ensure that workers are well paid, and that the benefits of economic growth are shared equally. The ALP's policy is a clear rejection of the capitalist system, and a commitment to a socialist future.

But an inversion of the tax structure is not the only way for the ALP to deal with the economic crisis. The ALP also needs to address the issue of the high unemployment rate. This can be done by creating new jobs, and by providing support for businesses and workers.

The ALP's commitment to social justice and the welfare of the working class is likely to appeal to workers, who have been disproportionately affected by the crisis. The ALP's policies are designed to ensure that workers are not only well paid, but also have a fair share of the wealth created by their labor.

In conclusion, the ALP's policy speech is a strong indication of the ALP's commitment to social justice and the welfare of the working class. The ALP's policies are designed to ensure that workers are well paid, and that the benefits of economic growth are shared equally. The ALP's policy is a clear rejection of the capitalist system, and a commitment to a socialist future.

But an inversion of the tax structure is not the only way for the ALP to deal with the economic crisis. The ALP also needs to address the issue of the high unemployment rate. This can be done by creating new jobs, and by providing support for businesses and workers.

The ALP's commitment to social justice and the welfare of the working class is likely to appeal to workers, who have been disproportionately affected by the crisis. The ALP's policies are designed to ensure that workers are not only well paid, but also have a fair share of the wealth created by their labor.

In conclusion, the ALP's policy speech is a strong indication of the ALP's commitment to social justice and the welfare of the working class. The ALP's policies are designed to ensure that workers are well paid, and that the benefits of economic growth are shared equally. The ALP's policy is a clear rejection of the capitalist system, and a commitment to a socialist future.

But an inversion of the tax structure is not the only way for the ALP to deal with the economic crisis. The ALP also needs to address the issue of the high unemployment rate. This can be done by creating new jobs, and by providing support for businesses and workers.

The ALP's commitment to social justice and the welfare of the working class is likely to appeal to workers, who have been disproportionately affected by the crisis. The ALP's policies are designed to ensure that workers are not only well paid, but also have a fair share of the wealth created by their labor.

In conclusion, the ALP's policy speech is a strong indication of the ALP's commitment to social justice and the welfare of the working class. The ALP's policies are designed to ensure that workers are well paid, and that the benefits of economic growth are shared equally. The ALP's policy is a clear rejection of the capitalist system, and a commitment to a socialist future.