DIRECT ACTION
A FORTNIGHTLY SOCIALIST NEWSPAPER
NO. 22       JUNE 30 1972       10 CENTS

Stop the Concorde
Stop the Expressway
Stop the Bomb
Stop the Pollution
Stop Capitalism!
DIRECT ACTION

THE POLLUTION CRISIS

In the wake of the furore over the national emission ceilings, it is becoming more apparent than ever that the environment is not an issue that can be tackled in the context of a single country or region. The pollution crisis is a global phenomenon that affects the health of all of us. It is time for us to take action.

Contact socialists in your area

VON KEITH, C. 501 W. 25th St, New York, NY 10011
VON KEITH, 1027, West 25th St, New York, NY 10011
VON KEITH, 501 W. 25th St, New York, NY 10011
VON KEITH, 25th St, New York, NY 10011
VON KEITH, 501 W. 25th St, New York, NY 10011

GAINS FOR SOCIALISTS IN CAMPUS POLL

BY MILES STUART

The election results were a major victory for the labour movement. Socialist candidates emerged as the leading force in the campus, with results showing a significant increase over the previous election.

THE END OF SEATO?

It's not time to end the collective security structure in Southeast Asia. SEATO has been a force for stability and security in the region, providing a framework for cooperation and dialogue among nations.

FREE SPEECH FIGHT

BY JAMIE DOUGHERTY

Despite continued threats to free speech, it's important to remember the power of the "pen" as an ally in the struggle against censorship and repression.

440 NEW SUBS COLLECTED

OFFER EXTENDED TO REACH 500

We have sold over 400 new subscriptions to our 500th issue. To celebrate, we are extending our offer to 500 subscribers.

SPECIAL SUB OFFER – 15 ISSUES $1.00

Name, Address, Postcode

FORTNIGHTLY SOCIALIST NEWSPAPER

Miles Stuart

Contact the Editor at 123 Main St, Anytown 12345

The End of SEATO?

The United States and Soviet Union...
TROTSKYISM AND THE ALP

by Dave Holmes

In 1932 in "Who is to Blame?" Trotsky asks the question: "Who is to blame?" on the question of the Lisbon Labor Party on an "Irresistible Apparatchik"! Don't blame them. The whole Labor Party is involved in the same parties as the most extreme right-wing elements of the Labor Party. The ALP is a step forward from the party of Trotsky, and the trend of the ALP.

The ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky, and the trend of the ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The ALP is not the only party in the world that has been involved in the trend of the ALP. The ALP is not the only party in the world that has been involved in the trend of the ALP. The ALP is not the only party in the world that has been involved in the trend of the ALP.

However, if the ALP is to be a step forward, it will be necessary that the style of the ALP is the step forward. The style of the ALP is the step forward. The style of the ALP is the step forward. The style of the ALP is the step forward. The style of the ALP is the step forward.

The ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky.

The ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The ALP is the step forward from the party of Trotsky.

THE LABOR PARTY

The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky.

The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky.

The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky.

The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky.

The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky.

The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky.

The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky.

The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky. The Labor Party is the step forward from the party of Trotsky.
By Marilyn Wise

Chapter 2: From 1923 to 1929.

The Bolshevik-Leninist

Foreign Policy

The revolutionary period opened by the Russian Revolution of 1917 was followed by the period of reconstruction and recovery, during which an international revolutionary upsurge took place. The first step in this upsurge was the establishment of the Soviet Union, which, in turn, was followed by the spread of the international revolutionary movement. The Soviet Union was the first socialist state in the world, and its success in building socialism was a major factor in the international revolutionary movement.

The policy of the Soviet Union was based on the principle of international solidarity and the need for a united front of all progressive forces against the imperialist powers. The policy of the Soviet Union was characterized by its efforts to establish international solidarity and to work toward the overthrow of imperialism.

The period of 1923-1929 was marked by the establishment of the Comintern, which played a major role in the international revolutionary movement. The Comintern was the central organization of the international Communist movement, and it played a major role in the spread of the revolutionary movement.

The Comintern provided leadership and guidance to the revolutionary movements around the world. It worked to build international solidarity and to coordinate the efforts of the revolutionary movements.

The Comintern was also responsible for the implementation of the policy of the Soviet Union. It worked to promote the establishment of socialist states and to spread the revolutionary movement.

The period of 1923-1929 was marked by the establishment of the Comintern, which played a major role in the international revolutionary movement. The Comintern was the central organization of the international Communist movement, and it played a major role in the spread of the revolutionary movement.

The Comintern provided leadership and guidance to the revolutionary movements around the world. It worked to build international solidarity and to coordinate the efforts of the revolutionary movements.

The Comintern was also responsible for the implementation of the policy of the Soviet Union. It worked to promote the establishment of socialist states and to spread the revolutionary movement.

The period of 1923-1929 was marked by the establishment of the Comintern, which played a major role in the international revolutionary movement. The Comintern was the central organization of the international Communist movement, and it played a major role in the spread of the revolutionary movement.

The Comintern provided leadership and guidance to the revolutionary movements around the world. It worked to build international solidarity and to coordinate the efforts of the revolutionary movements.

The Comintern was also responsible for the implementation of the policy of the Soviet Union. It worked to promote the establishment of socialist states and to spread the revolutionary movement.

The period of 1923-1929 was marked by the establishment of the Comintern, which played a major role in the international revolutionary movement. The Comintern was the central organization of the international Communist movement, and it played a major role in the spread of the revolutionary movement.

The Comintern provided leadership and guidance to the revolutionary movements around the world. It worked to build international solidarity and to coordinate the efforts of the revolutionary movements.

The Comintern was also responsible for the implementation of the policy of the Soviet Union. It worked to promote the establishment of socialist states and to spread the revolutionary movement.
Capitalism fouls things up...

1. Stop the Pollution!

The automobile - the greatest invention ever to afflict mankind. Not a single person in the world would want to give up the convenience and comfort of a car. But what about the pollution it causes? The toxic fumes it emits? The environmental damage it wreaks? The lives it claims?

There are two key factors to a drowsy and unhealthy economy: the pollution and its effects on health. One is the negative impact on public health. The other is the impact on the environment. Both are serious problems that need to be addressed.

The automobile is a significant source of pollution. It emits harmful gases such as carbon monoxide and nitrogen oxides, which can cause respiratory problems and other health issues. It also contributes to acid rain and other environmental problems.

One effective way to combat pollution is through the use of alternative fuels. Electric vehicles and hybrid cars are becoming more popular, and they offer a cleaner alternative to traditional gasoline-powered cars.

2. Stop the Expressway!

On Monday May 8, a group of people from Globe held a public meeting in Globe Tower to protest the proposed expansion of the city highway. The meeting was attended by about 50 people who were concerned about the impact of the expansion on the environment and local communities. The organizers of the event were seeking to raise awareness about the problems posed by the expansion, which would affect many neighborhoods and create noise and pollution.

The meeting was called to order by the chairperson, who introduced the speakers for the evening. The speakers included representatives from local environmental groups, residents, and business owners. They spoke about the negative impacts of the expansion and the need for alternative solutions.

3. Stop the Bomb!

In full control for world public opinion, the Soviet Union is ready to defend itself against any threat. The Soviet military is among the strongest in the world and will use all necessary means to ensure peace and stability.

But the situation is not as simple as it seems. The Soviet Union is not the only country that needs to be concerned about the threat of nuclear weapons. The United States and other nations also have nuclear capabilities.

The United States and the Soviet Union have been in a nuclear arms race for decades. The possibility of a nuclear war is a constant threat to the world.

4. The Concorde!

The Concorde was a supersonic passenger jet that was famous for its speed and luxury. It was operated by several airlines, including Air France and British Airways. However, the Concorde was retired from service in 2003 due to a number of factors, including high maintenance costs and safety concerns.

The Concorde's supersonic flights were limited to a few routes due to the noise it generated. This limited its appeal to passengers, who were often.pdf
RAT RACE SOLD OUT TO ARBITRATION

By Steve Painter

The recent inequitable rat race was put on hold in the ACTU's industrial relations conference. This conference, held in Sydney from June 5th to 8th, was one of the most important events in the industrial relations calendar. The conference was attended by over 3,000 delegates from throughout Australia, representing a wide range of industries and interests.

The conference was marked by a number of significant developments. One of the most important was the agreement to put all disputes into arbitration. This decision was taken after a long and heated debate. Many delegates felt that the rat race was unfair and that arbitration was the only way to resolve disputes. Others argued that arbitration would lead to higher costs and that the rat race was necessary to keep up with the competition.

The conference also made several other important decisions. These included a new system for determining wages, a new system for determining hours of work, and a new system for determining conditions of work. These decisions were taken after a long and complex process of negotiation and consultation.

The conference was a major event in the history of industrial relations in Australia. It marked a significant turning point in the rat race and paved the way for a new era of industrial relations.

LATROBE WORKERS FIGHT FOR 35 HOUR WEEK

By Andrew Jamieson

The workers at Latrobe are fighting for a 35 hour week. The company is refusing to negotiate, and the workers are determined to keep up the pressure.

The workers at Latrobe have been on strike for over a month, and they are not backing down. They are determined to win their fight for a 35 hour week.

The company is refusing to negotiate, and the workers are determined to keep up the pressure. They are calling on other workers to join them in their fight.

The workers are demanding a 35 hour week, as well as a number of other improvements. These include better wages, better conditions, and better representation.

The company is refusing to negotiate, and the workers are determined to keep up the pressure. They are calling on other workers to join them in their fight.

They are demanding a 35 hour week, as well as a number of other improvements. These include better wages, better conditions, and better representation.

The company is refusing to negotiate, and the workers are determined to keep up the pressure. They are calling on other workers to join them in their fight.

They are demanding a 35 hour week, as well as a number of other improvements. These include better wages, better conditions, and better representation.

The company is refusing to negotiate, and the workers are determined to keep up the pressure. They are calling on other workers to join them in their fight.

They are demanding a 35 hour week, as well as a number of other improvements. These include better wages, better conditions, and better representation.

The company is refusing to negotiate, and the workers are determined to keep up the pressure. They are calling on other workers to join them in their fight.

They are demanding a 35 hour week, as well as a number of other improvements. These include better wages, better conditions, and better representation.

The company is refusing to negotiate, and the workers are determined to keep up the pressure. They are calling on other workers to join them in their fight.

They are demanding a 35 hour week, as well as a number of other improvements. These include better wages, better conditions, and better representation.

The company is refusing to negotiate, and the workers are determined to keep up the pressure. They are calling on other workers to join them in their fight.

They are demanding a 35 hour week, as well as a number of other improvements. These include better wages, better conditions, and better representation.
The Economic Situation & Our Perspectives

The following article is the general economic report of the Economic Policy Committee meeting of the Socialist Workers Party.

The current economic situation is marked by a significant slowdown in growth, largely due to the ongoing trade wars and the impacts of the global slowdown.

The prospects for the future are not promising, with many economists predicting a continued slowdown in the near term.

economicSituationImage

Socialist Books

6. Socialist books should reflect the disarray and class collaboration among the capitalists. They should not be left out of their economic situations. They should be reconnected with the masses. Political parties must understand that the common goal is to build a Socialist economy and society.

Socialist Books List

- "Capital: A Critique of Political Economy" by Karl Marx
- "The Communist Manifesto" by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels
- "The Pelican History of Democratic Ideas" edited by John dryden
- "The Social and Political Writings of Karl Marx" by Karl Marx
- "The Capital: A Critique of Political Economy" by Karl Marx
- "The Communist Manifesto" by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels
- "The Pelican History of Democratic Ideas" edited by John dryden
- "The Social and Political Writings of Karl Marx" by Karl Marx
- "The Capital: A Critique of Political Economy" by Karl Marx
- "The Communist Manifesto" by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels
- "The Pelican History of Democratic Ideas" edited by John dryden
- "The Social and Political Writings of Karl Marx" by Karl Marx
The massive antiwar march in Lima, in which U.S. students and workers took part, was a "tremendous show of solidarity on the part of the Peruvian people unity with the people of the world who are struggling for their liberation," wrote the Lima "Diario de Mayo" of May 20. It was the first such march ever held.

Groups of priests, students and workers, intellectuals, and white-collar workers representing various political tendencies formed a united front in order to condemn the aggression being carried out against a small country of the Third World, from imperialism and repression," the newspaper said.

The demonstration was organized by a united front of organizations reflecting a wide spectrum of student organizations and unions.

The United Front of "Expreso" and "Extr" workers published a statement in "Expreso" May 20 noting that it had taken part in the march. "Once again the workers of "Expreso" and "Extr" demonstrated their revolutionary consciousness.

"We want peace for Vietnam, and to this end we demand the immediate withdrawal of the North Americans from Vietnamese soil and the complete cessation of aggression. If there is no progress in this struggle of the people of Vietnam it is the struggle of all the people, not only the Vietnamese, for industrial development and independence."

CASTRO  on plans to meet Nixon

"There is nothing to talk to Nixon about," Cuban Premier Fidel Castro told a news conference in Sofia May 26.

Castro, on a ten-nation tour of Africa and Eastern Europe, was responding to a recent newspaper report that said he would meet with Nixon in Warsaw June 6, which sources said the latter had stopped on his round from Moscow.

"We never think about talking with Nixon about anything," Castro said. "We would like to tell him To be an Imperialist? To lift the blockade? We are an Afro-Cuban people?

25,000 in African Liberation Day March

Between 25,000 and 30,000 Black people, mostly of tropical students, massed in Washington, D.C., May 27 to protest imperialism and black oppression. The action, called by the African Liberation Committee, centered on expressing the solidarity of the U.S. Black masses with the liberation movements in South Africa, Zimbabwe (Rhodesia), Angola, Mozambique, and Guinea-Bissau.

The African Liberation Day demonstration, which would have been significant enough on account of the spectacularly high turnout, was lent additional importance by the Internationalist character of the event. The solidarity between the Indochinese revolution and the African liberation movement was made by speakers and banners, and the dominant chant of the Washington rally was a clear expression of both the nationalist and anti-imperialist sentiments of the U.S. Black population. "We are an African people." "Free All U.S. PANAMA MEXICO CITY ANTIWAR MARCH.

More than 25,000 persons demonstrated in Mexico City May 17 against U.S. imperialism and the Vietnamese revolution. The focus of the protest, called by the National Mobilization Committee for Vietnam Solidarity (Comité de Movilización por Vietnam), was an effort to counteract the baseless and lettered campaign against the Vietnamese people for their liberation."

President Nixon's 45 minute speech, delivered in fluent Spanish, was interrupted repeatedly by cheers, chants and showers of confetti from the balcony.

That evening, in the historic city of Tacuamah, Jentesse appeared for thirty minutes on the local TV station and overnight became known to nearly everyone in town.

DUTCH "INTERNATIONAL TENDENCY" JOINS FOURTH INTERNATIONAL

The following statement has been transmitted from the May 25 meeting of the International's, the newspaper of the Dutch section of the International Revolutionary Marxist Tendency, which has abandoned or withdrawn a series of basic Trotskyist principles, in which the organization has been designated by the Fourth International as a "party building a revolutionary vanguard movement.

Therefore, at its conference the Dutch section made the following statement of its intention.

"To sever its organizational ties with the International Revolutionary Marxist Tendency of the Fourth International.

"To apply for membership to the Fourth International of the Fourth International."

April 5, 1972

Angela Davis

U.S.A. AGGIE DAVIS ACQUITTED ON ALL CHARGES.

After deliberating for thirteen hours, a jury in Yuma, Ariz., acquitted Angela Davis innocent of June 4 of murder, kidnapping, and conspiracy charges. Although overjoyed at the jury's verdict, Davis pointedly observed: "A fair trial would have been no trial at all."

Freedom came after a long and arduous ordeal and followed on the heels of a national upsurge being around at the government's cruel attempt to force the conviction of the three prisoners who were killed in the incident. The state began in a frame-up of Davis who was booked as a suspect in the incident recorded in her name.

Davis was arrested on October 14, 1970, in New York City. He was held without bail until he was released on a $5,000 bond case based on the most purely circumstantial"