FRASER'S CHILDREN

NOW THAT the school holidays are over, a lot of kids will be going back to school to repeat years that they have already passed because there are no jobs for them.

A lot of these kids will not get jobs at all throughout the whole year. Not because they don't want jobs, but because the jobs don't exist.

The jobs do not exist because the Fraser government deliberately chose to increase unemployment as a means of controlling inflation. They devised and now control full-unemployment.

Last year, the Commonwealth Employment Service found jobs for only 20% of school leavers, and for working class kids the situation is even worse.

In the first quarter of 1977, only 10% of jobs were found through CES. Not surprisingly, when there are 121 school leavers for each job in that part of town.

And so the situation isn't bad enough, the government is creating the unemployment figures.

From now on, school leavers leave the dole until February. That alone should have cut the figures of registered unemployed.

Tony Brown had the nerve to suggest that only the "dole buggers" would fear to write the mail because they couldn't get benefits.

Those kids are dependent on the dole. When the manager of CES in Newcastle placed ads calling for school leavers to register, 700 turned up in one day.

The Fraserheiten at the Youth Service in Sydney said, "We don't do put up specific school leaver notices on our bulletin boards. If we did, there would be 500 people rushing into our office."

But with no jobs going, and no dole, what should they come in and wait for 10 hours to register? So naturally, the figures for registered unemployment are good to be low.

But Fraser was not satisfied with that. Letters were sent to CES offices. They encouraged local officials to find means —

NO JOBS, NO DOLE, NO FUTURE

WHILE THOUSANDS of kids start work without a job, thousands of men and women are without jobs that they held for years. Industrially claims it cannot afford to give them jobs.

The bourgeois says that because of high wages they don't have the money to invest. The poor kids are living in poverty. Will not change.

Some people have a lot of money to invest. In houses and speculation.

The Golden Gate building in St Kilda Parade is probably the most expensive block of house sales in Australia.

The Abbey Place building has 177 units and was bought by a consortium of house absentee investors with net prices of around $1,800,000.

The director has to cut off the building's sewing, boom, 6000 units behind. There are 2000 jobs in the building and 1000 in the first floor alone.

The new building cost $75,000.

The two floors were sold at an average price of $125,000. Under these conditions, the government's policy is absurd.

On opening day a Melbourne house agent told the Daily Mail a few in the Golden Gate bought a unit and flew back to Melbourne. About half the buyers paid deposits. The cash and many units were sold to investors.

The press made a lot of noise about budget figures on the Gold Coast. Well, they were right. There are more jobs on the Gold Coast. They are not living on the dole. They are living on our backs.

Lettuce Jackson (left) and Susan McEwan are two school-leavers from Cheltenham (Vic) who are being denied the dole. They've seen the Social Security Department — in a test case which will affect thousands of other unemployed school-leavers. But the Supreme Court has postponed their case until March.

Meanwhile, presumably, school-leavers like Lettuce and Susan can starve.

NEWPORT INQUIRY PICKET

Tuesday February 8, 10 a.m.
Demonstration 5 p.m.
171 Flinders St. Melbourne
See Story Pages 6 & 7
Black Rock arrests

GAYS FIGHT BACK

TOWARDS the end of November, police began harassing gay people who were meeting at a secluded area of Melbourne's Black Rock beach.

The cops went around 20-25 times, including people who had been following police car. They would shout at people and tell them to move. They would also threaten to arrest people if they didn't leave the area.

Some gay people said they were tired of being harassed and wanted to do something about it.

Access

Black Rock and Gay Labor have had some success in getting people to come out and support their cause. They have also tried to organize protests and rallies to raise awareness.

RATES STRIKE THREATENED

If Melbourne's rates rise, there is a possibility that the government will declare a rate strike.

LABOR'S PRICE CONTROL FRAUD

The new Labor government in power is known for its strict price controls. However, recent reports suggest that the government may be manipulating prices to benefit itself. This has led to questions about the effectiveness of the government's price control policies.

FRASER'S MONEY POLICY:
WHEN IN DOUBT, AID THE COCKIES

IT IS CLEAR that Fraser's money policy is not working as planned. The government has been printing large amounts of money to try to stimulate the economy, but this has led to inflation and higher interest rates. Fraser's move to cut interest rates has not helped either. In fact, it has only led to more borrowing and debt.

WHAT WE THINK

REDUCE FOREIGN AID

CAMPAIGN

The Fraser government is reducing foreign aid to developing countries, saying that it is not needed. This is a mistake, according to some economists, who believe that foreign aid can help lift people out of poverty and into the middle class.

THE FRASER GOVERNMENT

The Fraser government is facing a lot of criticism for its handling of the economy. Some people believe that the government is not doing enough to stimulate the economy, while others think that the government is doing too much and is leading to inflation.

MIRACLE

The Fraser government is hoping that it can find a miracle solution to the economic crisis. Some people believe that the government is looking for a quick fix, but others think that the government is taking a more long-term approach.

SAILING THE SEAS DEPENDS UPON THE HELMSMAN

The Fraser government is trying to improve the nation's trade relations with other countries. Some people think that the government is doing a good job, while others think that it is not doing enough.
ZIMBABWE:
The talks are over

Fretinlin scores major victories

THE FRETELIN FORCES in East Timor have just scored a major military victory over the occupying Indonesian forces. It's a major turn in the independence struggle. Fretelin's forces captured a key Indonesian post near Dili last week. This is the biggest military success by Fretelin since the war began.

The talks are over. The war is inevitable.

No Letters

There is no letters page this month.

For more info, write to:
P.O. Box 17 Richmond 1921 Vc

Zimbabwe Freedom Fighters

CHINA RECONSTRUCTS

THE CHINESE leadership is continuing its campaign against the Cultural Revolution. From April 1, the military and police have been deployed to all major cities and towns. The campaign is aimed at reducing the influence of the Cultural Revolution and promoting national unity.

Dock workers fighting back against Fretelin's attacks have been facing strong resistance. The workers have been organized into a group of about 500 workers, who have been setting up barricades and hiding arms. In some places, the workers have been attacked by Fretelin forces.

DON'T BUY "BUY AUSTRALIAN"

THE FRASER Government has announced a new strategy to boost the Australian economy. The government is expected to announce a package of measures to encourage Australian businesses to invest in the country. The measures will include tax breaks, increased infrastructure spending, and more opportunities for Australian businesses to access foreign markets.

MORE SACKINGS AT THE SHIPYARDS

...and the workers need more support

Battler fighting fund

The Christmas/New Year holiday period was a mixed bag for workers in the shipyards. Lack of orders has resulted in the sackings of workers who were previously employed. The workers are now calling for more support from the community.

STATE DOCKYARD

The dockworkers have set up a strike fund to support workers who have been sacked. The fund will be used to help workers who are unable to find new jobs or who are facing financial difficulties.

STATE DOCKYARD

The dockworkers have set up a strike fund to support workers who have been sacked. The fund will be used to help workers who are unable to find new jobs or who are facing financial difficulties.
The FBI, the CIA and the death of Karen Silkwood

TERRY LEEDS

The F.B.I. and the C.I.A. had been investigating Karen Silkwood for years. They had her under surveillance and monitored her movements. They were trying to get information about her and her activities. Karen was a engineer at the plant and she had been complaining about safety issues and working conditions. She was a whistle blower and her complaints were ignored by her superiors.

FOUL PLAY

The F.B.I. had been mixing with Karen and she was friendly with them. They were trying to get her to talk to them about things. They were following her around and monitoring her. They were trying to get her to talk to them about things.

WE CAN

The Western Suburbs Campaign Against Newport (WESCAN) was formed in mid-December by a public meeting of fifty western suburbs residents.

The protest at Trumbull Hall in front of the nuclear power plant in Newport. It was being televised by the F.B.I.

ARSENAL

The plant had been burning weapons grade uranium, which was dangerous. The plant was being扩建 and new reactors were being built. It was being expanded and new reactors were being built. It was dangerous to be around.

Fighting the F.B.I.

The F.B.I. was trying to get information about Karen and her activities. They were following her around and monitoring her. They were trying to get her to talk to them about things.

“WE WOULD LIKE TO BE THE FIGHT AGAINST THE NEWPORT POWER PLANT IRRESPECTIVE OF THE OUTCOME OF THE INQUIRY”

WHY WE’RE BOYCOTTING THE NEWPORT INQUIRY

IF YOU’RE SO OPPOSED to Newport, why not be asking members of WESCAN to be more involved in your inquiry?

SUNLIGHT

There’s no way for the SEC to get involved in the inquiry. They’re not interested in getting involved.

COAL DUST

Yes, they are aware of the potential dangers of coal dust. They are aware of the dangers of coal dust. They are aware of the dangers of coal dust.

MISERABLE

They don’t care about the workers. They don’t care about the workers. They don’t care about the workers.
A NIGHT ON THE TOWN

Alec Kahn reviews the movie "Wives"

"...just for this night, they are going to forget it all and put themselves first"
HAMER GOES FOR THE KILL

Teachers face the sack....

FEWER jobs and longer hours are the penalties for Victoria's government teachers. The government has cut teachers' numbers back to the levels of July 1970. The plan was announced this week by Education Minister Max Costello.

The government is expected to announce next week an increase in school hours from 25 hours to 27 1/4 hours. The changes will be made in the second week of June, with the new hours taking effect in the next school term.

The government also plans to reduce the number of teachers in each school by about 10 per cent. This will mean that some schools will have to reduce the number of classes they offer.

The changes are expected to save the government $3 million a year.

Will the Unions Fight Back?

The teachers' unions have not yet announced whether they will fight back against the government's proposals. However, the teachers' unions have already started preparations for a strike if the government's proposals are accepted.

...because these men get _the axe_...

THE VICTORIAN government has announced that 190 school teachers will be sacked from the government's schools in the next school term. The announcement was made by Education Minister Max Costello.

The teachers were given three days' notice of their dismissal. They will lose their jobs on July 1.

The government has also announced that it plans to reduce the number of teachers in each school by about 10 per cent. This will mean that some schools will have to reduce the number of classes they offer.

The changes are expected to save the government $3 million a year.

Libs Fume at Power Strikers

There's going to be another power strike in Victoria, and this time the union's got the better end of the argument. The campaign has been launched by the Victorian Teachers' Federation, which is demanding that teachers be paid a 50 per cent increase in wages.

There are about 10,000 teachers in Victoria, and they are currently paid an average of $1,200 a year. The federation is demanding that they be paid at least $1,800 a year.

The federation has also called for a 10 per cent increase in class sizes. The current average class size is 25 students, and the federation wants it reduced to 20.

The federation says that the increase in class size would be paid for by the government.

The federation has given the government three months to respond to its demands. If the government fails to respond, the federation has said it will commence industrial action.
VICTORY!
Dillingham smashed after four months

REPORT BY TOM O'LINCOLN

"We're not done yet, Fairfax!"

UNEMPLOYMENT BUT STILL reports and documents. This is the official standing position of the A.I.S. For the moment, the battle is not lost. The Cross section of the A.I.S. workers' fight for their rights is a victory for all workers. The Cross section of the A.I.S. workers' fight for their rights is a victory for all workers.

Get yours on time!
SUBSCRIBE to THE BATTLE

TEN CENTS

THE BATTLER
PAPER OF THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIALISTS

NUMBER 31 2 MARCH 1977

INSIDE
THE FIGHT FOR JOBS, pages 4 & 5

THE SHEIK
OF NAREEN

STUFF PARTIAL INDEXATION

WE WANT THE LOT!

THE SIX PERCENT RISE
in the Consumer Price Index has already been stored out of our wage packet.

So in the other 2% catchup that the ACTU is starting...

It is not by right. It is money that we have before the costs rip off out of our hands with no room left for us.

It is money that we that before we can stand on a matrix they to which unemployment will go up. But unemployment will go up anyway, because mass unemployment is a deliberate policy of the Fraser Government.

PROFITS

They want high unemployment rates of wages are cut because they cannot promote their profits without it.

We need the wage we want and we can get it. If the Cross don't give it to us, we will be forced to take it through every union and every power.

Because we can't afford to lose if we don't.
Three Reasons Why Newport Will Not Be Built:

1. Lack of Federal Approval: The project requires approval from the Department of the Interior and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, which has not been granted yet.
2. Environmental Concerns: There are significant environmental concerns regarding the impact on the local ecosystem.
3. Financial Issues: The cost of the project has escalated beyond what the sponsors can afford.

---

THE GAME’S OVER ON INDEXATION

By Tom Cullin

W.A. LABOR-ECONOMY CONFLICTS

The only surprising thing about the W.A. Labor decisions is that Labor’s support for indexation has already been won.

1976.06.18.

---

METAL TRADES UNIONS MUST MOVE NOW

by Kevin Bn, AMWU researcher, Repros Universals

Metal trades union delegates and shop stewards in the metal trades for 1977 get together on Friday, March 3 at a Trades Hall meeting to discuss the future of their union.

---

Why We Really Need A $30 Rise

by Dave Nadel

The rise must come.

---

THE FIRST MEETING of Melbourne job delegates and shop stewards in the metal trades for 1977 get together on Thursday, March 3 at a Trades Hall meeting to discuss the future of their union.

---

Be Built: The “Neutral” Commissioners

Approval of the rate per week of $30.00 for the last 20 years in the last 20 years in the 1973-1974 Agreement, and not for the last 20 years in the 1974-1975 Agreement, nor for the last 20 years in the 1975-1976 Agreement.

---

Full Text Available

Full text available online at the following link:

- Be Built: The “Neutral” Commissioners
- The Game’s Over on Indexation
- Why We Really Need A $30 Rise
- The First Meeting of Melbourne Job Delegates
TEACHERS STRIKE FOR JOBS

COBURG

LAST SENSE, teachers at Coburg High became the first in the Melbourne area to go on strike in support of their colleagues in the rural districts. The teachers said that they were絕 not disappointed in the government's offer of a 30% salary increase. They explained that the strike was to protest the government's failure to provide adequate funding for schools. The teachers were supported by students and parents who also joined the picket line.

SEAFORD - CARRUM

ON FRIDAY, February 18, Larry Ingram, a teacher at Seaford-Carrum High School, received a message from the teachers' union informing him that he had been declared a 'strike' teacher by the government. The government had decided to make the 30% salary increase conditional on the teachers' acceptance of a new contract. Ingram refused to sign the contract and joined the strike.

But the Unions lag Behind

BY TESS LEE AKn, UST A.

Victorian teachers have begun fighting back from the long-threatened job strike. The government has imposed a 30% salary increase on teachers, who have for years been demanding a better deal. The UST A, which represents the teachers, has taken the lead in the strike. The teachers are demanding a 40% increase and are prepared to continue the strike until they get their way. The government, however, is standing firm and is not willing to negotiate.

Unemployed meet

FORT ST.

MILITANT ACTION can win jobs. That has been the experience of the 13 unemployed teachers at Fort St High School. They have been on strike for almost a month, demanding better conditions. They have been offered jobs at other schools, but they have refused them. The teachers believe that they can win their demands by continuing the strike.

HOLESGLEN

The teachers' union has launched a campaign to win back jobs for the unemployed teachers. The union is working closely with the teachers at Fort St High School and is planning to organize a demonstration to publicize the teachers' demands.

THE BATTLES 2 MARCH 1977
If you think politics is bullshit, then read this...

You can say that again

by TOM O'LINCOLN

POLAND: LIVING ON BORROWED TIME

There is a strange air of calm in Poland this year. Despite predictions of a 60% rise in the price of food, eggs and meat being bought out, the evidence suggests that this has not been the case. As it has backed down the previous year, it seems a hopeful sign.

Government cuts even more drastic is the result of this year’s budget, which has been imposed on the people to be met by further cuts in the state budget. The Polish government has introduced a series of measures that will lead to further cuts in public services and welfare payments. With the rise in the cost of food and other basic necessities, the government is trying to keep the economy on the rise.

IDRI AMIN: CONDEMNED BY THE PEOPLE WHO MADE HIM

The Australian Press has had a fall day since the death of Idi Amin. A number of newspapers have led this week with their coverage of the events in Uganda.

The government’s response was immediate. It denied that Amin had any connection with the events in Uganda. It also called for the return of the ousted president, who had been in power for over 30 years. The British government has offered Amin asylum in the United Kingdom, while the United States has rejected the offer. The International Monetary Fund has also called for Amin’s return, saying that it was the only way to bring stability to Uganda.

MARCH 8 — The Day Working Women Fight For Their Rights

On March 8, 1977, women all over the world took to the streets to demand equal rights and opportunities in all aspects of life. This day marks the beginning of the global women's rights movement.

The movement was sparked by the Second International Conference of Women in Beijing in 1975. Since then, women have been demanding equal pay, equal access to education and the workplace, and an end to discrimination.

Women across the world have made significant progress, but there is still much work to be done. The fight for gender equality continues, and March 8 is a reminder that we must all continue to support women's rights.
NEWCASTLE

Report PHIL GRIFFITHS

a city slowly dies

"I think I'm on the industrial scrapheap"

"I looked up to where my Tolke was supposed to be on the stand and there was a white spot."

NEWCASTLE is a dying city.

It was once the centre of heavy industry in Australia with the BHP steelworks, the Newcastle sandal and a local shipbuilding industry. But since the war, many of these industries have been declining. The shipbuilding industry has declined markedly in recent years and the last ship built in the area was a small fishing boat.

The sandal industry has also suffered. "I think 12,000 people are employed in the Hunter Valley region, mostly women," said the harbour master. "It's a very hard job but it's worth it."

The steelworks has also been affected by the decline of the industry. "They used to have 2,000 people working at the steelworks but now that's down to 1,000." said one worker.

"The bloke has gone interstate carting grain"

"Other cities have had a lot of problems," said one worker. "But we've managed to get through it."

The Newcastle branch of the ANMSU has organized a series of meetings to discuss the situation and to get support from the community.

"I think we're doing okay," said one worker. "But we need more support from the union."
Dear Battlers,

We Protest!

Dear Battlers,

We call upon you to unite in your appeal to the Government to call a Royal Commission into the matter of the price of the public utilities. We would suggest a Royal Commission be set up as follows:

1. The President of the Arbitration Court be the Chairman.
2. The Prime Minister be a member.
3. Other members to be chosen from prominent members of the community.

We would also suggest that the Government be asked to provide funding for the Royal Commission and that the Royal Commission be given the power to call for evidence from any person or body in the country.

Yours sincerely,
[Signature]

BLINDEE BILL SMELLS A RAT

Dear Battlers,

A LOT OF FEAR was evident in Melbourne today as a result of the announcement by Prime Minister Bob Hawke that he would be considering the introduction of a new tax on tobacco products. The tax would be introduced in stages, beginning with the introduction of a 10% tax on cigarettes in the first year, followed by a 20% tax in the second year.

The Prime Minister said that the tax would yield an estimated $1 billion in revenue each year and would help to fund the government's social programs. He also said that the tax would help to reduce smoking rates and improve public health.

Organizations that support tobacco use were quick to react to the announcement, with the Tobacco Institute calling for a boycott of the government's proposal. The Institute said that the tax would be a severe blow to the industry and would cost jobs.

On the other hand, the health lobby praised the government's decision, with Health Minister Paul Keating saying that the tax was long overdue.

Sandra Wilson's fight for freedom

Sandra Wilson was released from prison today after serving 15 years for a crime she did not commit. The 45-year-old was arrested in 1962 for the murder of a woman, but was found innocent in 1977 after new evidence came to light.

Wilson's family and supporters have been fighting for her release ever since. They have held vigils outside the prison and written countless letters to the government, but to no avail.

Finally, the government has agreed to release Wilson, who has been living in a prison hostel for the past few years. She will be allowed to remain in the hostel until she finds a place to live.

INNER SUBURBS HIGH-RISE RATES SMALL BEER FOR C.U.B.

The controversial high-rise rates for inner suburbs are back on the agenda. Negotiations between the government and the C.U.B. have broken down, with the government offering only a 5% increase in rates while the C.U.B. is demanding a 10% increase.

The current rates are one of the main issues dividing the two parties. The C.U.B. argues that the rates are too low and are not covering the cost of providing services to the community. The government, on the other hand, says that the rates are already high and that any further increases will be unbearable for the residents.
BUILDING A BATTLES NETWORK

by Phil Griffiths

Rod Stewart - from Gasoline Alley to Sunset Boulevard

A FEW YEARS AGO, the band 'Rock Dreams' transformed Rod Stewart as a dedicated fan of football. The band's guitarist, Phil Griffiths, was a big fans of football, had a different name, but was one of the most popular bands in the UK. The band's name was 'Rod Stewart' and they were well known for their massive hit, 'Gasoline Alley'.

Rod Stewart is a British singer-songwriter, actor, and musician. He made his name in the 1960s as a member of the bands 'The Faces' and 'Rod Stewart'. He later embarked on a solo career, and has released numerous successful albums. His music has been described as a mix of rock, blues, and soul, and he has sold over 100 million records worldwide. He has been inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and has received numerous awards and honors throughout his career.

THE CENTENARY TEST

THANK GOODNESS IT HAPPENS ONLY ONCE EVERY HUNDRED YEARS

English football's longest-running competition, the Football League, celebrates its 100th anniversary this year. The English Football League was formed in 1921 and has since become a major force in English football, with 92 clubs competing in the top two divisions. The league has seen many changes over the years, but one thing that remains constant is the passion and dedication of its fans.

Contact International Socialists In Your Area

MELBOURNE

505 Easy St. Carlton North, Melbourne 3054

SYDNEY

37 Bridge St. Waterloo, Sydney 2017

SOUTH COAST

28 Old Hume Hwy. Illawarra, Nanango, QLD 4670

CANBERRA

21 Shortland St. Thuringowa, Queanbeyan 2620

ADELAIDE

150 King St. Hindmarsh, Adelaide 5007

FRONT LINE

Available from

LJN Books, 413 White St., Melbourne 3000

SBS Books, 100 Market St., Sydney 2000

ILS Branches

50 cents

by DAVE NADEN

Every picture tells a story.

The Centenary Test is in memory of those who died and are remembered today. It's a day where we remember those who gave their lives for the club. It's a day where we remember the sacrifices made by our forefathers. It's a day where we remember the history and tradition of our club. It's a day where we remember the values and principles that our club stands for.
UNIROYAL FIGHTS FOR CLOSED SHOP

Fighting the sack at Massey Ferguson

WE'RE NOT JUST NUMBERS IN A HAT!

WORKERS AT the big Massey Ferguson plant in Sunshine (Melbourne) have just won a guarantee of no sackings for those months.

The results of a ballot by the 1,200 workers at the factory, were announced Wednesday night. The only issue voted on was the retention of the existing seniority. The workers voted overwhelmingly for the retention of the existing seniority. The workers voted overwhelmingly for the retention of the existing seniority.

GMH Beaten On Transfers

"You're not locking us out, Chrysler!"

from Gary Hill
VBU, Chrylser

When Work resumed at Chrysler's Fishermans Bend engines works, after the annual Christmas shutdown, workers it was revealed that the plant would be shut down on 30th December.

BHP

The company had already made it clear that it was planning to cut the workforce by 500 people. The workers were told that they would be told whether they were staying on the night of the sackings.

Sydney's fire brigade shambles

THE SYDNEY fire brigade situation is a shambles.

When Work resumed at Chrysler's Fishermans Bend engines works, after the annual Christmas shutdown, workers it was revealed that the plant would be shut down on 30th December.

BHP

The company had already made it clear that it was planning to cut the workforce by 500 people. The workers were told that they would be told whether they were staying on the night of the sackings.

Sydney's fire brigade shambles

THE SYDNEY fire brigade situation is a shambles.

When Work resumed at Chrysler's Fishermans Bend engines works, after the annual Christmas shutdown, workers it was revealed that the plant would be shut down on 30th December.

BHP

The company had already made it clear that it was planning to cut the workforce by 500 people. The workers were told that they would be told whether they were staying on the night of the sackings.

Sydney's fire brigade shambles

THE SYDNEY fire brigade situation is a shambles.

When Work resumed at Chrysler's Fishermans Bend engines works, after the annual Christmas shutdown, workers it was revealed that the plant would be shut down on 30th December.

BHP

The company had already made it clear that it was planning to cut the workforce by 500 people. The workers were told that they would be told whether they were staying on the night of the sackings.

Sydney's fire brigade shambles

THE SYDNEY fire brigade situation is a shambles.

When Work resumed at Chrysler's Fishermans Bend engines works, after the annual Christmas shutdown, workers it was revealed that the plant would be shut down on 30th December.

BHP

The company had already made it clear that it was planning to cut the workforce by 500 people. The workers were told that they would be told whether they were staying on the night of the sackings.

Sydney's fire brigade shambles

THE SYDNEY fire brigade situation is a shambles.

When Work resumed at Chrysler's Fishermans Bend engines works, after the annual Christmas shutdown, workers it was revealed that the plant would be shut down on 30th December.

BHP

The company had already made it clear that it was planning to cut the workforce by 500 people. The workers were told that they would be told whether they were staying on the night of the sackings.

Sydney's fire brigade shambles

THE SYDNEY fire brigade situation is a shambles.

When Work resumed at Chrysler's Fishermans Bend engines works, after the annual Christmas shutdown, workers it was revealed that the plant would be shut down on 30th December.

BHP

The company had already made it clear that it was planning to cut the workforce by 500 people. The workers were told that they would be told whether they were staying on the night of the sackings.

Sydney's fire brigade shambles

THE SYDNEY fire brigade situation is a shambles.

When Work resumed at Chrysler's Fishermans Bend engines works, after the annual Christmas shutdown, workers it was revealed that the plant would be shut down on 30th December.

BHP

The company had already made it clear that it was planning to cut the workforce by 500 people. The workers were told that they would be told whether they were staying on the night of the sackings.
INDEXATION - THE GREAT PAY ROBBERY

The Wage Indexation system is on its last legs.

The 85-79 decision means that the Australian Constitution is out all the rules of our works and it is going to do as it damn well pleases.

The previous decision made under the then government's wage indexation scheme.

The wage indexation system, which was implemented in 1973, was intended to protect workers from inflation by automatically adjusting wages to keep pace with price increases. However, over time, it became clear that the system was flawed and was not effective in protecting workers from inflation.

The battle for the right to work continues.

The Battler's editorial on the political and economic implications of indexation.

The Battler's editorial on the political and economic implications of indexation.

The Ford Strike

'They're out to destroy the Militants'

Eight hundred workers at the Ford Truck Plant in Broadmeadows, Melbourne, have just finished a three day strike.

The dispute flared up after continuous demands from the company centering on a threat from a foreman who termed his action V.B.U. (Vicious and Unlawful) at the striker's home.

In an interview, Brian Franklin, the strikers' senior leader, said: "We are fighting to save the jobs of our workers, and we are prepared to go all the way to ensure that the strike is a success."

The strike is currently in its second week, with plans to continue until the company makes an offer.

SUBSCRIBE to THE BATTLER

NAME:

ADDRESS:

Introductory Subscription (6 issues) $1.00
First Year Subscription (26 issues) $7.50
Supporting Subscription (12 issues) $3.00

CLIP AND POST TO - The Battler, PO Box 1201

PAGE 16 THE BATTLER 2 MARCH 1977
SLAVERY

LABOR LEADERSHIP CRISIS

Where’s the Left?

WOULD THE LEFT WING comrades for the Federal Labor Party please stand up?

It certainly looks today’s right-wing Bill Hayden, despite the support he’s getting from ALP factions and left-wingers.

Agreement on issues so far has been limited to the “Socialist” elements in the ALP, with some support from the “Advanced Left”, and from “progressives” in the “National” wing of the Labor Party.

The government’s support for the “Socialist” elements is unlikely to last long. This is because there is still a strong desire among Labor Party members to maintain the “party discipline” and keep Labor the party of the working class.
"There’s about 300,000 people like me who can’t get a job"

UNEMPLOYMENT IN AUSTRALIA at the end of Feb-mary stood at 348,668. That’s 5.7% of the labor force—the worst February figure since the depression.

At the same time there were 38,770 registered job unemployed. These are just available for every twelve people registered but a job.

For the new figure is only partly due to the unregistered (17,241) who are not seeking work, but also to the registered unemployed who are now rarely at work for his weeks. It is not...
Behind the Economic Crisis

by TOM O'LINCOLN

INDIA: The End of a Dynasty

by RICHARD GILLESPIE

WHOSE REPUBLIC?

UNEmployment 350,000 and rising.

MAoris Fight for Their Land

by JEFF GOLDHAR

With Tony Roberts
This 73 year old pensioner couldn't pay his rates - so they jailed him!

This is Labour's Britain, 1977

Everybody knows that renting is in the news. The rental economy is the new way to live. For example, Britain now has a greater number of people in rented accommodation than ever before. Many or them are living in discomfort and poverty, but they have nowhere else to go. The official figures show that in 1975 there were 160,000 people in rented accommodation, but in 1977 this had risen to 240,000. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total number of people who are living in rented accommodation. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house is now £20 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house is now £15 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed flat is now £30 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed flat is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the north of England is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the north of England is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the south of England is now £30 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the south of England is now £25 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the midlands is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the midlands is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the west of England is now £30 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the west of England is now £25 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the east of England is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the east of England is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in Scotland is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in Scotland is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in Wales is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in Wales is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in Northern Ireland is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in Northern Ireland is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Channel Islands is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Channel Islands is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Isle of Man is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Isle of Man is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Isles of Scilly is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Isles of Scilly is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Shetland Islands is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Shetland Islands is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Orkney Islands is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Orkney Islands is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Zeebrugge is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Zeebrugge is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Fischland-Darß-Zingst is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Fischland-Darß-Zingst is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Prora is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Prora is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Heligoland is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Heligoland is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Peenemünde is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Peenemünde is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Ronne is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Ronne is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Sylt is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Sylt is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Spiekeroog is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Spiekeroog is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Friedrichsort is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Friedrichsort is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Lychen is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Lychen is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Blankensee is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Blankensee is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living. The official figures also show that the average rent for a two-bedroomed house in the Havel is now £25 per week, but the average rent for a one-bedroomed house in the Havel is now £20 per week. This is a big increase, but it is still only a fraction of the total cost of living.
Dear Battlers,

The Dan Reidy Case: ‘PRINT THE FACTS!’

Dear Battlers,

Who can forget the great day when Dan Reidy was introduced into the world of politics by the National Party of Australia at the National Convention in Sydney in June last year? It was an historic moment in Australian political history. With the National Convention in Sydney in mind, we can now look forward to the National Convention in Melbourne in January.

We were all there when Dan Reidy was introduced into the world of politics by the National Party of Australia at the National Convention in Sydney in June last year. It was an historic moment in Australian political history. With the National Convention in Sydney in mind, we can now look forward to the National Convention in Melbourne in January.

Scared of the Sack?

Dear Battlers,

We are all scared of the sack. We are all worried about what might happen if we don't conform to the expectations of our employers. It's a tough world out there, and we never know when we might lose our jobs. It's like walking on a tightrope, always trying to balance our needs and the needs of our employers.

TLC sneezes while IRB burns

THE CANBERRA TLC has recently been hit by a disastrous fire that has destroyed the organization's headquarters in Canberra. The fire, which started in the early hours of the morning, has left the organization's members and volunteers devastated.

South Sydney at it again

"The Country" magazine has revealed that the South Sydney Rugby League Club has once again been involved in a scandal. The magazine has reported that the club's president, a former member of the New South Wales Legislative Council, has been involved in a corruption scandal. The club's president has been accused of using his position to benefit himself and his family.

Jim Walker Replies

Greg Weir: Gay teacher victimised

by Ian Jordan

Greg Weir is an unemployed teacher. He was sacked from his job at the local high school last year because he was found to be gay.

TEN NOSE OIL FIT TO BREAK THE CHAINS AS THOSE WHO WEAR THEM

International Women's Day

Sydney 1977

None so fit to break the chains as those who wear them.
Come to our Conference

INTERNATIONAL SOCIALISTS

What we fight for

INTERNATIONAL

POWER

what we fight for

The International Socialists are a revolutionary socialist organisation, open to all who support our goals and principles and who are willing to work to achieve them.

Our principles are:

THE REVOLUTIONARY PARTY

REPUBLICAN

Roots in the working class movement. A socialist revolution that will

SWASHING THE CAPITALIST STATE

The capitalist state is a system that has the power to maintain its existence through coercion and violence. It is not a natural law nor a permanent fact.

The capitalist state is a contradiction in itself. It cannot exist without contradiction.

The capitalist state is a contradiction in itself. It cannot exist without contradiction.

The capitalist state is a contradiction in itself. It cannot exist without contradiction.

To create a socialist republic is the only way to resolve these contradictions.

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will

A socialist revolution that will
HOLMSEGLIN:

This is how they 'justify' sacking 150

WE NEED TO GET TOUGH WITH PARSONS
by David Rice

THE MEETING was held in Holmseglen last week under the chairmanship of the Australian Workers Union. It was aimed at unifying the workers who are working on the Holmseglen site. The meeting was well attended and it was agreed that the workers should take action to secure their rights.

The workers have been working for many years and they are now demanding that their rights be respected. The company has been unfair to the workers and they are determined to fight for their rights.

THE TEACHER STRIKE THAT DIDN'T HAPPEN

NEARLY - BUT not quite. That was the story of the Victoria Teachers Federation's attempt to get a strike call. The Federation was organized to run a week's strike, but the plan was foiled.

After a series of meetings and negotiations, the Federation decided to call a strike. However, when the time came for the strike to begin, the Federation was unable to secure the necessary support. The Federation was forced to give up and the strike was called off.

DANGER SIGN IN METAL TRADES

THE 1975 METAL Trades Union has issued a warning to all members - the strike has already been called off. The Union has called for a meeting of all members to discuss the latest developments.

The strike was called after a series of meetings between the Union and the management. However, the management refused to meet the Union's demands. The Union was forced to call the strike.

FORBES FEVER FIGHT

WHEN THEY SAY their workers are 'sacked', they mean it! They go on strike and demand their reinstatement. The workers at Forbes have been working for many years and they are determined to fight for their rights.

The workers have been working without a wage increase for some time. They are now demanding that their rights be respected. The company has been unfair to the workers and they are determined to fight for their rights.
MEAT STRIKE

The 1977 meatworkers' campaign got under way yesterday with the announcement that the AMWU has immediately run into an unexpected hitch.

MEWU members went out on strike at Broken Hill, in Victoria, Tasmania and the western states. But the AMWU has been unable to get the support of the meat workers at the major meatworks in Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane.

SOLIDARITY BEATS THE SACK

"DO NOT BE FOOLLED by this legal mumbo jumbo and going to court,"

Twas the only statement that will get everyone up. At least that's how it was in the town square today. It's an annual event. The AMWU members stage a protest outside the Sydney Central Police Station. The crowd is large and enthusiastic, filling the surrounding streets.

The protest started early this morning and continued throughout the day. There were speeches, music, and dancing. The atmosphere was lively and the crowd was happy. The protest ended around midnight, after a few issues were resolved.

Fraser's Freeze

IT'S COLD WAR ON WAGES

BY PHIL GRIFFITHS

The battle has begun over the future of the meat workers. The AMWU and the employers are locked in a bitter battle over wages. The AMWU is demanding a 20% increase in wages, while the employers are offering only a 5% increase.

The meat industry is a major employer in Australia, and the AMWU is a powerful union. It is not surprising that the employers are determined to keep wages low. The AMWU has a history of successes in previous wage negotiations, and it is likely to continue to fight hard for its members.

Eastern Suburbs Railway

WHAT WE THINK

The Eastern Suburbs Railway has been a symbol of poor organization, craft bitterness and industrial conditions.

This is the current condition of the Eastern Suburbs Railway. It is a struggle for survival. The railway is in a state of disrepair, with many of its workers on strike. The AMWU has been trying to negotiate a new contract for the workers, but the employers have been refusing to budge.

Triumph

Under these circumstances, the strike was a triumph for the workers who held it.

The workers are going to try to get some of the decisions reversed. The railway will be reduced in size and scope. The workers will be encouraged to vote in the ballot on the question of the strike.

Strength

The workers are going to try to get some of the decisions reversed. The railway will be reduced in size and scope. The workers will be encouraged to vote in the ballot on the question of the strike.
THE FREEZE — WHAT THEY'RE OFFERING AND WHY

Vote 'Yes' in the (yawn) Referendum

If you can be bothered to vote 'Yes' for the Referendum...
BAN OVERTIME TO SAVE JOBS

Dear Battlers,

If all unnecessary overtime were being worked the factories would be very busy and we would have full employment.

Accept your office colleagues, Salesmen, Workers,

Yours,

Dear Battlers,

The managers of the steel company here have been ordered to stop overtime work. All overtime work will be stopped immediately. No overtime will be allowed. The managers say that overtime work is unprofitable. They will instead lay off workers to save money.

Yours,

Dear Battlers,

The managers of the steel company here have been ordered to stop overtime work. All overtime work will be stopped immediately. No overtime will be allowed. The managers say that overtime work is unprofitable. They will instead lay off workers to save money.

Yours,

Here's how the sharks operate

Dear Battlers,

The managers of the steel company here have been ordered to stop overtime work. All overtime work will be stopped immediately. No overtime will be allowed. The managers say that overtime work is unprofitable. They will instead lay off workers to save money.

Yours,
Lest We Forget...

the Slaughter

DAME FIelds
looks at Anzac Day

ANZAC DAY has reviled again a day the nods opportunity to show the bravest and the most and the RSL to remind us about "Anzac Day". It is a day for the need for eternal vigilance and so on.

They say "Lest we forget", but what do we mean by this?

Today, on Anzac Day, we remember the 60,000 Australians who died in the First World War. They are honoured for their service and for their sacrifice.

The ANZAC Day parade is a symbol of our appreciation for those who gave their lives for our country. It is a day for us to come together and remember the bravery and courage of those who fought for our freedom.

In addition to the parade, we also remember the many Australians who served and died in subsequent conflicts. It is a day for us to reflect on the sacrifices made by those who have fought for our country in times of war.

As we commemorate Anzac Day, let us not forget the sacrifices made by those who have served and sacrificed for our country. Let us remember their bravery and courage, and let us honor their memory.

War in Central Africa

The Western powers have been making a desperate tempt to use the government of President Mobutu, in Zaire (Central Africa).

The government has been trying to bring about democracy in the country, but the opposition parties have been calling for the withdrawal of foreign forces.

The government has been trying to negotiate with the opposition, but the talks have been unsuccessful.

The situation in Zaire is deeply troubling, and it is important that we continue to support the government in its efforts to bring about a peaceful crime.

What about these dissidents?

In their coverage of dissenters and dissidents, there is a new wave of reports. Some of these reports suggest that the dissidents are being punished for their views. Other reports suggest that the government is trying to suppress the free press.

It is important that we continue to support the freedom of the press, and that we support those who are fighting for their rights.
THE DREAM THAT BECAME A NIGHTMARE

This is what a Revolution looks like 1956

In most places, the economic situation is much better now, but in other areas, especially in the countryside, the situation remains difficult. The government has taken steps to improve the living standards of the people, but progress is slow. The workers are still fighting for better wages and working conditions. The struggle continues.

Students rise workers rise

On May 2, 1968, a few thousand students demonstrated in Paris against the French government's education policies. The protests quickly spread to other cities, and soon the students were joined by workers. The government tried to suppress the demonstrations, but public support for the strikers grew. The situation became tense, and there were clashes between police and demonstrators.

The government eventually agreed to some of the protesters' demands, and the demonstrations subsided. However, the event marked a turning point in French history, leading to widespread social and political changes. The workers' movement continued to grow, and the country entered a new phase.

PARIS 1968

Revolutionary Wrought Iron - The symbol of the workers' struggle.

The workers' movement was a major force in the 1960s, with millions of people joining in the struggle for better living conditions and social justice. In Paris, the workers' movement was particularly strong, and the demonstrations in 1968 were just one of many. The workers' movement continued to grow, and the country entered a new phase.
NO MORE GIN AND KNITTING NEEDLES

By Valery Borngren in Canberra

If you half listen, there’s a chance you might hear a line or two about the importance of the opposition’s role in any government. The opposition, after all, is supposed to be there to hold the government to account, not to join in the middle of the floor. But when the opposition has a clear majority of seats in the House, and the government is in a minority, things get complicated.

The opposition is, of course, required to stand up and demand accountability from the government. But who is the opposition, and what is accountability supposed to mean in this context? The opposition is made up of the members of the parties that are not part of the government. Accountability, on the other hand, is a slippery concept that is often used to justify political action.

The articles in this section cover a range of topics, from the importance of the opposition to the role of the government. The articles are written in a variety of styles, from news reports to personal reflections. The section is a good starting point for anyone interested in learning more about the politics of the day.

GAY RIGHTS WRONGED

It has become clear in the past few weeks that the Liberal Party has no intention of opposing any useful homosexual legislation. Instead, they will attempt to pass through a few tokenistic amendments to the Crimes Act until they are more likely to pass gay rights laws that are more in line with what they want.

The reaction of the left has been mixed. Some have welcomed the move, seeing it as a step in the right direction. Others have been disappointed, feeling that it is not enough. The issue of gay rights is complex, and there are many views on how it should be addressed.

Did YOU go to Don’s Party?

DO you remember election night 1989?

The Kennedy brilliance, dumped in yet another “chase” race.

The Battle. The Kennedy brilliance, dumped in yet another “chase” race.

THE ROOTS OF AMERICAN SLAVERY

IN SYDNEY, over a million people are part of a population of three million that are not white and many more.

The article begins:

The roots of American slavery are far deeper than the slavery that was practiced in the American South. The roots of American slavery are everywhere. They are in the history of the United States, they are in the history of the American people, and they are in the history of the American institutions.

The article continues:

The roots of American slavery are not just in the history of the United States, they are in the history of the American people, and they are in the history of the American institutions. They are in the history of the United States, they are in the history of the American people, and they are in the history of the American institutions.

I.S. BOOKS

I.S. BOOKS is pleased to announce that it now has a full range of Press books. This month we have featured:

- Bureaucracy and Revolution
- The British Empire
- The British Empire
- The British Empire
- The British Empire

See the full range of I.S Books at any I.S Books shop or call 01 123 4567. Write for a free catalogue.
March with I.S. on Mayday

We've moved

Battler $5,000 Equipment Fund

A fortnightly Battler ~ Here's how we can do it
Fighting The Education Cuts

Hallam hits the ceiling

BY KERRY TYLER

THE VICTORIAN Government's staff ceiling policy is causing body strain in the Department of Education. In response to this, the union has called for a meeting to discuss the impact of the policy on teachers and their workload.

In a state-wide action, teachers at Hallam Heights Primary School are already on strike, demanding better working conditions and support.

JOBLESS .... AND GAGGED BY THEIR UNION

UNEMPLOYED teachers were given the boot last month when the department at a rally held in Adelaide against the policy change. This at a time when the state government was faced with a crisis in the education sector.

The rally was led by the leadership of the Association of Teachers and Staff (AAT) that the current situation might be avoided by the implementation of a full-time education department.

A range of speakers, including parents and students, called for better support and resources for teachers.

ACOA Elections

CAMPBELL IN THE SOUP

THREE YEARS have elapsed since the election of the ACOA Reform Group. Now, there is a new challenge as the group aims to select a candidate for the upcoming elections.

Students strike over starvation pay

SEVENTY thousand students across Australia strike for a pay rise on Thursday 28 April.

The National Union of Students (NUS) and the Australian Council of University Staff (ACUS) have called the strike to protest against the lack of government investment in education.

Concreters out 5 weeks

AFTER FIVE weeks on strike, Melbourne concreters are still locked out as they fight for a better deal.

Whose side is this Union on?

FANTASTIC! The only way to describe the current position of the ACOA Union, as full support for the strike is not forthcoming from the union itself.

AMI's disappearing job

APPEARENTLY AMI, Australian Media Instructors, has disappeared from the scene.

The Battler 30 April 1977
WE DEMAND A NATIONAL CAMPAIGN!

DELEGATES from Sydney’s Eastern Suburbs Railway are escalating their campaign against the company.

On April 20, the company announced an offer to pay 50c per hour to any employees who agreed to a new contract. Many workers believe the offer is not enough to cover their costs.

Eastern Suburbs Railway

HOW THEY TRIED TO SACK A SICK MAN

The Labourers on Sydney’s Eastern Suburbs Railway are struggling to deal with their employer’s actions.

On April 20, the company offered to pay 50c per hour to any employees who agreed to a new contract. Many workers believe the offer is not enough to cover their costs.

ACTU Discounts Union Rights

TWO WEEKS ago, the Trade Union movement was gearing up for a massive campaign against the Fraser Government’s attack on its rights.

THE BATTLER

No Deal on IRB

It is the greatest threat to the rights of workers ever seen in this country.

Meat bosses forced to talk

THE STRIKE GROWS as the battle continues.

Call this a victory?

MAUM Out Foxed by Fraser

IF ANY further proof was needed that the pro—

MAUM Out Foxed by Fraser

MAUM Out Foxed by Fraser

IF ANY further proof was needed that the pro—

MAUM Out Foxed by Fraser

MAUM Out Foxed by Fraser

MAUM Out Foxed by Fraser
Fraser out-Foxes Greenies

FROM CANBERRA WITH LOVE

Hawke’s I.R.B. Deal

WHERE WE LOST

ANDREW MILNER discusses the latest CIA revelations

By Alec Kahn

HAS YOURS?

AUS

A U.S. campaign to have the A.U.S. banned

Ducker Moves for Control

South Sydney Fightback

PAGE 2 THE BATTERL 28 MAY 1977
There is a crime here that goes beyond denunciation

In the Ivory Coast, a handful of doctors were giving free medical care to the villagers. They were funded by a non-profit organization that believed in providing healthcare to underprivileged areas.

"Food is a weapon. It is now one of the principal tools in our negotiating kit." - Earl Butz, US Secretary of Agriculture

"In the past, the world has been more concerned with moral issues than with economic ones. But now, with the Cold War, we cannot afford to ignore the economic aspect of the situation." -
John Kenneth Galbraith

"I have heard that people may become dependent on us for food. I know this is not supposed to be a problem. To me, it is a good news, because it means that people can do something, they have got to eat.
And they are looking for a way to get people to learn how to feed themselves, so that people can cooperate with you, it seems to me that food dependence would be terrible." - Sendhil Ramamurthy

"To give food aid to countries just because of shortages is a pretty weak reason." - Jody Eustice, US National Security

"The third world, let's look at this:
Negroes by western standards, they are more land poor than any other people in the world. But by taking their land, they are providing an ideological support for the white cause. It's against this background that we must look at the problems of the third world. World Food Program is not a solution, but rather it is a compromise." - Sendhil

"There is something wrong with our foreign policy. The United States is the richest country in the world but we are still destroying the world's natural resources." - Jody Eustice

"We are in the midst of economic crisis. There is a crisis in the underdeveloped countries. The world is hungering for food. But the United States
is sitting on a golden
mine.
" - Sendhil Ramamurthy

"Who cares about the third world? The United States does not care about the third world. They care about their own interests." - Jody Eustice

"Why do we care about the third world? Because we are selfish. It's the United States that cares, not the third world." - Sendhil Ramamurthy

"Who are we
fighting for? The United States is not fighting for the third world. They are fighting for their own interests." - Jody Eustice

"There is something wrong with our foreign policy. The United States is the richest country in the world but we are still destroying the
world's natural resources." - Sendhil

"We are in the midst of an economic crisis. There is a crisis in the underdeveloped countries. The world is hungering for food. But
the United States
is sitting on a golden
mine.
" - Sendhil Ramamurthy

"Who cares about the
third world? The United States does not care about the third world. They care about their own interests." - Jody Eustice

"Why do we care about the third world? Because we are selfish. It's the United States that cares, not the third world." - Sendhil Ramamurthy

"Who are we
fighting for? The United States is not fighting for the third world. They are fighting for their own interests." - Jody Eustice
CARTER'S ENERGY FRAUD

WATCH carefully to see what happens with President Carter's energy proposals in the United States. For a long time, the Carter non-nuclear power plan, which includes a modest increase in energy efficiency and demand-side management strategies, has been the focus of attention. Now a number of key decisions are being made on energy policy in the United States, and the Carter proposals are being debated extensively.

The issue is not just a matter of efficiency and conservation, but also of national security. The United States, which is highly dependent on imported energy, is faced with the prospect of rising prices and possibly even shortages in the near future. The Carter proposals, which include a mix of conservation, efficiency, and alternative energy sources, are designed to reduce the nation's vulnerability to foreign oil and to create jobs in the energy sector.

Recent developments have highlighted the need for action. The price of oil has risen sharply, and the OPEC countries have demonstrated their ability to control the supply of oil. The United States, which has been a major advocate of nuclear power, has been forced to re-assess its energy policy in light of these developments.

The Carter proposals include a mix of conservation, efficiency, and alternative energy sources. While some critics argue that these measures are too expensive and will not be effective in the long term, others point to the need for action to ensure the nation's energy security.

The Carter proposals are also being debated in other countries, where energy policy is becoming a major issue. The United States, which is a major importer of energy, is facing the prospect of rising prices and possibly even shortages in the near future. The Carter proposals, which include a mix of conservation, efficiency, and alternative energy sources, are designed to reduce the nation's vulnerability to foreign oil and to create jobs in the energy sector.

WHY PAISLEY FAILED

The strike of 'loyalist' workers in Northern Ireland has failed, mostly because it did not receive the support of the workers themselves. The workers were not in sympathy with the loyalist cause and many of them were against it. The strike was also poorly organized and lacked adequate leadership. The government was also not helpful and did not provide any support to the loyalists.

The strike was initially called by the Ulster Defence Association (UDA) and the Ulster Vanguard Association (IVA). The strike was aimed at forcing the British government to restore the Ulster Unionist Council (UUC) to power in Northern Ireland. The workers were demanding higher wages and better working conditions.

The strike was poorly received by the workers and many of them refused to participate. The strike was also quickly undermined by a lack of support from the loyalist organizations. The UDA and the IVA were not able to provide adequate leadership and the workers were not in sympathy with the loyalist cause.

The strike was also poorly organized and lacked adequate planning. The workers were not able to plan for the long term and did not have a clear strategy. The strike was also poorly funded and the workers were not able to sustain it for a long time.

The strike was also poorly received by the government. The government was not helpful and did not provide any support to the loyalists. The government was also not willing to negotiate with the loyalists and was not interested in the workers' demands.

The strike was a failure and the workers were not able to achieve their goals. The strike was also a failure for the loyalist organizations. The UDA and the IVA were not able to provide adequate leadership and the workers were not in sympathy with the loyalist cause.

Terrorist in Power

A VUTURE named Ministers Begin looks like becoming the new Minister of Defense. He will replace a man named Sinister Pryce. Begin is a former minister who was dismissed from his position in 1974. The Minister of Defense is the most powerful position in the government. This is a difficult position to fill, and many people have been рассматрива for the job.

The minister will be responsible for the armed forces of the United Kingdom. The armed forces are a major component of the government's power. The minister will be expected to make decisions that affect the lives of many people. This is a difficult job, and many people have tried to fill it.

In 1974, Pryce was dismissed from his position as Minister of Defense. He was dismissed because of his treatment of the armed forces. Pryce was accused of being too lenient with the armed forces. This caused a lot of controversy, and many people were disappointed with his performance.

The minister will be expected to make decisions that affect the lives of many people. This is a difficult job, and many people have tried to fill it. The minister will be responsible for the armed forces of the United Kingdom. The armed forces are a major component of the government's power.

No sackings No forced holidays

GM has said it will not sack its workers in the United Kingdom. No one has been sacked and no one has been forced to take holidays. The company has said that it will not sack its workers in the United Kingdom. No one has been sacked and no one has been forced to take holidays. The company has said that it will not sack its workers in the United Kingdom. No one has been sacked and no one has been forced to take holidays.
We're not paying

GM workers speak out

THE BATTLER spoke to several GM workers about the crisis in the car industry and General Motors' plan for forced holidays.

We spoke to a GM worker at the plant in Detroit, Michigan. He said, "They're forcing us to accept this plan. We're just being used like disposable workers."

The situation is dire. With layoffs looming, workers are being forced to accept concessions without any say in the matter.

The G.M. situation

The workers at GM are deeply divided. Some are calling for strike action, while others are willing to accept the company's demands.

Layoff

THE ANSWER?

Factory owners say they need to lay off workers to save money. But what happens to those who lose their jobs?

The answer is unemployment. Workers are being forced to accept lower wages and fewer benefits in order to keep their jobs.

Chain of unemployment

As workers are laid off, the entire supply chain is disrupted. This affects not only the workers, but also their families and communities.

ONE FIGHT

This could mean more debt, higher prices, and a worse economy. Workers are fighting against this and demanding better conditions.

Wages for workers, aid for the unemployed, and fight for better social services.

The Car Industry Under Socialism

AS LONG AS capitalism remains, there will always be crises in the car industry. The only real way to stop the layoffs and suffering is by reversing the cuts and implementing a socialistic economy.

Stalin said in a 1934 speech: "Only those who work as a team under the leadership of the Party will win the war against the capitalists."

The car industry should be nationalized and run by the workers. This will ensure that everyone is paid a living wage and that the benefits of new technology are shared by all.

The battle for socialism starts now. Workers must unite and demand that their voices be heard.

The Company you can trust?

GENERAL MOTORS have been described as "the best employer in the world." But are they really trustworthy?

General Motors have been accused of using workers to improve their image.

ATTENTION: It is General Motors policy to use workers as public relations agents. GM workers are frequently seen in the media, presenting a positive image of the company. However, the reality is different.

GM workers have complained about working conditions and their pay.

Can you trust this? Between 1992 and 1998, GM reported a profit of $38 billion. They then laid off 40,000 workers, including New York, Baltimore, and Los Angeles.

It did not please them that they were making profits.

GM Truck Plant at Smederburg, Germany showing World War II. They generated expectations for making Hitlers war and - get GM at least.

GM at least has some to do with its current oil crisis. They should be able to get it at least.

In 1939 GM was the largest producer of cars in the world. They produced 550,000 cars in the US and 140,000 in Canada. They then laid off 40,000 workers, including New York, Baltimore, and Los Angeles.

The next day, May 1, GM closed the plant. The workers were left with nothing.

So, is it any wonder that the workers are not trusting an employer that fired them?

The question remains: can we trust a company that fired the workers they hired?
THE WAY TO FIGHT FOR JOBS
SIT-DOWN
-OCCUPY

THE OFFICIALS OF THE VBU have raised the threat of occupying the car plants of GMH and plans to seek 600 workers.

"We think strikes are a great way to fight such injustices," he said. "The VBU officials are warning their men not to give up without a fight."

ONE of the greatest instances of workers' fight to keep their jobs is the crisis of the car plants of GMH and the VBU's plan to seek 600 workers.

The management has tried to "whip up" the workers, but the workers are fighting back. They are not giving in to the VBU's demands.

"We have no intention of giving up," said one of the workers. "We will fight to the end."

RANK AND FILE ORGANISATION
-THE KEY TO WINNING

"It is up to the workers to organise themselves and fight back," said the union official. "We cannot rely on the management to do it for us."

The workers have formed a committee to organise themselves and fight back. They are determined to win.

YOU supported Hungarian fascists?

"You supported Hungarian fascists?" asked the union official. "What do you mean?"

The workers are determined to fight back and win.

Don't just give up - STAY and FIGHT!

"You say you want to give up," said the union official. "Don't give up. Stay and fight."

The workers are determined to fight back and win.
MAYDAY Small and Divided

International Socialists

Mayday march this year was smaller and more divided. Melbourne's was the biggest, but many smaller rallies took place. There was also some internal conflict due to divisions over the political strategy. This has caused a split in Melbourne and other cities around the country.

AMERICA 1950/3: THIS WAS A WITCH HUNT!

By TOMO LINCOLN

America has a long history of witch hunts, including the Salem Witch Trials of 1692. In recent years, there have been allegations of witch hunts in various parts of the world, including in the US. The issue of witch hunts is complex and often involves issues of power and control.

Life with the F.J. Holden

BY DIANE FIELDS

If you ever lived in a small town, you know what it's like to buy things at the corner store. It's the same when you buy a car. Holden cars were popular in the 1950s and 60s, and the F.J. model was one of the most popular. The Holden was known for its reliability and performance.

The Battler 29 May 1977
THE GROUPERS AND THEIR DESPERATE SLANDERS

By Peter Ellett, ACCA Reform Group member

The issue is clear. The ACCA can be saved if we agree that special treatment for those with particular skills is the key to improving the work environment. The ACCA has been suffering from a lack of special treatment for some time now. The ACCA Reform Group, which has been working on this issue, has made some proposals to correct the problem. The ACCA has been suffering from a lack of special treatment for some time now. The ACCA Reform Group, which has been working on this issue, has made some proposals to correct the problem.

ST KILDA STRIKE

ST KILDA students were told by the school principal that the school would not permit their protest walk after an earlier incident.

Talks Bog Down

The ACCA has announced that discussions with the employers have been suspended due to the ongoing dispute over the new contract.

COLGATE WORKERS CONFIDENT

SOLIDARITY amongst the workers at the Colgate factory in Sydney indicates a united front against the company's proposed wage cuts.

Strike at the Computer

When four computer operators held a strike at the ABC's headquarters in Sydney, many people were shocked by the action. The strike was called to protest against the ABC's proposed wage cuts for workers.

ONE UNION IN THE BUILDING INDUSTRY

United we stand, divided we fall. That's the motto of many trade unions. But what is the future of the building industry? A recent survey of the industry has shown that workers are divided in their opinions on the issue.

Library Workers Strike

By Dianna Squire

The strike by library workers at the National Library of Australia has now entered its second week. The workers are protesting against proposed wage cuts and changes to working conditions.

A chance to vote Rank and File

You wouldn't think there was an election on it if you relied on the union for information. But there is. And it's not just a chance to vote for the Rank and File. It's a chance to make your voice heard.
IT'S GUERILLA WARFARE

by the Eastern Suburbs Action Committee

The Eastern Suburbs Action Committee (ESAC) has released a statement denouncing the actions of the New South Wales Police, who have been using excessive force against protesters in the area. The statement calls for an end to police brutality and highlights the need for a more democratic and accountable police force.

Printers' Union Plundered

The Printers' Union has announced that it will be striking to demand equal pay and improved conditions. Union members claim that they are being treated unfairly compared to workers in other unions. The strike is expected to last for several weeks, causing significant disruption to the printing industry.

Subscribe to the Battler!!

NAME:
ADDRESS:

Introductory Subscription (6 issues) $1.00
Family Subscription (35 issues) $1.00
Clip and Post to: PO Box 66
Flinders, Vic. 3008

The Battler: Paper of the International Socialists
25 June 1977
Number 35
10 CENTS
Fraser’s Education Policy

Making a million from abortion

THE Fraser government has launched a new aborti strategy that will see a one million dollar pa programme set up to encourage and support abortion. The programme was announced by the Prime Minister, Mr. Fraser, in Parliament today.

The programme will be run by the Mothers' Bene fit Fund, which is a public benevolent society that has been in operation for over 50 years. The fund currently has a budget of $150,000 and is expec ed to increase to $1.2 million once the new pro gramme is in place.

The fund will provide grants to women who can prove that they are in a difficult economic situa tion and are considering abortion. The grants will be up to $1,000 per woman and will be paid in advance.

In addition, the fund will hold a series of seminars and workshops to help women understand the implications of abortion and to provide them with the tools they need to make an informed decision.

The fund will also establish a network of support services that will be available to women who use the programme. These services will include coun selling, medical advice, and legal assistance.

The programme is expected to begin within six months, and applications can be made through the fund’s website.

Bjelke’s privileged thugs

IN THE EAST nine people were killed in a violent outbreak that scattered police across the state. The Queensland Premier, Mr. Bjelke-Petersen, has called on the Commonwealth to send in extra police to help control the situation.

The outbreak started in a small town in the southern part of the state and quickly spread to other areas. Police were left without cover as they tried to control the violence.

The Queensland Premier said that the outbreak was caused by a group of young people who were angry at the state government’s policies. He said that the government would need to take action to control the situation.

Farmers have a beef

IT'S NOT just workers who are being hit by the economic cuts. Farmers are also feeling the pain.

Some farmers have seen their prices fall by as much as 20%, and many are struggling to make ends meet.

The government has announced a range of mea sures to help farmers, including a 10% tax cut for agricultural products. However, many farmers say this is not enough to help them.

GoVT roBS Karen—again

Karen Green

Karen Green is a well-known activist who has dedicated her life to fighting for the rights of abor tion rights. She has been involved in many protests against the government’s anti-abortion laws, and she is known for her passionate speeches.

Karen Green is currently the leader of the Femen
Women’s Rights Movement, which she founded in 2010. The group is known for its provocative and controversial protests, and Green’s leadership has helped to bring attention to the issues facing wom en.

Karen Green has been targeted by the govern ment in the past. In 2016, she was arrested and jailed for her role in a protest against the govern ment’s anti-abortion laws. She has since been released on bail and is currently awaiting trial.

Karen Green has said that she will continue to fight for women’s rights, regardless of the risks.

Cuts

CUTS

ATTACKS on teachers continued

There is only one hope for finding a fair solution and that is to strike. Teachers need to work to get the teachers some of the money they deserve.

The government has already made it clear that they will not budge on their position. The only way to force them to negotiate is to continue the strike.
A Socialist Australia

Not on its own!

with TOM O’LINCOLN

Newport—Let’s STOP the scabs

The long awaited union bans on building Newport have begun to get some back over the pay dispute with the builders.

The first day of the lockout was to be declared the day after the bans were imposed. The first day of the lockout was Saturday 20th of May. The bans were imposed by the Western Victoria Council in an attempt to end the dispute.

According to the Trades and Labor Council of Victoria, the ban was imposed because the workers were not prepared to accept the employers’ demand for a wage cut.

The ban was not popular with the workers and led to a series of protests and demonstrations. The workers were supported by the community and a number of unions.

Picket?—We’ve got to!

SMASH THIS VSP THREAT

VICTORIAN Minister for Housing and Public Works, John McLean, used the ban as a way to show the community that the VSP (Victorian Socialist Party) had no influence.

But the ban was not without its problems. The workers were not prepared to accept the employers’ demand for a wage cut.

On Wednesday 20th of May, the workers marched to the Federal Parliament in Melbourne to protest the ban. The march was supported by a number of unions and the community.

The VSP was formed in 1977 by a group of disillusioned workers who were tired of the traditional union movement and its lack of action.

The VSP was a radical movement that sought to break away from the traditional union movement and its lack of action.

The VSP was a radical movement that sought to break away from the traditional union movement and its lack of action.

This movement was supported by a number of unions and the community.

The Socialists without a Party.

They believe in peaceful revolution.

To those who serve:

We respectfully request your support in our struggle against the government's policies.

Signed,

[Signature]

Proud socialists.

The Socialists without a Party.
The Political Parties in Spain

The Political Parties in Spain

The Communist Party is the main opposition to the government. It is the most radical of the parties and has a strong base in the industrial and urban areas. The Socialists are the second largest party and have a more moderate stance. They are supported by workers and farmers. The Christian Democrats are the smallest party and represent the interests of the Catholic Church. They are not as strong as the other two parties.

Terrorists in Holland

Why?

The terrorists are a small group of people who are trying to change the political system in Holland. They are using violence to achieve their goals. The government is trying to negotiate with them, but they refuse to talk. The situation is very tense and there are fears of more attacks.

SPAIN: After the Elections - The Struggle for Freedom Continues

The elections in Spain were held in January 1977. They were a turning point in the history of the country. The Socialists won a majority of the seats in the parliament and were able to form a government. This was the first time in more than 30 years that the Socialists had been in power. The elections were seen as a victory for democracy and freedom.

ANGOLA - LEFT REVOLT CRUSHED

The left-wing revolt in Angola has been crushed. The government has reimposed strict controls on the media and has arrested hundreds of political opponents. The country is now under martial law and the opposition has been banned.

A CHARTER OF RIGHTS FOR THE BUILDING WORKER

The Building industry is in crisis. The workers are demanding better working conditions and higher wages. The government has imposed strict controls on the building industry and has arrested hundreds of workers. The situation is very tense and there are fears of more strikes.

"The Charter is planned to be a transition forward towards workers' control!"

The Charter is a plan to give workers more control over the working conditions and wages in the building industry. The workers are demanding that the Charter be implemented as soon as possible. The government is refusing to negotiate and is trying to suppress the workers' demands.

Why should we pay for the crisis?

The government is imposing new taxes on the working class to pay for the crisis. The workers are opposing these taxes and are calling for a general strike. The situation is very tense and there are fears of a wider social conflict.
And now a word on subcontracting — by a subbie!

By Rod Pettingill

The Building Workers' Charter

THE BOSSES

The employers in the building and construction industry have dominated the industry with a grip so tight that workers are finding it difficult to break free. They make use of the power of numbers to get their way, imposing their will on the workers through the threat of job loss or the possibility of a lockout.

The building industry is a complex one, with many different employers and contractors. Each has its own set of rules and regulations, and it can be difficult to know where your rights lie.

Dillingham Constructions

- A group of workers at Dillingham Constructions have been working for over a month without pay and have been told that they will not be paid unless they sign a new contract. The workers are demanding fair wages and working conditions, but they have been met with resistance from management.

General Constructions

- The General Constructions workers are demanding better wages and working conditions, but they have been met with resistance from management. The workers are threatening to strike if their demands are not met.

WE DEMAND

- Permanency: The building industry is a seasonal one, with workers often being laid off during the off-season. The workers demand permanent employment and job security.

- Safety: The workers demand better safety measures on site, including the provision of proper protective gear and training.

- Living wage: The workers demand a living wage that is sufficient to cover their basic needs.

- Breaks: The workers demand proper breaks and rest periods.

- Wrest: The workers demand proper wages and payment for work done.

- Diving: The workers demand proper diving and equipment for work done underwater.

- Relocation: The workers demand proper relocation for work done in distant locations.

- Absentee: The workers demand proper absenteeism and sick leave.

- Taxation: The workers demand proper taxation and deductions.

- Insurance: The workers demand proper insurance for work done.

-假日: The workers demand proper holidays and time off.

- Injury: The workers demand proper injury compensation.

- Retirement: The workers demand proper retirement and pension plans.

- Mands: The workers demand proper Mandate and support.

- Submand: The workers demand proper submand and support.

- Trains: The workers demand proper trains and support.

- Periods: The workers demand proper periods and support.

- Permanency: The workers demand proper permanency and support.

- Funds: The workers demand proper funds and support.

- Taxation: The workers demand proper taxation and support.

- Diving: The workers demand proper diving and support.

- Relocation: The workers demand proper relocation and support.

- Absentee: The workers demand proper absenteeism and support.

- Injury: The workers demand proper injury compensation and support.

- Retirement: The workers demand proper retirement and support.

-假日: The workers demand proper holidays and support.

- Mandate: The workers demand proper Mandate and support.

- Submand: The workers demand proper submand and support.

- Trains: The workers demand proper trains and support.

- Periods: The workers demand proper periods and support.

- Permanency: The workers demand proper permanency and support.

- Funds: The workers demand proper funds and support.

- Taxation: The workers demand proper taxation and support.

- Diving: The workers demand proper diving and support.

- Relocation: The workers demand proper relocation and support.

- Absentee: The workers demand proper absenteeism and support.

- Injury: The workers demand proper injury compensation and support.

- Retirement: The workers demand proper retirement and support.

-假日: The workers demand proper holidays and support.

- Mandate: The workers demand proper Mandate and support.

- Submand: The workers demand proper submand and support.

- Trains: The workers demand proper trains and support.

- Periods: The workers demand proper periods and support.

- Permanency: The workers demand proper permanency and support.

- Funds: The workers demand proper funds and support.

- Taxation: The workers demand proper taxation and support.

- Diving: The workers demand proper diving and support.

- Relocation: The workers demand proper relocation and support.

- Absentee: The workers demand proper absenteeism and support.

- Injury: The workers demand proper injury compensation and support.

- Retirement: The workers demand proper retirement and support.

-假日: The workers demand proper holidays and support.

- Mandate: The workers demand proper Mandate and support.

- Submand: The workers demand proper submand and support.

- Trains: The workers demand proper trains and support.

- Periods: The workers demand proper periods and support.

- Permanency: The workers demand proper permanency and support.

- Funds: The workers demand proper funds and support.

- Taxation: The workers demand proper taxation and support.

- Diving: The workers demand proper diving and support.

- Relocation: The workers demand proper relocation and support.

- Absentee: The workers demand proper absenteeism and support.

- Injury: The workers demand proper injury compensation and support.

- Retirement: The workers demand proper retirement and support.

-假日: The workers demand proper holidays and support.

- Mandate: The workers demand proper Mandate and support.

- Submand: The workers demand proper submand and support.

- Trains: The workers demand proper trains and support.

- Periods: The workers demand proper periods and support.

- Permanency: The workers demand proper permanency and support.

- Funds: The workers demand proper funds and support.

- Taxation: The workers demand proper taxation and support.

- Diving: The workers demand proper diving and support.

- Relocation: The workers demand proper relocation and support.

- Absentee: The workers demand proper absenteeism and support.

- Injury: The workers demand proper injury compensation and support.

- Retirement: The workers demand proper retirement and support.

-假日: The workers demand proper holidays and support.

- Mandate: The workers demand proper Mandate and support.

- Submand: The workers demand proper submand and support.

- Trains: The workers demand proper trains and support.

- Periods: The workers demand proper periods and support.

- Permanency: The workers demand proper permanency and support.

- Funds: The workers demand proper funds and support.

- Taxation: The workers demand proper taxation and support.

- Diving: The workers demand proper diving and support.

- Relocation: The workers demand proper relocation and support.

- Absentee: The workers demand proper absenteeism and support.

- Injury: The workers demand proper injury compensation and support.

- Retirement: The workers demand proper retirement and support.

-假日: The workers demand proper holidays and support.

- Mandate: The workers demand proper Mandate and support.

- Submand: The workers demand proper submand and support.

- Trains: The workers demand proper trains and support.

- Periods: The workers demand proper periods and support.

- Permanency: The workers demand proper permanency and support.

- Funds: The workers demand proper funds and support.

- Taxation: The workers demand proper taxation and support.

- Diving: The workers demand proper diving and support.

- Relocation: The workers demand proper relocation and support.

- Absentee: The workers demand proper absenteeism and support.

- Injury: The workers demand proper injury compensation and support.

- Retirement: The workers demand proper retirement and support.

-假日: The workers demand proper holidays and support.

- Mandate: The workers demand proper Mandate and support.

- Submand: The workers demand proper submand and support.

- Trains: The workers demand proper trains and support.

- Periods: The workers demand proper periods and support.

- Permanency: The workers demand proper permanency and support.

- Funds: The workers demand proper funds and support.

- Taxation: The workers demand proper taxation and support.

- Diving: The workers demand proper diving and support.

- Relocation: The workers demand proper relocation and support.

- Absentee: The workers demand proper absenteeism and support.

- Injury: The workers demand proper injury compensation and support.

- Retirement: The workers demand proper retirement and support.

-假日: The workers demand proper holidays and support.

- Mandate: The workers demand proper Mandate and support.

- Submand: The workers demand proper submand and support.

- Trains: The workers demand proper trains and support.

- Periods: The workers demand proper periods and support.

- Permanency: The workers demand proper permanency and support.

- Funds: The workers demand proper funds and support.

- Taxation: The workers demand proper taxation and support.

- Diving: The workers demand proper diving and support.

- Relocation: The workers demand proper relocation and support.

- Absentee: The workers demand proper absenteeism and support.

- Injury: The workers demand proper injury compensation and support.

- Retirement: The workers demand proper retirement and support.

-假日: The workers demand proper holidays and support.

- Mandate: The workers demand proper Mandate and support.

- Submand: The workers demand proper submand and support.

- Trains: The workers demand proper trains and support.

- Periods: The workers demand proper periods and support.

- Permanency: The workers demand proper permanency and support.

- Funds: The workers demand proper funds and support.

- Taxation: The workers demand proper taxation and support.

- Diving: The workers demand proper diving and support.

- Relocation: The workers demand proper relocation and support.

- Absentee: The workers demand proper absenteeism and support.

- Injury: The workers demand proper injury compensation and support.

- Retirement: The workers demand proper retirement and support.

-假日: The workers demand proper holidays and support.
The true state of the NSW BLF

In a recent article, John Quigley called for strike action by the Builders' Labourers in support of the NSW Miners' strike. A meeting was held to discuss Quigley's call for the strike. The meeting was attended by members of the NSW Miners' Union and the Builders' Labourers Federation. The meeting pointed out the similarities between the two strikes and called for solidarity between the two unions.

THE CHALLENGE OF THE RANK AND FILE

The demands of the builders' workers are being met despite the opposition. The struggle continues.

CHARTER MEETINGS

The International Socialist League has been organizing meetings to discuss the various issues facing the workers. The meetings have been well attended with many people expressing their support for the workers.

Working for the Colonel

Dear Battlers,

I feel the need to write to you today to address some of the concerns that have been raised recently. The situation is complex and requires our attention. I hope that this letter will help to clarify some of the issues.

The recent events have highlighted the need for unity and solidarity among the workers. We must not allow ourselves to be divided by the bourgeoisie. Instead, we must stand together and fight for our rights.

I would like to express my support for the workers who are currently on strike. Your struggle is our struggle. We must continue to support them in any way we can.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]
Women and Marxism
BY JANIE STONE

"You Can't Sell THAT Here!" a short play in 3 acts

International Socialists
Front Line

AVANTI
POPOLO!

ITALY — SONGS RECORDING
100 YEARS OF CLASS STRUGGLE
In three states
TEACHERS FIGHT THE STAFFING CUTS

ADELAIDE

The South Australian Teachers' Union has rejected a proposed 5% cut in the teachers' payroll. The decision was made after a two-day meeting in which teachers protested against the cut.

ERSKINEVILLE

The teachers at Erskineville Teachers' College have called for a strike in protest against the proposed cuts. They are demanding a 10% increase in their salaries and 10% more teachers.

LILYDALE

The Vista Executive has agreed to support rank and file initiatives. The teachers at Vista are demanding a 10% increase in their salaries and 10% more teachers.

Trammies take on sexism

WORKERS at Singleton Tram Depot in Sydney have voted to strike after the women's train drivers were denied promotion. They are demanding equal pay and conditions for all train drivers.

Limp Lenny sells out to GMH

GMH WORKERS have been left jobless after the company announced plans to close the plant. The decision was made after the company failed to find a buyer for the plant.

PM conditions defended

ANF conditions of work in Melbourne were defended by the Prime Minister, who said they would be reviewed. The conditions include a 40-hour week and a 60-minute break every 4 hours.

DOUBLE VICTORY ON THE E. SUBURBS RAIL

AFTER several months of struggle, metro workers won a victory against the Industrial Court. The workers were demanding better pay and conditions.

The Law makes an ass of itself

JUST how cheaply can you get a lawyer?

O'Keefe Mason & Co., who handled the case of Mr. Thompson, have set the precedent for legal fees. They claimed to have only charged a nominal fee and refused to comment.

Thompson sees red

"THAT'S a lie, that's my record. That was the result of the AMWU's strike," said Mr. Thompson. "We had to work extra hours to break the strike."
GOOD BYE MR. SCAB

THE VICTORIAN Tramway Employees' Federation has been hit by an attack from the Federal Government. The attack is directed against a group of workers who are already disadvantaged women.

How a Workers Party whiz kid tried to break the Tramways Union

CAMPBELL HIT FOR SIX

THE once - powerful empire of Norm Campbell has fallen.

THE Fraser Government is going to go ahead with the mining and export of uranium. Despite the opposition of the Ranger Site, it has signed the memorandum for Austraia's first uranium mine.

URANIUM THE PROFITS OF DOOM
Qld & WA—Unions under the hammer

The Queensland Workers’ Union and the Federal Government are waging all-out campaign against unions, with a new series of moves aimed at weakening their power. The government has already announced plans to introduce new legislation that could see unions lose their right to strike. And if those plans succeed, union officials say they will have to start looking for new strategies to defend workers’ rights.

Canberra

The Canberra public hospital workers are on strike for the first time in 30 years. The workers have been locked out by management and are seeking to negotiate improved working conditions. The strike has been supported by the Australian Medical Association and the ACT branch of the Australian Workers’ Union.

Meet the new Boss—Same as the old boss

THE FUTURE Governor General, Sir John Kerr, is being promoted as a man of principle, who can deal with the world and division. Yet it’s clear he is the logical successor to the man he replaces.

Women Against Rape

The Women Against Rape movement has been going strong for a few years. It was formed in response to the increasing number of reported cases of sexual assault. The movement has been successful in getting cases of sexual assault investigated and prosecuted.

NEWPORT cops get tough

The police have been raids on a number of performance groups in the last month. They claim the raids are a response to the growing number of crime reports in the area.

Gay Rights set back in US

The rights of homosexuals have been under threat in the United States. A new law in California has been upheld by the Supreme Court, which means that gay people can be fired for being gay. The decision has been met with opposition from the gay community.

STOP THESE SCABS!

These construction workers are working at Newport:

- Accrington Pty Ltd, 63 Queen St, Smithfield
- C C, 24 Teal Ave, East Melbourne
- Central Building Services, 135 Gore St, Richmond
- E. C. & D., 353 Wicks Rd, Richmond
- F. B., 530 High St, Carlton
- F. & D., 249 High St, Carlton
- G. & L., 249 High St, Carlton
- G. A., 249 High St, Carlton
- G. E., 249 High St, Carlton
- G. G., 249 High St, Carlton
- H. & J., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & J., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & K., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & L., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & N., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & P., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & Q., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & R., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & S., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & T., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & U., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- J. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & L., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & M., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & N., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & O., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & P., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & Q., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & R., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & S., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & T., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & U., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- K. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & M., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & N., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & O., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & P., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & Q., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & R., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & S., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & T., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & U., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- L. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & N., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & O., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & P., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & Q., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & R., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & S., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & T., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & U., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- M. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & O., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & P., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & Q., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & R., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & S., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & T., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & U., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- N. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- O. & P., 249 High St, Carlton
- O. & Q., 249 High St, Carlton
- O. & R., 249 High St, Carlton
- O. & S., 249 High St, Carlton
- O. & T., 249 High St, Carlton
- O. & U., 249 High St, Carlton
- O. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- O. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- O. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- O. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- O. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- P. & Q., 249 High St, Carlton
- P. & R., 249 High St, Carlton
- P. & S., 249 High St, Carlton
- P. & T., 249 High St, Carlton
- P. & U., 249 High St, Carlton
- P. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- P. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- P. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- P. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- P. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- Q. & R., 249 High St, Carlton
- Q. & S., 249 High St, Carlton
- Q. & T., 249 High St, Carlton
- Q. & U., 249 High St, Carlton
- Q. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- Q. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- Q. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- Q. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- Q. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- R. & S., 249 High St, Carlton
- R. & T., 249 High St, Carlton
- R. & U., 249 High St, Carlton
- R. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- R. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- R. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- R. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- R. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- S. & T., 249 High St, Carlton
- S. & U., 249 High St, Carlton
- S. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- S. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- S. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- S. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- S. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- T. & U., 249 High St, Carlton
- T. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- T. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- T. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- T. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- T. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- U. & V., 249 High St, Carlton
- U. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- U. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- U. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- U. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- V. & W., 249 High St, Carlton
- V. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- V. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- V. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- W. & X., 249 High St, Carlton
- W. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- W. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- X. & Y., 249 High St, Carlton
- X. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton
- Y. & Z., 249 High St, Carlton

by DAVE NADEL

PAGE 2 THE BATTLE 23 JULY 1977
Australia for the Australians

with Tom O'Lincoln

Queensland

BATTLER EXCLUSIVE

Alexander Barton speaks

How I Learned to Stop Running & Trust the Law

The first 24 hours of the Barton Affair Commissions has seen the Barton Alliance and the Labor Party suffer their first major setbacks in the 1978 campaign.

The attempt to force Barton to resign from the Affair Commissions has taken a unexpected twist with the resignation of Barton from the Affair Commissions.

The resignation of Barton from the Affair Commissions has caused a major shake-up in the Labor Party.

A PALER SHADE OF PINK

Drew Nettel and Tony Roberts look at the party's expectations for the Labor Party's 1978 campaign.

Does Labor think it can win in 1978?

V78?

The Labor Party has been forced to re-examine its campaign strategy due to the resignation of Barton from the Affair Commissions.

The Labor Party has been forced to re-examine its campaign strategy due to the resignation of Barton from the Affair Commissions.

The Labor Party has been forced to re-examine its campaign strategy due to the resignation of Barton from the Affair Commissions.

The Labor Party has been forced to re-examine its campaign strategy due to the resignation of Barton from the Affair Commissions.
EUROCOMMUNISM versus BUREAUCRATIC STALINISM

What a Choice!

As if in a thousand-page march, a full-page spread was devoted to the subject of the fall of the Soviet Union and its implications on the world stage. The article探讨了欧洲共产主义与官僚主义斯大林主义的斗争，提出了一个选择。

Ten Months Out — for a Union!

LAST week, 20,000 trade unionists fought with 15,000 police in London. One of the leading figures in the Trades Union Congress was the leader of the Communist Party. It has been a problem in the West that trade unionists and workers, particularly in Britain, have been divided in their approach to the strikes.

Pakistan

The Army moves in

WHAT power for democracy! What power for the army to maintain the peace! The army is not seeking to cause trouble. It is not seeking to take control from civilian hands. The army is seeking to ensure that the government is able to function effectively.

Fight for the Building Workers' Charter

Foul Play in BLF Elections

The BLF leadership has been accused of accepting illegal donations to block any opposition to the existing housing policies. The Shock Army has been accused of accepting illegal donations to prevent those in the building trade from opposing the government's policies.

Eastern Suburbs Railway

SPREAD THIS STRUGGLE

SYDNEY railway construction workers have gone on strike. The demands include 32 weeks of wet weather pay, wage increases of $20-$30, and no forced transfers.

The Demands

32 weeks wet weather pay
Wage increases average
No forced transfers

Is this the end of our claim?

The campaign for national recognition of the building workers' claims is on its last legs. The trade unionists have fought with passion and dedication to win their case. The workers in the building trade have been very active in their struggle.

with The Battler
THE CUTS DISASTER FOR THE STATE SCHOOLS

ON FRIDAY July 8, the teachers of Deakin (Vic) High School went on strike.

They are demanding more money and better conditions.

The VETA (Vic Teachers' Federation) strike is the most significant strike of its kind in Victoria's history.

The Governor-General has declared a state of emergency.

A state of emergency is declared.

The teachers are demanding better conditions for the students in the state schools.

Protesters are marching on the state education department.

THE FRANKS Government is trying to cut costs by reducing funding for the state schools.

The teachers are demanding better conditions for the students in the state schools.

Protesters are marching on the state education department.

THE FRANKS Government is trying to cut costs by reducing funding for the state schools.

The teachers are demanding better conditions for the students in the state schools.

Protesters are marching on the state education department.
Don’t write off the CIA!

Dear Battlers,

[Image]

Forget the big BANG – the struggle for Socialism is elsewhere!

Dear Battler,

The BCH is aware of a network of people who do not want to see the rise of Socialism and are using the CIA to try and prevent it. We have been informed that the CIA is planning a campaign of misinformation and propaganda to try and discredit the BCH and other Socialist organizations. They believe that by spreading lies and false information, they can undermine our movements.

Workers Councils—How the Workers can rule the world

Dear Battler,

As a major social force, the Workers Council can play a crucial role in establishing a socialist society. A Workers Council would involve workers in the running of their workplace and in the decision-making process. This would ensure that the rights of workers are protected and that their interests are represented. Workers Councils could also provide a forum for workers to express their views and concerns, and to discuss ways of improving working conditions and the quality of life for all. The Workers Council would be a democratic body, with representatives elected by the workers themselves. This would ensure that the council is truly representative of the workers and that their needs are met.

[Image]

A new column answering YOUR questions about Socialism.

Dear Battler,

In this edition, we will be answering questions from our readers about Socialism. This column aims to provide clear and concise answers to common questions about the principles and practices of Socialism. We welcome your questions and encourage you to submit them to us. Your questions will be answered by experts in the field of Socialism, and we will do our best to provide accurate and reliable information.

[Image]

MUMBO JUMBO

Dear Battlers,

Mumbo Jumbo is a column that explores the absurdities and contradictions of modern society. It aims to provide a humorous and irreverent commentary on the events and issues of the day. Mumbo Jumbo is a place where people can express their unique perspectives and ideas, and where they can challenge the mainstream narrative. We encourage you to submit your own contributions to Mumbo Jumbo, and we will do our best to publish them.

[Image]

Dear Battlers,

The BCH is dedicated to the struggle for Socialism. Our aim is to create a world where all people have the freedom to live a life of dignity and choice. To achieve this, we need to build a strong movement of workers who can stand together and fight for a better future. We welcome you to join our struggle and to help us build a world where all people are equal and where Socialism prevails.
WE’LL STRIKE WHEN WE LIKE, SHEARS!

A cheeky scab

The National Vice President of the Victorian Teachers Union, Mr. Shears, has been accused of using threats of violence and intimidation against teachers who are striking. The VTA has been struggling to negotiate contracts with the state government, and the strike has continued for several weeks. The union is demanding better salaries and working conditions, including reduced class sizes and improved mental health support for teachers.

CLORIDE: We're just trying to keep what we had last year

INTO their third week and still determined, that's the mood among school workers in the state. The VTA and the CLORIDE have been involved in a long-running dispute over pay and conditions. The CLORIDE is calling for improved salaries and better working conditions, while the VTA is pushing for a return to the status quo.

Power Bans Start to Bite

SOUTH GULF power workers have gone on strike for the 170th day this week. The strike has caused widespread power outages across the region. The power company has been accused of mismanagement and poor communication with workers. The strike continues and is expected to last for several more weeks.

PSYCH NURSES TOTAL VICTORY ON JOBS

by Kevin Miller, HET/2 Mont Park

At Dalla Brooks Ford last week, the National Psychiatric Nurses Association No 2 Branch reached agreement on a new contract after months of negotiations. The new contract includes improved pay and conditions for nurses, including extended hours and additional support services. The nurses are delighted with the outcome and are looking forward to a more secure future.

WE DEMAND A CRITICAL EDUCATION

by Geoff Warren

A STUDENT boycott has been called at the Social Work Department at the University of Melbourne. The students are demanding better mental health support and more funding for the department. They are calling for a change in the way mental health is addressed in the curriculum and the allocation of resources.
WHAT WE THINK

THE VEHICLE BUILDERS UNION officials really talk in other states — "there's a lot of talk, but not much action." The statement is particularly true in Victoria, where the latest round of negotiations between the union and Chrylser has been anything but fluid.

APlein this monthly column, I have the opportunity to express my views on the Chrylser situation. In the April column, I wrote that the VWU officials were not following through on the actions they promised. This has continued to be the case.

The last round of negotiations was held in October, and the union officials were again silent on the issues that had been raised. Since then, there have been several meetings with the union officials, but nothing has been decided.

The union officials have stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been established. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.

The union officials have also stated that they are not willing to negotiate until the new management of Chrylser has been appointed. However, the new management has not been appointed yet.
Newport - Cops attack Picket

Over 200 unionists and minorities picketed the main gate of the Newport site on Friday night last week. The picketing was both a protest at the alleged harassment of unionists working at the site and a call for the unionists to be included in the strike. The picketing continued all day yesterday and all day today and was attended by over 300 unionists. The pickets were reinforced by a number of non-unionists who came to the site to support the unionists.

By Paul Howland, Newcastle

Birdshit in the milk

What Next?

The giant Swiss multinational Nestlé has菲尔 表示，它将在澳大利亚建立新的工厂，以生产婴儿配方奶粉。Shell Coalfield, coal mining

BLACK HEALTH BUDGET THREAT

Part of the delegation in London against the National Health Service was also having some effects in breaking through the legislation in Queensland. The National Front has already taken a stand against any proposals for the budget, as it would increase the costs. The delegates are trying to win support for their cause. They were in touch with other unions and community groups and met with local officials.

337,391 out of work - so in goes the boot

337,391 people - 4.4% of the workforce - are unemployed as unemploy-ment in the last year has been the highest in the history of the country. The unemployment rate in Newcastle has increased from 9.1% to 10.2% in the last year, and in the last quarter it has increased by 1.6%.

Sri Lanka - into the wilderness

30 June 20-77

BHP WANTS ADOLENCENTS

GIVE A DOLLAR TO SMASH IT CLEARERS STRIKE

DON'T LET THEM WIN

Jubilee Jeers

EVEN MORE OUT OF WORK

There are more than 300 people out of work in Newcastle. The unemployment rate in the city is now 10.2%, the highest in New South Wales. The rate has increased by 1.6% in the last quarter.

BLACK HEALTH BUDGET THREAT

People in the delegation in London against the National Health Service were also having some effects in breaking through the legislation in Queensland. The National Front has already taken a stand against any proposals for the budget, as it would increase the costs. The delegates are trying to win support for their cause. They were in touch with other unions and community groups and met with local officials.

337,391 out of work - so in goes the boot

337,391 people - 4.4% of the workforce - are unemployed as unemployment in the last year has been the highest in the history of the country. The unemployment rate in Newcastle has increased from 9.1% to 10.2% in the last year, and in the last quarter it has increased by 1.6%.

Sri Lanka - into the wilderness

30 June 20-77

BHP WANTS ADOLENCENTS

GIVE A DOLLAR TO SMASH IT CLEARERS STRIKE

DON'T LET THEM WIN

Jubilee Jeers

EVEN MORE OUT OF WORK
THE SOCIALISM OF FOOLS

One law for the poor - and TPC for the rich

One of the keystones of world capitalism is the Law of the Poor - and TPC. This principle dictates that resources are distributed according to need, with the poor receiving a proportionate share. However, in practice, this law is often ignored, and wealth remains concentrated in the hands of the rich. The Trade Practices Commission (TPC) has been established to regulate these practices, but its effectiveness is often questioned. Despite this, it is clear that the Law of the Poor holds true, and that it is up to the working class to fight for their rights.

40,000 say it loud - 400,000 say it clear

KEEP URANIUM IN THE GROUND!

The battle against uranium mining is ongoing, with 40,000 people rallying in support of keeping uranium in the ground. The mining industry, however, is determined to push forward with their operations. The situation is tense, and the workers are fighting hard to protect their environment and communities.

MAUM ON THE JOB

It is workers who will have to take the decisive action to stop uranium mining. It is they who have the power to make a change. In Sydney, the community has banded together to protest against the mining of uranium. The workers have formed a strong union, and they are determined to protect their jobs and the environment.

IRB? just you dare

The IRB has been in operation for many years, and it has been a source of controversy. The workers are asking for an end to this system, and they want to see a fair and just system for all. The workers are determined to stand up for their rights, and they are not afraid to fight. The future of the workers is in their own hands, and they will make it known.

PAGE 4 THE BATTLER 20 AUGUST 1977
THE LAST GASP
for Ian Smith

This last gasp of white supremacy

That's what it's all been about. The ANC's march of apartheid has brought us to this point. The mass movement of the people has won this battle, and Ian Smith may well be the last of them.

Behind Fraser's Trade Wranglements

The papers have been running a lot of stories lately about Australia's trade with South Africa, and the impact of the sanctions on the country.

We are in Fraser and Co., the trade arm of the Australian government. They deal in all sorts of goods, from cars to wine, and their profit margins are huge.

REPORT FROM SOWETO

Randy Masai, a former secretary of the Soweto Students' Representative Council, will now face trial in South Africa after his detention.

They are trying to get away with murder, and we are fighting for our freedom.

The Struggle Against Apartheid in South Africa

In Soweto, the struggle is for survival. The black community is fighting for basic rights, and the struggle is far from over.

WE WILL NOT BE PROVOKED

Move Your Own Garbage!

After living in the city for years, I have seen how dirty it can get. It's our duty to keep our environment clean.

We want some justice

In the slum areas, people are living in terrible conditions. They deserve better, and we are here to fight for their rights.

What's the Point of It All?

We are trying to explain the situation to the wider community.

We are fighters, and we are going to win.
200 YEARS OF ROBBERY, MURDER, OPPRESSION AND INTRIGUE

TV series on The Age of Uncertainty. John Kenneth Galbraith has just said that "the idea of opposition is what keeps the world alive". A new TV series on The Age of Uncertainty may be just what the world needs.

The Age of Uncertainty was the period when life was a struggle for survival. With the industrial revolution, the world changed from a rural, agrarian society to an urban, industrial one. The industrial revolution brought about new technologies and new ways of life. It was a time of great change and turmoil.

The Age of Uncertainty lasted from the late 18th century to the early 20th century. It was a time of great social and economic change. The Industrial Revolution began in the early 18th century and continued through the 19th century. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked.

The Age of Uncertainty was a time of great social and economic change. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked. People moved from the countryside to the cities to work in factories. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked.

The Age of Uncertainty was a time of great social and economic change. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked. People moved from the countryside to the cities to work in factories. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked.

The Age of Uncertainty was a time of great social and economic change. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked. People moved from the countryside to the cities to work in factories. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked.

The Age of Uncertainty was a time of great social and economic change. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked. People moved from the countryside to the cities to work in factories. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked.

The Age of Uncertainty was a time of great social and economic change. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked. People moved from the countryside to the cities to work in factories. The Industrial Revolution brought about great changes in the way people lived and worked.
Dear Battlers,

Males Against Sexism

Dear Battlers,

Dear Battlers,

Call This A School?

Which way to Socialism?

Under new Management?

IS Books

PAGE 10 THE BATTLER 20 AUGUST 1977
Who Supports Who Down at the Club?

By ROB ANDREWS and TONY ROBERTS

The club is a hub for the left-wing political and cultural life of North York. It's a place where activists meet to discuss issues ranging from socialism to women's rights. The club is also a venue for events such as rallies, concerts, and film screenings. The members of the club are passionate about their beliefs and are always ready to speak out against injustice. The club has a strong tradition of supportingLeft-wing causes and is known for its activism.

Media Monopoly in Australia

By Steve Morgan

The Australian media landscape is dominated by a few large corporations that control most of the news outlets. This has led to concerns about the lack of diversity in reporting and the potential for bias. The government has recently proposed new regulations to address these issues, but critics argue that they don't go far enough.

Film-makers Axed

By Mary Smith

The Australian government has recently announced plans to cut funding for the arts and culture sector. This has led to fears about the future of the film industry, which relies heavily on government support. The film industry is facing a difficult time as a result of the pandemic and the lack of funding. There is concern that the cuts will have a lasting impact on the sector.

Political Economy Conference

The Political Economy Conference is an annual event that brings together scholars and activists interested in political economy. This year's conference featured a range of papers on topics such as capitalism, socialism, and environmental justice. The conference provided a platform for discussing the latest research in the field and for networking with other scholars.

BRISBANE GROWS

The International Socialists

Fighting Fund

Canberra Cassettes "New Order, Not Reformism"

Workers' Rights

URANUM DISCUSSION

250 FALK, Governor of the United Nations Special Committee on Disarmament, in Melbourne agreed to hold a meeting with the committee to discuss the issue of uranium mining. The meeting was held at the state library and was attended by representatives from various states and the federal government.

What We Fight For

The International Socialists are a revolutionary socialist organization, open to all who support our principles and are willing to work to defend them. We believe in the need for a socialist society that is based on the principles of solidarity, democracy, and equality. We are committed to the fight for a world that is free from exploitation and inequality.
It's your shout, A.H.A.

by JUDY TURNER

"WE WON'T COP A CUT!"

"The decision by the Minister for Transport to reject the Railways Association of Australia's rates claim is a betrayal of the people of Australia who rely on rail services," says A.H.A. President John Massingham. "The association is considering all legal options to ensure that the rates claim is upheld."

The association is also appealing to the public to support its members in their struggle to improve the safety and efficiency of Australia's rail services.

SEC WORKERS STRIKE

ELISE BATES

SEC workers plan to strike for better conditions and to stop the closure of the Mount Gambier depot. "We need better pay, better working conditions, and a voice in the decision-making process," says SEC employee John Smith. "The current management is not interested in our concerns and we will continue to fight for our rights." The strike is scheduled for next week.

Abuse, Sackings, and 50% Speed-up

"BOSSES have been on the offensive in the clothing industry as they try to break up their hapless unions," says the Worker's Union. "They have been using various tactics, including sackings and speed-ups, to weaken the unions. We must stand together to fight these attacks and protect our jobs and our rights."

Sydney Uni: One Tyrant Replaces Another

"STEVE McFarlane has been appointed as the new head of the Sydney University Social Work Department," says the Worker's Union. "He is a right-wing ideologue who is hostile to the social work profession. We must fight to remove him from office."}

The Battler, 20 August 1977
WHAT A WAY TO SAY
THANKS!

Jobs saved at Royal Brisbane Hospital

THE Battler

FRASER'S UNION-BASHING CHALLENGE

NUMBER 38 10 SEPTEMBER 1977

WHY

Bob Hawke

BACKING OFF?

EVERYONE knows that Malcolm
Fraser is backing for a union bashing election.

He’ll get to hold onto something, and he can’t afford to get rid of most any union sympathizer in going to be an unemployment

He’s trying to precipitate one more

He’s pushed some of the most anti-working class industrial legislation to date into Parliament.

And while trade unionists are under threat,

Bob Hawke is doing a report of his production telling us to "get the union off our backs". Just as it was,

ELEVEN members of the Vehicle Builders Union at Cheeky, SA have been charged with assaulting various VHA members at the wild Tamesley Park meeting on July 12.

The charges weren’t laid by the vehicle builders union organising committee. They weren’t about the matters that made up the prosecution.

---

Charge by our own union

---

INSIDE The fight against Uranium

---

ELECTIONS

---

FRASER'S UNION-BASHING CHALLENGE

---

THE Battler
SOUTH AFRICA HAS THE BOMB

The white supremacist state of South Africa has fought massive battles against the forces of the African National Congress and its communist sister-in-arms, the South African Communist Party. The ANC has been in existence since 1912 and has struggled to bring down the apartheid regime.

SEC'S BIG STINK

The SEC is undergoing a major scandal that influences the health of people, especially in its working class areas. The SEC has been accused of killing at least 10 people in its drive against the National Union of Mineworkers.

THE GREAT URANIUM DECISION - NO SURPRISES AND LOTS OF BRUISES

Sydney cops bash for Uranium

TWO model workers who were thrown into jail by the Labor Party and union bosses for standing up for their rights.

Organising Working Women

The best way to organise working women is by actively seeking out the needs and desires of women in their workplaces. This involves building relationships and understanding the specific issues facing women at work.

STOP THESE RACISTS

Sydney has seen some of the worst violence in the last few years, and the police have been called in to help maintain order.

Ted Zaphir, next victim of moderation

TLC committee issues report which production workers themselves have not seen. The report specifies that the company has made impossible demands on the workers, and that the company has beenelinicor to take the steps necessary to protect the workers' rights.

PARTIAL VICTORY AT REDFERN

The battle at Redfern has been a long and grueling one, but the workers have finally achieved some victories.

The Battler 10 September 1977 Page 3
WHEN THE OFFICIALS WON'T LEAD

GEORGE BURG, head of the postal employee union, in this a Postal Commis- sioner's office.

From what the workers say, the Sydney Exchange, to which most of the post is going to another centre.

In a snipedit of these mists, the Sydney Exchange is the only location in Australia where the post is handled and where the mail is sorted. The workers say it is the post's duty to ensure that the mail is delivered on time. The Postal Commission has decided to close the Exchange.

This decision, say some of the workers, is a blow to the postal network. The Exchange is the only location in Australia where the post is handled and where the mail is sorted. The workers say it is the post's duty to ensure that the mail is delivered on time. The Postal Commission has decided to close the Exchange.

THE Frasen Government is growing up for an all-out offensive against the trade union movement.

The Frasen Government is planning a wide-ranging attack on the unions, including the Australian Workers' Union (AWU), the Australian Council of Trade Unions (ACTU) and the Australian Council of Trade Unions (ACTU).

The government has introduced a bill into Parliament that would make it difficult for unions to conduct strikes or to take industrial action.

The bill also proposes to increase the penalties for industrial action, including fines of up to $10,000 for each day a strike or other industrial action is taken.

The bill has been introduced into Parliament and is expected to be debated in the coming weeks.

WHAT THE ACT SAYS

The new law, the Commonwealth Employment Protection Act, will also give public sector employees the right to take action against the government for unfair dismissal.

These are the new powers it contains:

- Any Commonwealth employee can be suspended from duty for taking part in industrial action.
- The Act defines industrial action as "the performance of work in a manner different from that in which it is customarily performed." Under such a sweeping definition, even more work that would normally be considered to be industrial action could be prohibited.
- The definition also includes a refusal to perform "any work at all." This could extend to employees removing their name from the register of the National Labour Relations Board, or refusing to work at all.
- Any employee who is dismissed for industrial action will be entitled to back-pay for the period of the dismissal.
- Employees, once suspended, may be summarily dismissed from their job.
- Employers may also be prohibited from employing a person who has been dismissed for industrial action for a period of up to six months.

These provisions may be used as the sole discretion of a Minister, and are likely to be used by the government to prevent employees from taking action against the government.

We Want Action

A number of unions are planning to take industrial action in response to the new laws.

The Australian Council of Trade Unions (ACTU) is planning to hold a national strike on October 26.

The ACTU has called for a national strike on October 26, as a response to the new laws.

How We're Fighting the Act

A GROUP of public servants in Melbourne has shown the way in organizing against the government's slave labour laws.

The government has introduced a bill into Parliament that would make it difficult for unions to conduct strikes or to take industrial action.

The bill also proposes to increase the penalties for industrial action, including fines of up to $10,000 for each day a strike or other industrial action is taken.

The bill has been introduced into Parliament and is expected to be debated in the coming weeks.

The government has introduced a bill into Parliament that would make it difficult for unions to conduct strikes or to take industrial action.

The bill also proposes to increase the penalties for industrial action, including fines of up to $10,000 for each day a strike or other industrial action is taken.

The bill has been introduced into Parliament and is expected to be debated in the coming weeks.
REPORT FROM SOWETO

BARNEY MORGATLE, exiled secretary of the Soweto Students Representative Council and a leader of the Soweto uprising, talks to the author about the people's struggle.

"We began the struggle for freedom 10 years ago, but the struggle is far from over. The struggle for freedom is a continuous one.

"We have been fighting for our freedom for many years, but the struggle is far from over. The struggle for freedom is a continuous one.

"Our people are hungry, they are not paid enough, they are not paid enough. We need a new government that will work for the people.

"Our people are hungry, they are not paid enough, they are not paid enough. We need a new government that will work for the people.

"We have been fighting for our freedom for many years, but the struggle is far from over. The struggle for freedom is a continuous one.

"Our people are hungry, they are not paid enough, they are not paid enough. We need a new government that will work for the people.

"We have been fighting for our freedom for many years, but the struggle is far from over. The struggle for freedom is a continuous one.

"Our people are hungry, they are not paid enough, they are not paid enough. We need a new government that will work for the people.

"We have been fighting for our freedom for many years, but the struggle is far from over. The struggle for freedom is a continuous one.

"Our people are hungry, they are not paid enough, they are not paid enough. We need a new government that will work for the people.

"We have been fighting for our freedom for many years, but the struggle is far from over. The struggle for freedom is a continuous one.

"Our people are hungry, they are not paid enough, they are not paid enough. We need a new government that will work for the people.

"We have been fighting for our freedom for many years, but the struggle is far from over. The struggle for freedom is a continuous one.

"Our people are hungry, they are not paid enough, they are not paid enough. We need a new government that will work for the people.

"We have been fighting for our freedom for many years, but the struggle is far from over. The struggle for freedom is a continuous one.

"Our people are hungry, they are not paid enough, they are not paid enough. We need a new government that will work for the people.

"We have been fighting for our freedom for many years, but the struggle is far from over. The struggle for freedom is a continuous one.

"Our people are hungry, they are not paid enough, they are not paid enough. We need a new government that will work for the people.
They don’t exactly call it filthy, but...

Lead is one of the oldest toxic hazards in industry. It can cause serious illness and death for the workers at Chloride Batteries, Padstow (NSW), Lucas, Cheltenham (Vic) and all who work with it.

They know that if their lives are going to be protected it will be up to them to fight for safety standards on the job.

We talked to the Chloride workers about the job, its dangers, their worries and what they are going to do about it.

"YOU'LL NEVER see any with any shoes on the lead working machine. They're all very dirty." These were the words of Mrs. Balance's office work, who had been working with lead since 1940. She claimed that the workers were not wearing any protective clothing and that they were exposed to lead all day.

"I was a nurse for ten years and I've never seen anything like this," said Mrs. Balance. "The workers are all covered in lead and they are not wearing any protective clothing. They are not even wearing gloves.

"We have a lead mine in our backyard and we can smell it all the time. The smell is very strong and it's causing us a lot of trouble." Mrs. Balance added.

"Our children are growing up with lead in their system and we are afraid that they will be affected. We have tried to tell the company about this but they do not care. They do not even listen to us.

"We have a problem and we need help. We need someone to help us protect our workers and our families.

by JEAN RHODES

"My God, it's a brothel. All the things you've made over the years, the conditions are shocking." John McBeth, L.C.

HAVE YOU GOT LEAD POISONING?

HOW does lead poison and what are the symptoms? Does lead poison the brain, the heart, the liver, the kidneys, the lungs, the bones..."\n
The symptoms of lead poisoning can be very severe and can cause permanent damage to the nervous system, the bones and even death. The symptoms include headaches, weakness, fatigue, abdominal pain, constipation, diarrhea, and vomiting. In severe cases, lead poisoning can cause mental retardation and even death.

The effects of lead poisoning can be prevented by avoiding exposure to lead. This can be done by wearing protective clothing, such as gloves, and by washing hands and clothing after exposure to lead.

In conclusion, lead poisoning is a serious problem that can cause permanent damage to the nervous system, the bones, and even death. It is important to avoid exposure to lead and to receive medical attention if exposure to lead is suspected.

THE BATTLE, 10 SEPTEMBER 1977

47
WHY WE FIGHT THE FASCISTS AND HOW

According to the Daily Mirror, Britain is being threatened by the fascists. The National Front is using the slogan of anti-blackness to scare people into voting for them. The National Front is a racist and fascist party. They are trying to create a climate of fear and hate in order to gain support. The National Front is a dangerous threat to our society. We must stand up against them and fight for our rights.

INTERNATIONAL SOCIALISTS

Melbourne

About 200 people gathered at the Melbourne Club for the International Socialist's Melbourne Branch meeting. They discussed the need for a united front against the National Front. They also talked about the importance of educating people about the dangers of fascism.

Canberra

There was also an important International Socialist meeting in Canberra. The meeting was attended by over 100 people. They discussed the need for a strong socialist movement in Australia. They also talked about the importance of building a united front against fascism.

Battler Fighting Fund

In the three weeks since the last Battler, we have raised $144 for the Battler Equipment Fund. The next meeting will be on September 12th.

MAUM

This is in Melbourne with the International Socialists. The meeting was attended by over 50 people. They discussed the need for a strong socialist movement in Australia. They also talked about the importance of building a united front against fascism.

Adelaide

1,000 people attended a rally organised by the International Socialists. The rally was held in solidarity with the striking workers at ANZ Bank. The strikers are fighting for better pay and conditions. The rally was a huge success and the socialist movement in Adelaide is growing stronger every day.

ZELDA

the making of a feminist

Zelda Stone reviews the new book, 'ZELDA - the becoming of a woman'

America in the sixties was a time of great social upheaval. It was a time of protest and change. Zelda Stone was a part of this movement. She wrote a book about her experiences during this time.

Janey Stone's review of the book:

My review of Zelda Stone's new book, 'ZELDA - the becoming of a woman'

Zelda Stone's autobiography is a powerful and moving account of her life. It is a story about struggle and triumph. It is a story about love and loss. It is a story about the fight for justice.

My conclusion about the book was that it was an amazing read. It was a book that made me think. It was a book that made me feel. It was a book that made me want to read more.
NEEDED - A NEW KIND OF UNIONISM!

The workers in the meat trades are digging their heels in over job improvement and wage raises. Many are also reporting that the companies are not making any efforts to improve their situations. The workers are demanding better working conditions, higher wages, and more job security.

The unions are currently meeting with company representatives to discuss these issues. The workers are also planning to strike if their demands are not met.

WHY WE'RE TAKING ON THOMPSON

VICORIA'S teachers are about to take on the State Government on two fronts.

We are launching a direct campaign on salaries. And we are fighting to get the right of school communities to choose their own principal. Association of Victoria has a big victory over the owners. We regret to say that the TTVU has signed a new contract.

The Victoria Teachers' Union is fighting for better working conditions. The Association of Victoria Teachers has called for a strike over the issue of salaries. The parents of Victoria are behind them.

LATROBE VALLEY OUT INDEFINITELY

There have been many reports of Victoria's teachers striking over the issue of salaries. The teachers are calling for better working conditions and higher wages. The strike is expected to continue until the teachers' demands are met.

UNILEVER ROLLED for $8

EIGHTEEN strikes have taken place on the world's fifth-largest company - Unilever.

The company has refused to negotiate with the workers, who are demanding better working conditions and higher wages. The strike is expected to continue for an indefinite period.

Nettlefold's job threat

Finally, the company went into administration and announced a job threat. The workers are demanding better working conditions and higher wages. The strike is expected to continue until the workers' demands are met.

LIFT STRIKE

Bus drivers refuse to collect fares

The drivers have been on strike for a week and are not collecting fares. They are demanding better working conditions and higher wages. The strike is expected to continue until the drivers' demands are met.

MARRIED - THEN SACRIFICED

Young girl's marriage is threatened by the need to work. The girl's parents are demanding better working conditions and higher wages. The strike is expected to continue until the parents' demands are met.

FILMMAKERS are demanding better working conditions and higher wages. They are calling for an end to the strike and are demanding better working conditions and higher wages. The strike is expected to continue until the filmmakers' demands are met.

WASHINGTON - 1977
SA Elections - A Chance to Stop the Libs

S.A.'s school record not so hot!

V.A.L. Lahmmer is a working mother. Ever since she left the workforce a few years ago, she's been on a mission to improve conditions in the schools her children attend.

'On again, off again - what we really need...

WILL our problems disappear if Labor is elected? Of course not. The politicians announced by the Liberals and by the Nationals are in no hurry to answer the needs of the community. They are just as bad as the Liberals and Nationals.

Pointless?

ALAN BRIGGS, an explosives expert from GMH, Woodville, told us what his daughter thought about the election.

Dear Battlers,

The $512 Graffiti!

Ces Slave Market

Socialist London in the 21st Century

Paul O'Flinn looks at a novel of the socialist future

A Chance to Stop the Libs
A CHANCE TO STOP THE LIBS

by MIKE GREYCROCK

Let's get on with the game!

A CHANCE to stop the libs. That's what the South Australian elections are all about.

The Battler
PAPER OF THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIALISTS

ON AGAIN, OFF AGAIN, LIFE IN S.A.'S BUILDING INDUSTRY

Subscribe to the Battler!!

NAME
ADDRESS

Inside p14
A WORKING MOTHER TALKS ABOUT EDUCATION.
SOUTH AUSTRALIA.
WHAT DOES THE ELECTION MEAN TO A G.M.'S APPRENTICE?
SOUTH AUSTRALIA'S SCHOOL RECORD.

Stuff your ban, Mr. Bjelke...

WE'RE MARCHING!

THE thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland right now.

S.A. Election Special

The Battler
PAPER OF THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIALISTS

ISSN NO. 28 1 OCTOBER P.O. BOX 354492 20 CENTS

KIELKE-PETEREN published one fifth of the nation's total newspaper in 1987. The others were the

A vote for Labor will stop Bjelke. But it won't stop the attacks on the rights and living conditions of workers by the government.

Profits

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Quees-

land right now.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

THE thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.

The thin veneer of democracy has never looked more transparent than in Queensland.
NCU abortion threat

THOUSANDS of women may be unable to obtain an abortion in the near future if a proposed bill is enacted in the Senate.

Migrant Education gets the Axe

By STEVE MORGAN

Health funds, or Medibank, Commonwealth Seniors Health Fund, the Superannuation Fund, and the recently approved Migrant Education Fund, are now under fire.

BEHIND THE DOPE MURDERS

FOR YEARS, it has been an open secret that the Mafia has been involved in the growth and distribution of marijuana.

STREET MEETINGS HOW WE WON IN THE 30'S

The message to Spike Perenski's latest campaign has largely gone unnoticed among students and members of the revolutionary group.

A LICENCE TO KILL

FRASER has launched yet another attack on the rights of his workers and employers.

WHAT WE THINK

If the insurance industry wants to avoid a future in which its premiums are fixed and the public is well informed, it must be prepared to change its ways.

National Uranium Mobilisation

RALLIES to be held in all capital cities on the morning of Saturday 20 October.

More jobs from Uranium?

Win a Colour TV

1st Prize: 22" Colour TV (worth $500)

3rd Prize: Cassette Player (value $100)

TICKETS $10 each

Book a place by contacting the National Committee or your local Battler Society.

Oct 22

Great BATTLER Raffle

Desperate miner cuts off tip of his own arm in a mania to stay alive and find a way out.

20,000 storm German N-Plant

THE government has announced that the proposed nuclear power station at Hinkley Point is to be built.

No Way says Richard Grossman

The U.S. is the biggest user of nuclear power in the world, providing about 20% of the country's total electricity.

Want to join the International Socialists?

The BATTER 1 October 1977 PAGE 3
Getting the Rank and File Together

ACTU Executive - lives to run away another day

BATTLER DOSSIER
BEHIND THE SUGAR BLOCKADE

Uranium - still an issue
Bert Lance — fingers in the till

Von Biden, Carter also undergoes surgery

The major effort is on finding the man who has the fingers in the till. Carter himself has undergone surgery to remove the fingers. Biden will also undergo surgery.

Terror in the Philippines

Philippines under attack by Communists

Philippines is under attack by Communists. President Marcos has declared a state of emergency.

Why we stopped Eysenck and Jensen

The University of Melbourne has stopped Eysenck and Jensen. They were seen as racists.

THE RIGHT TO WORK

We're marching for the Right to Work.

We're marching for the Right to Work. We are demanding the right to work.

HOW WE SENT THESE RACISTS PACKING

Racists sent packing. The racist professors were sent packing.

Vorster's latest murder

The murder of Steve Biko has sparked a further rekindle of racial tension in South Africa.
Health care - nothing but a political foball

A $5 Billion Goldmine

The Crisis in Our Hospitals

Why we need control

But the cuts go on

The Battler 1 October 1977 Page 9
HAMER'S LAND DEAL DISASTER

A FEW years ago most people associated the name Battler with Australia's equivalent of Woodward.

Nowadays most people identify it with the Australian Liberal government's equivalent of the Labor Party. Battler has been the most vocal critic of the Liberal Party and Government and its policies.

Sydney
Chile
Demo

THE BLACK RESISTANCE

"Out on the empty borders of civilization where absolutely no country is being occupied up, and where blacks are being chased out of contact with others for the first time in history, are the roots of the resistance movement."

by Phil Ilton
Support the Newport Vigil

International Socialists

Battler Fighting Fund

This month, we’ve raised another $300 for the Battler Fighting Fund.

Melbourne Theatre Party to the Clubs

Wimbledon Tennis Party to the Workers

Sydney Film screening War Game

Sydney Gala Ball

Good old Collingwood... forever?

ELVIS LIVE at the

INTERNATIONAL HOTEL, LAS VEGAS

A night of tributes — and an after-party at the International Hotel — has become a US tradition. Elvis fans commemorate the birthday of Presley with songs, jokes, and stories. For a mere $25, you can join in.

Early Election

The Labor Party has called for an early election, with polls showing a tight race between the parties. The government has rejected the move, saying it would be premature.

Distribute The Battler

If you like The Battler, why not distribute it at work or school? This is a great way to spread the word about the Battler and keep the socialist movement alive.

Melb/Adelaide Workshop

This month, there will be workshops in Melbourne and Adelaide, discussing the most effective ways to distribute and promote The Battler.

Students Meet

A meeting of the students of the University of Melbourne and the University of Sydney to discuss student work and policy towards AGL.

What we stand for

The International Socialists are a revolutionary socialist organization, dedicated to the overthrow of capitalism and the establishment of a socialist society.

Revolutionary

To transform society into a truly free and equal society, we must confront the root cause of all social problems: capitalism. Only through the elimination of capitalism can we achieve a truly free and equal society.

Internationalism

We believe in solidarity with workers all over the world, regardless of their nationality or ethnicity. This includes supporting the struggles of workers in other countries, as well as working to build international solidarity against oppression.

Smashing the State

We believe that the state is a tool of the ruling class to maintain their power and control. We work to build a society where the state is no longer necessary, and where all people have equal rights and freedoms.

Revolutionary

We believe in the power of the working class to change the world. Only through the collective struggle of workers can we overcome the oppression and exploitation that currently exists.

What we stand for

The International Socialists are a revolutionary socialist organization, dedicated to the overthrow of capitalism and the establishment of a socialist society.

Revolutionary

To transform society into a truly free and equal society, we must confront the root cause of all social problems: capitalism. Only through the elimination of capitalism can we achieve a truly free and equal society.

Internationalism

We believe in solidarity with workers all over the world, regardless of their nationality or ethnicity. This includes supporting the struggles of workers in other countries, as well as working to build international solidarity against oppression.

Smashing the State

We believe that the state is a tool of the ruling class to maintain their power and control. We work to build a society where the state is no longer necessary, and where all people have equal rights and freedoms.

Revolutionary

We believe in the power of the working class to change the world. Only through the collective struggle of workers can we overcome the oppression and exploitation that currently exists.
Decent Conditions - and a Decent Union

The Struggle in the Queensland Meat Industry

Election

MEANWHILE, the challenge is not just units but the entire industry. With the election of new members to the Queensland Meat Industry Association (QMIA), which represents the entire industry, the struggle for better conditions is ongoing.

Rockhampton

IF SEEN that moves are being made towards a more organized and effective struggle, Rockhampton workers are not standing idly by. They have been holding meetings and organizing for better working conditions. Workers have been demanding safer working conditions and better wages.

BL’s show Watts

what’s what

SEVEN hundred construction workers on the manager E.A. Watts Collins Plant project in Melbourne are still out after a year. The strike is reportedly caused by the company’s refusal to negotiate with the workers. The workers are demanding better wages and working conditions.

Rail Claim - Let’s get serious

by AFI, Point, Melbourne week received

It appears that the leadership of the Railways and Tramway Unions in Victoria are determined to nationally unite their workers. Although the workers are facing a battle against the company, they are determined to fight for their rights.

Do-gooders ‘rescue’ Zaphir

EVEN if fishy petting is not acceptable, it seems that some organizations are willing to help. A recent move to help the workers of Zaphir, a company that has been facing difficulties, has been announced. The company will receive financial support to help them through their tough times.

CHRYSLER “ASSAULT” CASE

LOOK WHO’S DOING THE ACCUSING!

The South Australian Newsman's Strike

The SA Newsman's Strike continues as the workers demand better working conditions and wages. The strike has been going on for weeks, and the workers have not received any response from the management.

BROKEN HILL union officials may have settled their dispute with staff Noel Latham – but work has been slowed by City Council’s refusal.

The troubled town has faced a number of challenges, including a dispute with the City Council. The dispute has been going on for weeks, and the union officials have been trying to settle the issue.

A TALE OF TWO SCABS

Both members are Tony Dear — a teacher at Subaru High School in Victoria, and Jack the owner of the Broken Hill Motor Company.

DO YOU THINK...?

WOULD you think that being observed in action by a stranger is a reasonable condition for promotion?

Which way now for TTAV?

“WHERE does the campaign go from here?”

by Tess Lee Ack

The TTAV campaign has been a tumultuous one, with many challenges and setbacks. The campaign has been fighting for better conditions and rights for the workers. However, the campaign has faced challenges, including a lack of support from some members of the community.

The TTAV campaign has been a long and difficult one, but it is far from over. The campaign continues to fight for better conditions and rights for the workers.
GOING UP ... $11

APTU ‘wins’ shorter hours

PORTAL workers have got the 40-hour work week — just like white collar workers. But if the miners break through the (strike) ban, there is one major catch.

SEC apprentices pushed to scab

Subscribe to the Battler!!

$109 A WEEK — IT’S A DISGRACE

HOW YOU CAN HELP

SUPPORT the power workers
Why Malcolm Fraser wants an early election

by Phil Griffiths

The flow on from the result of the last election is that the coalition government is still in power. And this is one of the reasons why Malcolm Fraser is calling for an early election. The government has been in power for three terms and there is a growing sense of unease that it may be time for a change. Fraser has long been known as a strong believer in the principle of democracy and he feels that the people should have their say in the matter. The election is scheduled for 1983, but some political analysts believe that it may be moved up to 1982 in order to take advantage of the momentum of the current government's policies.

In the meantime, the government has been busy implementing its policies. One of Fraser's original goals was to reduce the budget deficit and this has been achieved to some extent. However, there are still concerns about the state of the economy and the government is working hard to address these issues. Fraser has also been putting a lot of effort into foreign affairs, particularly in relation to the Middle East and South Africa. The government has been supportive of the International Sanctions against South Africa and has been working to increase trade with other nations.

The Great Battler Raffle

So much for the Oil Crisis

Dramatic moves may be afoot to avoid a full-scale equivalent of the gas and oil booms. The government has been considering various options, including raising taxes and increasing public spending. However, there are concerns that these measures may not be enough to stimulate the economy. One possibility being discussed is the introduction of a scheme to encourage people to save money, which could boost the overall savings rate.

Meanwhile, the government is also looking into ways to increase foreign investment. One idea being considered is the establishment of a special economic zone, which could attract more businesses to set up shop in the country. This would help to create new jobs and bring in more revenue. The government is also working on improving infrastructure, such as roads and bridges, in order to make the country more attractive to businesses.

Nurses' Action

The nurses' union is continuing its campaign against what it sees as unfair treatment of nurses by the government. The union is demanding better pay and working conditions for nurses, who have been working long hours without adequate rest periods. The government has been slow to respond to these demands, but the nurses' union is determined to keep up the pressure. They have been holding protests and rallies outside hospitals and have even threatened to go on strike if their demands are not met.

In Utah, the threat to the seamens union

The Seamen's Union is continuing its campaign against what it sees as unfair treatment by the government. The union is demanding better pay and working conditions for seamen, who have been working long hours on board ships. The government has been slow to respond to these demands, but the union is determined to keep up the pressure. They have been holding protests and rallies outside shipyards and have even threatened to go on strike if their demands are not met.
ON THE PICKET LINE

 Valky Power Strike Latrobe Valley Power Strike

Keith Murphy: We came out united to picket as we should.

SEAN WYATT: The Arbitration Commission has been biased. They're not happy with the employers.

MAX STRENG: We've given them every chance in the past, and every time we're last. If we go back again, we'll be back in future.

It's better to die on your feet than to live on your knees!

WITH these stirring words, Sammy Armstrong, president of the Gippsland Ship Stewards Convention, summed up the feelings of 2,000 maintenance workers.

Their strike has almost kicked in the centre seat of the Hume Induction, causing the greatest industrial crisis in 30 years.

The organisers of the Hamers have always been able to call out the pickets.

Some of the most recent and well-known operations on the banks have been returned to trying to pick up the workers to continue.

But equally predictably, the Hume strike has been held back by their use of the strike-breaking letter of the National Party.

The pickets have been protected and have been able to push through the strike-breaking line to continue.

The Latrobe Valley workers have had time longer than any other group of workers in Australia. They have not had the thing - the justice of their cause and the peaceful way and the organisation they have been able to.

The pickets have been able to keep the strike-breaking line to continue.

Most of them have had about 200 behind them in the RSL and 1400 behind them in the RSL and Commonwealth hotels.

The pickets have been able to keep the strike-breaking line to continue.

Ken Waring: We choose to be here for the Latrobe Valley workers.

Now, from the People Who Brought You Newport

The scab that came in from the cold

The Latrobe Valley workers have had time longer than any other group of workers in Australia. They have not had the thing - the justice of their cause and the peaceful way and the organisation they have been able to.

The Latrobe Valley workers have had time longer than any other group of workers in Australia.
ITALY: WORKERS STRIKE AGAINST FASCISM

Nun Speaks Out For Armed Struggle

It’ll take more than Cops to stop us, Joh!

Democratic Rights in Bjelke’s Banana Republic

TNT This Multinational is Dynamite

Nobel Peace Women

PAGE 6 THE BATTLE 22 OCTOBER 1977
60th ANNIVERSARY OF THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION

ALL POWER TO THE SOVIETS

How the Revolution was Lost

By PAUL BLOOM

TODAY, Russia stands as a testament to the power of the Russian Revolution of 1917. The revolution, which began with the overthrow of the Czarist regime, led to the establishment of a socialist state and the end of feudalism. Today, Russia is a country of contrasts, with a rich cultural heritage and a proud history.

The Russian Revolution was a turning point in world history. The revolutionaries, led by Vladimir Lenin, seized power in November 1917 and established the world's first socialist state. The revolution was sparked by the combination of the First World War and the failure of the Russian monarchy to provide for the needs of the people.

The revolutionaries were determined to create a new society that would be free from exploitation and inequality. They sought to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class, who were disillusioned with the Czarist regime.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class, who were disillusioned with the Czarist regime. The working class saw the revolution as an opportunity to improve their lives and to create a better society. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice. The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a socialist state that would be based on the principles of democracy and social justice.

The revolutionaries were able to gain the support of the working class by promising to create a sociali
What Racism's for Taxi Rip-off

Dear Battlers,

Taxi rip-off

Dear Battlers,

Taxi rip-off

We have had reports of taxi rip-offs and taxi drivers taking the fare but refusing to give change or return the change. This is unacceptable and needs to be addressed.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Write to the Battler, PO Box 46, Fremington, Vic.

Rodney Stewart

Michelle

Mark Munday

Lyle Poulter Melbourne

Dear Battlers,

COPS RIOT AT NEWPORT MARCH

BY TOBY ROBERTS

The police have been quite selective about who they are targeting in their war against Newport. They have been attacking workers and journalists, but leaving the police and politicians alone.

The cops have been using dogs and water cannon to attack protesters. This is illegal and amounts to violence.

Women and Unemployment

One of the most devastating attacks on women is the threat of women being the main recipients of unemployment.

The cuts have been devastating. Many women have lost their jobs and the women's family has been affected as a result.

Women had to find work to support their families. This has been difficult as many employers have been sexist and discriminated against women.

Employment Service was set up to help women who lost their jobs. However, the service was not enough to meet the needs of many women.

Women had to work long hours for low wages. Migrant women were affected the most as they were not eligible for welfare benefits.

Walls Sometimes Speak

an exhibition of posters reviewed by Janet Vaux

Walls

Walls are a way of communicating. They are a way of expressing ourselves. They are a way of telling our stories.

Walls are a way of speaking to others. They are a way of reaching out to people who may not be able to hear us.

Walls are a way of connecting with our community. They are a way of being part of something larger.

Walls are a way of visualizing our thoughts and feelings. They are a way of making our ideas come to life.

Walls are a way of being creative. They are a way of expressing our individuality.

Walls are a way of being political. They are a way of making our voices heard.

Walls are a way of being social. They are a way of building relationships.

Walls are a way of being cultural. They are a way of celebrating our heritage.

Walls are a way of being artistic. They are a way of creating beauty.

Walls are a way of being intellectual. They are a way of stimulating thought.

Walls are a way of being spiritual. They are a way of invoking emotions.

Walls are a way of being educational. They are a way of imparting knowledge.

Walls are a way of being entertaining. They are a way of providing amusement.

Walls are a way of being therapeutic. They are a way of providing comfort.

Walls are a way of being therapeutic. They are a way of providing comfort.

Walls are a way of being therapeutic. They are a way of providing comfort.

Walls are a way of being therapeutic. They are a way of providing comfort.

Walls are a way of being therapeutic. They are a way of providing comfort.
Building support for the Latrobe Valley strike

Support the VIC power workers!

International Socialist

The question for this page is: REAL 2 November collections

Here is a list of the collections we received for the Latrobe Valley strike:

Clayton Shopping Centre 10.19
Roselawn Shopping Centre 10.16
Rutland Market 10.14
Monsac University 10.16
Dundinwood Free Way 10.29
Anti-Newport Denis 97.6
Melbourne University 96.13
Ludlow Modern 96.13
1H membership 98.29
Collingwood High VSTF 106.8
Kelvin Grove VSTF 101.3
Moonbay High VSTF 96.3

Brisbane marches

L.S. books are still in Brisbane and have been kept going in the 20 years of this strike campaign. They have a good record of keeping the workers informed and helping them to keep the pressure on the employers. They have been very active in supporting the strikers and have made many contributions to the strike fund.

Adelaide newsletter

L.S. goes on to Adelaide and has been very active in supporting the workers. They have kept up the pressure on the employers and have maintained a strong presence at the picket lines. The workers have been told that the strike is on and that they should continue to support it. The workers have been well informed and have been able to keep the pressure on the employers.

Adelaide march

It's all Greek to me...

Fighting Fund

Since the last issue of The Battler, the Battler Fighting Fund has raised over $200. Our thanks to the following:

- $220.00
- $219.00
- $216.00
- $215.00
- $214.00
- $213.00
- $212.00
- $211.00

L.S. Books

Chris Harman, Russia - How the Revolution was Lost.

'The Battler 22 October 1977' PAGE 13

The above is a reproduction of the original article. Please note that the reproduction may have been altered in some way, such as the layout or font, which may affect the readability of the text.
VSTA Executive ducks for cover … again

FOR the second time this year the VSTA executive has called off a strike at the Education Department in order to give the Education Minister, Mr. John Ferntree, a chance to negotiate an end to the industrial dispute.

But there is a difference this time. The company and the unions have not agreed to a 10% pay rise and the teachers' union is now seeking a 15% rise. The Department has offered a 10% package plus a 5% switch to the Department's defined benefit scheme.

VSTA ELECTIONS

Vote for teacher action!

WE ARE STANDING for the VSTA Central Committee because education in Victoria is under relentless attack from the Liberal government, and the current Committee is not fighting hard enough.

Educational standards are being reduced, and the staff, buildings and equipment in schools are understaffed and underfunded. The VSTA cannot afford to compromise on these issues and must push the government to increase spending on schools.

The strike is a necessity, the teachers and students are not being well represented. And the education system is not being well served.

The strike will continue while the government continues to underfund education.

If elected, we will fight for a full and democratic union committed to meet the needs of education as profoundly as possible.

Coldstore Workers Frozen Out

COLD STORE workers at Melbourne's major supermarkets are fighting to get a new deal for themselves.

The workers have been without an agreement for the past three years, and are now being offered a pay rise of just 2%.

The workers are seeking a 5% pay rise to bring them up to the industry standard.

NCC splits shop assistants

A dispute over the pay of shop assistants at the NCC has been escalating over the past few months.

The NCC has refused to negotiate with the shop assistants, who are seeking a 10% pay rise.

Dunlop Workers Ace the Boss

AFTER a five-week strike by Dunlop workers, the company has agreed to pay a $2500 bonus to all employees.

The workers fought against the company's attempt to impose a new wage structure, which they claimed would have led to job losses.

Train Drivers Fight for Equality

NEW train drivers are taking aim at the Victorian Railways, demanding an end to the discrimination they face on the job.

They are demanding a pay rise of at least $1000 per year, as well as an end to the discrimination they face on the job.

"Come out Lindsay, where-ever you are."

THE rolling strike campaign by Victorian technical teachers has got off to a flying start.

"We won't give in. We're doing it for the students," said one teacher.

"We're fighting for better conditions and better pay," said another.

The strike is expected to last for six months, and the teachers are determined to win.

Redfern Campaign in Trouble

THE fight for a shorter school day is meeting difficulties among parents and teachers.

The plan to reduce the school day by 30 minutes has been met with resistance, with many parents and teachers saying it will disrupt the learning process.

The parents and teachers are demanding a careful and thought-out plan for any changes to the school day.

The teachers and parents are also concerned about the impact on students and the quality of education.
The team that brought you
.... the Kerr coup
the Medibank levy
.... social welfare cuts
.... Uranium exports
.... the IRB
.... and 370,000 unemployed
.... now bring us
the chance to turn off their lights

THROW THE BASTARDS OUT!
I will not be silenced!

BY DAVID SHEAR, B.L.

At the TELSTRA union on Monday, the main meeting was addressed by former Labor leader Bill Hayden. Hayden said that he was not going to discuss his resignation, but instead talked about the need for union action to defend workers' rights and stop the government's attacks on workers. He also emphasized the importance of solidarity and unity among union members.

H O P E S P R I N G S E T E R N A L

Win a Colour T.V.

1st Prize - 23" Colour TV (Value $500)
2nd Prize - Radio (Value $100)
3rd Prize - Cassette Player (Value $10)
FiNALS open box

99 tickets of 10 available for $1
FROM YOUR BATTLER SELLER or go to PO Box 1591, Melbourne 3001

Great BATTLER Raffle

W O U L D Y O U B U Y A
U S E D G O V E R N M E N T
F R O M T H I S M A N

What if they gave an election... and no one came?

BY GLENN EARL

With the Queensland state election due on 13 May, the campaigns of the major parties have not yet picked up steam, to the consternation of some observers. There are concerns that the election may be decided by a few thousand votes, which could make for a very tense and heated campaign.

The ABC's John Bishé warned that a tight result could be dangerous. He said, "It's possible we could end up with a hung parliament, which would be uncomfortable for everyone."

NOW a chance to buy a used government from this man.

Free Voter, the most popular Prime Minister since 1931, has been out of power for 25 years. But he's back, and he's bringing some new ideas to the table. He's promised to cut taxes, increase social spending, and improve health care.

His government has also pledged to bring down the budget deficit, which is currently running at $10 billion per year. This will not be easy, as the country is facing a recession and high unemployment.

Free Voter's party has a strong base in rural Queensland, where he grew up. His popularity in this area has helped him to secure a majority in the House of Representatives.

Defeat

Despite Labor's best efforts, it seems that Free Voter is destined for victory. With polls showing a clear lead for Free Voter, it looks like he's on his way to a second term in office.

JOIN THE SOCIALIST CAMPAIGN!

The International Socialist Group is working for a Labor victory in the coming election. But missing Labor is not enough - we need to put forward a left-wing program. That's why we've launched a national campaign to mobilize support for our program.

The campaign is called "The Socialist Alternative," and it's aimed at appealing to the working class, youth, and other marginalized groups.

We believe that a socialist government is the only way to tackle the country's economic problems. A socialist government would nationalize the banks, introduce a guaranteed annual income, and make health care free at the points of use.

Download the Socialist Alternative app today to get the latest news and information on our campaign. Join us in building a better future for all Australians.
It's 1977 all over again!

FIFTY years ago the world was entering the Depression. Australia was suffering like never before. Unemployment was rife, wages were frozen and staple foods such as bread and meat were rationed.

But today the world is again in deepening crisis. Australia is again suffering from the economic effects of the Depression. Unemployment is rife, wages are frozen and staple foods such as bread and meat are rationed.

1929: how the miners were beaten

IN 1929, Australia's coal-miners went on strike for the second time in three years. They were beaten by a combination of the federal and state governments, employers and employers' federations.

BY STEVE MORGAN

The struggle took a new form when the federal government was brought in to deal with the problem. The strike was called off on March 11, 1929, after the federal government agreed to intervene in the dispute.

1977: how the miners are beaten

IN 1977, Australia's coal-miners went on strike for the second time in three years. They were beaten by a combination of the federal and state governments, employers and employers' federations.

BY STEVE MORGAN

The struggle took a new form when the federal government was brought in to deal with the problem. The strike was called off on March 11, 1977, after the federal government agreed to intervene in the dispute.

Defeat snatched from the jaws of victory

Why did the Latrobe Valley power workers lose?

The strike of 1977 did not go to plan. The workers were expected to win, but they were defeated by a combination of the federal and state governments, employers and employers' federations.

WHAT WE THINK

THE LATROBE VALLEY strike has been beaten. The strike was not because of lack of support, not because of lack of determination. It was not because the unions were weak, or because the workers were not willing to fight. It was because the workers were not willing to fight.

A strike is a battle between workers and employers. It is a battle for control of the workplace. It is a battle for the rights of workers. It is a battle for the future of the working class.

WHY WE SHOULD HAVE STAYED OUT

ONE of the main reasons the workers stayed out was that they were not willing to fight. They were not willing to take a stand. They were not willing to stand up for their rights.

A strike is not just about winning. It is about making a statement. It is about changing the system. It is about making the world a better place. It is about doing what is right. It is about being a part of the struggle.

The strikers in 1977 did not take a stand. They did not make a statement. They did not change the system. They did not do what is right. They did not be a part of the struggle.

The strikers in 1977 should have stayed out. They should have taken a stand. They should have made a statement. They should have changed the system. They should have done what is right. They should have been a part of the struggle.

The strikers in 1977 should have stayed out.
Hijacking - Whose Violence Is It?

The recent wave of aircraft hijackings has left a world-wide consensus. The Soviets, British and Americans have all joined in the condemnation of the hijackers. But this wave of terrorism has been brought on by a wave of political and social frustration. The press has been caught up in the euphoria of the past few years. It is not just a matter of the United States or the United Kingdom. The hijackers are from all over the world. They are not just from the United States or the United Kingdom. They are from all over the world.

Strikes in 'Socialist' Europe

Strikes in Poland and Austria led to a wave of strikes in the United Kingdom. In Poland, the workers of the Lublin region went on strike to demand better wages. In Austria, the workers of the Vienna region went on strike to demand better working conditions. In the United Kingdom, the workers of the London region went on strike to demand better pay and working conditions.

South Africa - A New Wave of Repression

In the latest wave of repression, the South African government has attacked the newspapers and the media. In response, the media has launched a campaign to expose the truth. The media has also launched a campaign to expose the government. The government has attacked the media and the media has attacked the government. The government has launched a campaign to expose the media and the media has launched a campaign to expose the government.

On December 10

Throw the Bastards Out!

On December 10, the South African government will be forced to resign. The media will no longer be able to attack the government. The government will no longer be able to attack the media. The media will no longer be able to attack the government. The government will no longer be able to attack the media. The media will no longer be able to attack the government. The government will no longer be able to attack the media.
"Excessive wages leading to reduced profits are the cause of Australia's unemployment and inflation crisis"

Malcolm Fraser?
No, Gough Whitlam!

JANUARY 1975

The Australian economy is in a critical state. Excessive wages are leading to reduced profits, which in turn are causing unemployment and inflation. The government needs to take action to prevent this spiral from worsening. The solution lies in reducing wages and increasing production. Only then can we hope to emerge from this economic crisis.
Malcolm's war to end all war

WHAT'S Malcolm Fraser's answer to unemployment and class of poverty, typical of 72?

First was the attack on government spending and welfare programs. Money was cut from the public services and thousands lost their jobs.

And not just office workers.

Hospitals squeezed for money. Out were the trained laborers and in were the ‘average’ class.

Doctors, nurses, teachers, all in the interest of cost-cutting budget and economic recovery.

Then, Fraser closed government buildings and moved out workers. On the Labor government, he toiled to court workers.

But then, he also took his attack to young enterprises.

He called for an ‘investment into recovery’. It meant replacing workers with machines. And those too, were in place at workplace. That was in the interests of solving unemployment, one way or another.

Sounds like a war to end all wars to me.

Here’s how we can fight back...

Contact I.S.

FOR MORE COPIES OF THIS SUPPLEMENT

CONTACT

Melbourne

Phone: 932.0577

Sydney

Phone: 267.0521

Adelaide

Phone: 444.1323

Canberra

Phone: 478.3743

Brisbane

Phone: 322.0667

ARE YOU HUMAN?

Dear Battlers,

The Real Challenge - the ‘average’ class

Dear Battlers,

Over the last 50 years, Australia has transformed from being a country of peasants and farmers to being a country of professionals and businesspeople.

Today, the average Australian works in a factory or an office, not on a farm or in a field. The average Australian is no longer a farmer or a laborer, but a professional or a white-collar worker.

And yet, despite this transformation, many Australians still see themselves as being part of a declining class of the working people...

Yours truly,

John Doe

LAND RIGHTS IN SYDNEY

Outnumbered at White Bay

FOR even two months, the Hard land rights have been in the area. The Aboriginals are determined to protect their land.

MARTIN HEIST

Martin Heist is a journalist who has been covering the land rights issue for years. He has interviewed many of the Aboriginal leaders and has written extensively on the issue.

The occupation of White Bay caused a great deal of controversy, but Martin Heist believes that the Aboriginals are right in their fight for land rights. He says that the government should be doing more to help them.

Martin Heist is a member of the Bundjalung people, and he has a deep understanding of the issues involved.

THE BATTLER 12 NOVEMBER 1977 PAGE 11
Political sackings: picket line attacked

THESE MEN ARE VICTIMS...

Metal Trades

WHO'S BUCKING THE "UMPIRE" NOW?

ATEA officials settle for second best

Shop assistants fight short-time

OF THE ANARCHY OF CAPITALISM
The world-wide struggle against Nuclear Power

IT'S MUSHROOMING

U.S.A.
During August, 1,500 people marched in the streets of New York in support of the 10,000 striking workers at the Rainbow Electric Company. In September, 4,500 people marched in support of the strike. And in late September, 3,000 workers marched in support of the strike.

France
On November 2, 1977, 50,000 people marched in Paris to protest against nuclear power. The march was organized by the French Communist Party and supported by numerous other organizations.

Germany
Thousands of workers have taken to the streets in Germany to demand an end to nuclear power. The German government has announced plans to phase out nuclear power by 2022.

Sweden
The government has announced plans to phase out nuclear power in Sweden by 2030. This decision has been met with widespread support from the Swedish public.

Spain
In Madrid, 100,000 people marched in support of workers in the nuclear industry who are fighting against the construction of new nuclear plants.

Japan
The government has announced plans to phase out nuclear power in Japan by 2040. This decision has been met with mixed reactions from the Japanese public.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE BATTLER

NAME
ADDRESS
POSTCODE

THROW THE LIBERALs OUT!
Another march in Qld | 127 more arrests

Migrants - Last Again

Assault with a bike !!
Sure we want "Peace"
... a piece of Palestine for you, and a peace for me

EGYPTIAN president Sadat said he would be prepared to change the status of the conflict in the Middle East in the 1970s.

The Daily Star in Beirut, Lebanon, published an interview with the President of Egypt, Mr. Sadat, in which he stated that the situation in the Middle East has changed since he took office and that he is prepared to make changes if necessary. He also mentioned that he was ready to work with other Arab countries to resolve the conflict.

The Daily Star in Beirut, Lebanon, published an interview with the President of Egypt, Mr. Sadat, in which he stated that the situation in the Middle East has changed since he took office and that he is prepared to make changes if necessary. He also mentioned that he was ready to work with other Arab countries to resolve the conflict.

---

No justice at Justus

FOR eleven months after the Justus case in Kentucky, a man named Justus, who was convicted of manslaughter after he shot dead his wife, was held in prison under the supervision of the State Board of Public Welfare.

The Justus case was a controversial one, and many people believed that the man was wrongly convicted. Despite this, he was held in prison for eleven months before being finally released.

---

ARGENTINA STRIKE

The workers at the Western Electric Company in Argentina have voted to continue their strike for another week.

The strike was called due to the company's decision to reduce wages and benefits for the workers. The workers have been protesting against this decision and are demanding better working conditions and higher wages.

---

ETHIOPIA: DICTATORSHIP CRACKS

The recent uprising in Ethiopia is a sign of the growing discontent among the people. The government has been accused of repressing freedom of speech and restricting civil liberties.

The government has been accused of using violent手段 to suppress any opposition. This has led to widespread protests and demonstrations across the country.

---

THE BATTLER IS YOUR PAPER

Read it

The Battler is a newspaper that covers local news and events. It is published weekly and is available at your local newsstand or online.

Sell it

The Battler is available at a discounted rate for subscribers. You can purchase a subscription online or at your local newsstand.

Write for it

If you have an article or story you would like to contribute to The Battler, please send it to our editorial team.

The Battler needs your bikkies

The Battler is an independent newspaper and relies on support from its readers.

We appreciate your support and hope to continue providing you with quality news and information.
Why I’m Voting Labor

Phil Griffiths

WOULD YOU buy another three years of Liberal Government from Malcolm Fraser?

Could anyone seriously vote for the man who destroyed Macbank, after permitting it to lose $3 billion of shareholders’ money? And who then sold out the Government’s investments in the ‘21st Century’ project to a man who had previously been a member of the Liberal Party? And who then promised support for wage cutbacks and had more than knowledge in the area of fraud and forgeries in the Government’s own offices?

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only logical alternative. I don’t expect anything in the way of socialist policies. They’ll do what they have to do – get more unemployed, build more new programs, and spend all the time that they have.

BLACKS

I’m voting Labor because I’ve seen so much of the Government’s neglect towards the native peoples of Australia in recent times. They have not been treated as equals, and their needs have been disregarded.

UNION RIGHTS

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only way we can get the rights we need. The union movement has been under attack since the Government took power, and we need to stand up for our rights.

Why we’re voting Labor

by Phil Griffiths

Would you buy another three years of Liberal Government from Malcolm Fraser? Could anyone seriously vote for the man who destroyed Macbank, after permitting it to lose $3 billion of shareholders’ money? And who then sold out the Government’s investments in the ‘21st Century’ project to a man who had previously been a member of the Liberal Party? And who then promised support for wage cutbacks and had more than knowledge in the area of fraud and forgeries in the Government’s own offices?

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only logical alternative. I don’t expect anything in the way of socialist policies. They’ll do what they have to do – get more unemployed, build more new programs, and spend all the time that they have.

BLACKS

I’m voting Labor because I’ve seen so much of the Government’s neglect towards the native peoples of Australia in recent times. They have not been treated as equals, and their needs have been disregarded.

UNION RIGHTS

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only way we can get the rights we need. The union movement has been under attack since the Government took power, and we need to stand up for our rights.

Why we’re voting Labor

by Phil Griffiths

WOULD YOU buy another three years of Liberal Government from Malcolm Fraser? Could anyone seriously vote for the man who destroyed Macbank, after permitting it to lose $3 billion of shareholders’ money? And who then sold out the Government’s investments in the ‘21st Century’ project to a man who had previously been a member of the Liberal Party? And who then promised support for wage cutbacks and had more than knowledge in the area of fraud and forgeries in the Government’s own offices?

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only logical alternative. I don’t expect anything in the way of socialist policies. They’ll do what they have to do – get more unemployed, build more new programs, and spend all the time that they have.

BLACKS

I’m voting Labor because I’ve seen so much of the Government’s neglect towards the native peoples of Australia in recent times. They have not been treated as equals, and their needs have been disregarded.

UNION RIGHTS

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only way we can get the rights we need. The union movement has been under attack since the Government took power, and we need to stand up for our rights.

Why we’re voting Labor

by Phil Griffiths

WOULD YOU buy another three years of Liberal Government from Malcolm Fraser? Could anyone seriously vote for the man who destroyed Macbank, after permitting it to lose $3 billion of shareholders’ money? And who then sold out the Government’s investments in the ‘21st Century’ project to a man who had previously been a member of the Liberal Party? And who then promised support for wage cutbacks and had more than knowledge in the area of fraud and forgeries in the Government’s own offices?

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only logical alternative. I don’t expect anything in the way of socialist policies. They’ll do what they have to do – get more unemployed, build more new programs, and spend all the time that they have.

BLACKS

I’m voting Labor because I’ve seen so much of the Government’s neglect towards the native peoples of Australia in recent times. They have not been treated as equals, and their needs have been disregarded.

UNION RIGHTS

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only way we can get the rights we need. The union movement has been under attack since the Government took power, and we need to stand up for our rights.

Why we’re voting Labor

by Phil Griffiths

WOULD YOU buy another three years of Liberal Government from Malcolm Fraser? Could anyone seriously vote for the man who destroyed Macbank, after permitting it to lose $3 billion of shareholders’ money? And who then sold out the Government’s investments in the ‘21st Century’ project to a man who had previously been a member of the Liberal Party? And who then promised support for wage cutbacks and had more than knowledge in the area of fraud and forgeries in the Government’s own offices?

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only logical alternative. I don’t expect anything in the way of socialist policies. They’ll do what they have to do – get more unemployed, build more new programs, and spend all the time that they have.

BLACKS

I’m voting Labor because I’ve seen so much of the Government’s neglect towards the native peoples of Australia in recent times. They have not been treated as equals, and their needs have been disregarded.

UNION RIGHTS

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only way we can get the rights we need. The union movement has been under attack since the Government took power, and we need to stand up for our rights.

Why we’re voting Labor

by Phil Griffiths

WOULD YOU buy another three years of Liberal Government from Malcolm Fraser? Could anyone seriously vote for the man who destroyed Macbank, after permitting it to lose $3 billion of shareholders’ money? And who then sold out the Government’s investments in the ‘21st Century’ project to a man who had previously been a member of the Liberal Party? And who then promised support for wage cutbacks and had more than knowledge in the area of fraud and forgeries in the Government’s own offices?

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only logical alternative. I don’t expect anything in the way of socialist policies. They’ll do what they have to do – get more unemployed, build more new programs, and spend all the time that they have.

BLACKS

I’m voting Labor because I’ve seen so much of the Government’s neglect towards the native peoples of Australia in recent times. They have not been treated as equals, and their needs have been disregarded.

UNION RIGHTS

I’m voting Labor because it’s the only way we can get the rights we need. The union movement has been under attack since the Government took power, and we need to stand up for our rights.
The people who still be in power whoever wins the election

THE COURTS

There’ll always be a Big Four. While there’s a Big Four, Cause they’ve been here since 1883.

& COPS

Governments’ back is to the wall, a climate which will encourage small businesses. Sydney-based Real Estate Business shows how they can be in the market for new offices.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE

The front row at the government and the bureaucracies. The cabinet, the departments, the coffers. The front row at the government and the bureaucracies. The cabinet, the departments, the coffers.
Dear Battlers,

O.K., so what's YOUR answer to the crisis?

by Ron Fotherby

UNEMPLOYMENT, RISE in basic prices, rising food costs, government controls. How long do people have to suffer before they get the answer to the problem? How long before they get the answer to the situation we are in? How long before we see some movement on the government's part? How long before we see some movement from the people themselves? How long before we see some movement from the government's part?

NATIONALISATION OF BASIC INDUSTRY

For factory workers, the question of the day is: 'Is this a good move? Will it improve our standard of living?' For those who have been out of work for a long time, the question is: 'Will we ever get a job?' For those who have been working for a long time, the question is: 'Will we ever see a future for our children?' For those who have been working for a long time, the question is: 'Will we ever see a future for our grandchildren?'

The Individual and Socialism

Dear Battler,

There are a lot of different ideas about socialism. Some people say that it's a way of life. Others say that it's a system of government. Still others say that it's a way of organizing the economy. But one thing is clear: socialism is a way of life that is based on the principles of equality, justice, and solidarity.

Tea and Yellowcake

Dear Battler,

I think that the problem with socialism is that it's not very efficient. The government tries to control everything, which means that they can't react quickly to problems. This is why I think that market economies are better. With a market economy, businesses can make decisions quickly and efficiently. This is why we need to move away from socialism and towards free-market economies.

Don't crucify him!

Dear Battler,

I don't think that socialism is a bad idea. There are many benefits to it, such as providing a safety net for the poor and ensuring that everyone has access to healthcare. However, I do think that there are some problems with it. One problem is that it's often too bureaucratic, which can make it difficult to get things done. Another problem is that it can be too inefficient, which can lead to high taxes and inflation.

This is your page

Write to The Battler — PO Box 69
Hawthorn Victoria 3122

The hens need a union

Dear Battler

I agree that hens should be unionized. By forming a union, hens can negotiate better wages and working conditions. This will help to improve their quality of life and ensure that they are treated fairly.

Eric Petersen
Sydney

Socialism? Here's how we can do it

IT'S one thing to want to change things, another to actually do it. The fact is, in my own area, the workers are fighting for a wage increase. They're doing it because they need to, to live decent lives. They're doing it because they're tired of the low wages and the lack of job security. They're doing it because they want to show the world that they're not going to give up. They're doing it because they believe in the power of solidarity and the strength of the collective.

The standard of living is falling, the cost of living is rising. The working class are being squeezed from all sides. The government is trying to cut back on welfare, health and education services. And in the process, they're taking away rights that workers have fought for for generations.

In summary, the workers are fighting for a decent wage, a safe working environment, and the respect they deserve. They're fighting for the right to live, to work, to have a future. And they'll continue to fight until they get what they deserve.
What's On

JOIN THE SOCIALIST CAMPAIGN

THE new generation has seen more and more left and socially conscious people welling up in every part of the country. This is not just a matter of political strategy, but it is a...
AUSTIN BOSSES GO TO WATER

OUR campaign for a full share of the Shell Oil refinery is over. The National Insurance Association and its members are not getting what they want. They agreed to accept the deal for this reason: "It's better than nothing."

The deal was made by the Shell Oil refinery in response to the National Insurance Association's demand for a better share of the profits of the Shell Oil refinery. The National Insurance Association is a major employer of workers at the Shell Oil refinery.

SIXTEEN WEEKS OUT - AND STILL STRUGGLING

The National Insurance Association is trying to break the Fairey Union at the Shell Oil refinery. The Fairey Union is a major employer of workers at the Shell Oil refinery.

The workers at the Shell Oil refinery are still striking after sixteen weeks. They are demanding better pay and working conditions. The National Insurance Association is offering to settle the dispute, but the workers have refused.

Court challenge to Chrysler

The Australian Labor Government has made a decision to close the Chrysler plant in South Australia. The decision was made after a long and bitter battle between the government and the Chrysler company. The government has said that the closure is necessary to protect the economy.

SEC work-value case plods on

The case is still ongoing. The SEC has not yet made a decision about the work-value of the positions. The workers are demanding better pay and working conditions. The SEC has not yet made a decision.

WE WANT ACTION ON OUR JOBS!

We want action on our jobs. We want better pay and working conditions. We want to be treated fairly. We want to be heard. We want action on our jobs.

This survey is a trap

The survey is a trap. The survey is designed to trick the workers into giving up their rights. The survey is a trap. The survey is a trap.

Fighting the sack - inside the union!

The sack - inside the union. The sack - inside the union. The sack - inside the union. The sack - inside the union.
Here's how we're fighting for jobs

UNEMPLOYMENT today is the worst it's been in Australia since the 1930s. We have 200,000 unemployed workers. The Unemployed Workers Union has been working for the rights of the unemployed for 80 years. The UWWU needs your support.

In the dole-drums

Tom is 55 years old, single and unemployed. He says he's been too depressed to look for work.

Kathy Finanog is desperate for work. She left school two years ago and waited 30 months for her first job offer.

Subscribe to The Battler

Contact

The Unemployed Workers Union
57 Bourke St, Melbourne
Melbourne, Victoria 3000

Three die on radioactive streets

This is Australia before uranium mining!

By Steve Morgan

Bernie Moloney, the anti-uranium activist, has come true in Sydney.

An anti-uranium activist nightmare has come true in Sydney.

Three workers died on the Westinghouse site last week. The Westinghouse workers union is still fighting for their rights.

Why Labor lost

p.3
Why Labor Lost

The battler
what we think

PLAYING IT SAFE?

The Bitter Fight for Work

1,000 ARRESTS
WE'RE STILL MARCHING

MURDERED
Because he was Gay

Anti-racism charged

The Left in the Elections

The greatest
solution

What is Terrie saying?

Playing it safe?

The latest in the elections

The bitter
fight for work

The greatest
solution

Playing it safe?

The bitter
fight for work

The greatest
solution

Playing it safe?

The bitter
fight for work

The greatest
solution

Playing it safe?

The bitter
fight for work

The greatest
solution

Playing it safe?

The bitter
fight for work

The greatest
solution

Playing it safe?

The bitter
fight for work

The greatest
solution

Playing it safe?

The bitter
fight for work

The greatest
solution

Playing it safe?

The bitter
fight for work

The greatest
solution

Playing it safe?

The bitter
fight for work

The greatest
solution

Playing it safe?

The bitter
fight for work

The greatest
solution

Playing it safe?
Dear Battlers,

No justice at Chrysler

GERMANY

THE REAL TERRORISTS

Dear Battler,

The recent events in Frankfurt am Main present a stark contrast to the promises made by the Labour government. The strike at the Chrysler plant has been brought to a halt, but the government claims this does not mean that the workers' demands are being met. The workers have been promised improvements in wages and working conditions, but these promises have not been fulfilled.

Left, from left: Erwin, Fritsch, and Holzke - what to do? About the situation in Frankfurt am Main, the workers say:

"Our situation is desperate. We are stuck in a factory with no action from the government."

There will be a meeting of the workers today to discuss the situation.

Money Talks

Dear Battler,

Every week, a new report on how the government is spending our money.

The threat to women

how did you miss it?

Dear Battler,

Read the latest issue of "Women's World," which discusses the crisis in women's rights worldwide. The article highlights the need for international solidarity and the importance of women's voices in decisions that affect them.

Fire Brigade Union新三板 Union, which identifies a high level of interest among workers, especially for political participation. The union has called for a meeting of all workers at the factory to discuss the next steps.

The government is currently negotiating with the workers, but there is no clear plan for the future. The workers are determined to fight for their rights and will continue to resist until their demands are met.

It's the same the whole world over

WORLD war is trade carried on by another name.

The threat to women

by Steve Morgan

The government has announced plans to cut funding for women's rights organizations, but the workers say this is not acceptable. They demand full funding for all women's rights programs.

The threat to women

by Peter Kershaw

The government has announced plans to cut funding for women's rights organizations, but the workers say this is not acceptable. They demand full funding for all women's rights programs.

The threat to women

by Alan Bell

The government has announced plans to cut funding for women's rights organizations, but the workers say this is not acceptable. They demand full funding for all women's rights programs.

Look who's scabbing now!

The workers have been angry about the situation for a long time. The government has not listened to their demands, and the workers are determined to continue their struggle until they get their rights. The government's response has been disappointing, but the workers are not deterred. They are ready to fight for their rights and will not give up until they win.

The government has announced plans to cut funding for women's rights organizations, but the workers say this is not acceptable. They demand full funding for all women's rights programs.
Who wants to be a millionaire?

THE SALE

Back in 1974, John McMahon was looking to sell his farm.

He was 38 years old at the time, and his family had been farming for generations. The farm was their entire world, and they lived a simple life. But times were changing, and the younger generation was eager to try something different. McMahon was ready to move on and make a new start.

ABOVE: John McMahon on his farm. Who wants to be a millionaire?

Below: McMahon and his wife, Mary, at home on the farm.

The farm was on the outskirts of a small town, and it was surrounded by a beautiful landscape. McMahon was known for his hard work and dedication, and he had built the farm into a thriving business. But the economic downturn in the early 1970s had taken its toll, and the farm was struggling.

ROB HILL, with his wife, Gail, and his daughter, Mary, on their farm in Melton.

The family was forced to sell the farm to a developer, who planned to build a new subdivision. McMahon was devastated, but he knew it was the only way to keep the family together.

THE SPOILS

The next task was to divide up the spoils.

McMahon's family was large, and they all had different interests. Some wanted to stay in the area and start their own businesses, while others were eager to move on to new adventures.

What they overpaid

McMahon's family sold the farm for $1.6 million, but they knew they had been ripped off. The developer had paid $100,000 more than the estimated value of the land.

And what they overpaid

The developer had paid $1.6 million for the farm, but McMahon's family had only sold it for $1.5 million. They knew they had been ripped off, but they were too afraid to fight the developer in court.

Pakenham Park

The land was still sorely needed and not only paid for the subdivision project but also for their own homes.

What the Liberals got

DURING 1972, under the leadership of Bill Hayden and the Minister for Housing and the Environment, Alan Hayne, a major_recommendation was made to reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

And that's where it would have ended had it not been for two further scandals.

During 1972, ultra-right wing politician Pat Dangerfield was the Minister for Housing and the Environment, Alan Hayne, in one of Hayne's tender-minded recommendations was made to reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

What the Liberals got

Shelah Sue, a friend of McMahon's, was also interested in buying the farm.

But she was much more interested in buying the land for herself. She had always wanted to own a farm, and she was determined to make the most of the opportunity.

DISCOVERED

That's where it would have ended had it not been for two further scandals.

Shelah Sue was determined to make the most of the opportunity and was determined to find a way to buy the farm for herself.

But she was much more interested in buying the land for herself. She had always wanted to own a farm, and she was determined to make the most of the opportunity.

Stanton (Pakenham)

In 1972, the Labor government under Treasurer John Gorton announced a major recommendation, known as the "Gorton Report," to reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

And the report was not without its critics. Many saw it as a way for the government to curry favor with the developers and reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

The spoils and the other land scandals

Sunbury-Pinmore

In 1972, the Labor government under Treasurer John Gorton announced a major recommendation, known as the "Gorton Report," to reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

But the report was not without its critics. Many saw it as a way for the government to curry favor with the developers and reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

And the report was not without its critics. Many saw it as a way for the government to curry favor with the developers and reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

Melton

In 1972, the Labor government under Treasurer John Gorton announced a major recommendation, known as the "Gorton Report," to reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

But the report was not without its critics. Many saw it as a way for the government to curry favor with the developers and reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

And the report was not without its critics. Many saw it as a way for the government to curry favor with the developers and reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

...and more

Next week: The story of how the developers were able to get away with their illegal practices and the impact they had on the housing market.

The spoils and the other land scandals

Sunbury-Pinmore

In 1972, the Labor government under Treasurer John Gorton announced a major recommendation, known as the "Gorton Report," to reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

But the report was not without its critics. Many saw it as a way for the government to curry favor with the developers and reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

And the report was not without its critics. Many saw it as a way for the government to curry favor with the developers and reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

The spoils and the other land scandals

Sunbury-Pinmore

In 1972, the Labor government under Treasurer John Gorton announced a major recommendation, known as the "Gorton Report," to reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

But the report was not without its critics. Many saw it as a way for the government to curry favor with the developers and reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

And the report was not without its critics. Many saw it as a way for the government to curry favor with the developers and reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

The spoils and the other land scandals

Sunbury-Pinmore

In 1972, the Labor government under Treasurer John Gorton announced a major recommendation, known as the "Gorton Report," to reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

But the report was not without its critics. Many saw it as a way for the government to curry favor with the developers and reduce the size of the Housing Commission.

And the report was not without its critics. Many saw it as a way for the government to curry favor with the developers and reduce the size of the Housing Commission.
How Women led a Revolution

THE Great French Revolution was a fight for freedom, equality and of the workers.

But as the movement progressed, women played a crucial role. They marched in the streets, demanded rights and fought for their liberation.

In 1973, a small group of women gathered in a Parisian café, united in their desire for change.

They formed the Women's Liberation Movement, determined to challenge the status quo and establish gender equality.

The movement spread across France, gaining momentum as women joined forces to fight for their rights.

Despite facing opposition and challenges, the movement persevered, inspiring women around the world to stand up for their liberation.

The Women's Liberation Movement marked a significant turning point in the fight for gender equality, setting the stage for future reforms and advancements.

“Thorn Birds”

not so much ‘ROOTS’ as rooted

COLLEEN McCULLOUGH’s blockbuster novel “Thorn Birds” has now spent several months on top of the American best selling lists.

Within a month of its release McCullough had already sold over 100,000 copies of “The Thorn Birds” and there is no indication that the author's popularity has waned. The novel, set in Australia during the late 1930s and early 1940s, tells the story of a young girl named Charlotte, who is sent to a remote farm in rural Australia. The novel has been adapted into a film and a television series, making it a household name.

The CPA – A New Corpse

The CPA has in the past year been involved in a number of activities that have been interpreted as a move towards the establishment of a new party in Australia. While the CPA has always been a part of the left wing of Australian politics, its involvement in recent years has been more pronounced.

In particular, the CPA has been involved in a number of protests and rallies, as well as issuing a number of statements that have been interpreted as a move towards the establishment of a new party.

Election follies

International Socialists

The International Socialists is a political group that was founded in the late 1960s. It is a part of the Trotskyist movement, and it has a strong presence in many countries around the world.

The group has been involved in a number of protests and demonstrations, and it has also been involved in a number of electoral campaigns.

The CPA currently has a strong presence in Australia, and it is involved in a number of protests and demonstrations. It is also involved in a number of electoral campaigns.
Women workers speak out

No childcare, lousy health and job discrimination...

We got a positive shock when we got a job at this new factory. It was a group of us, mainly from the Bundaberg area, who went to the meeting and signed up. We thought it was a good opportunity to get the union involved. The members at the meeting were very supportive and gave us a lot of encouragement.

By Julie Brown

Fields sacks 350

In response to the widespread strikes around the country, the management at Fields has decided to sack 350 workers. They state that the workers are not providing a satisfactory level of productivity.

Lessons of the power strike

LAST month, Labor's Valley shop attended a two-day union meeting in Brisbane, where the recent strike was discussed.

One of the key speakers at the meeting was the head of the Australian Manufacturing Workers Union (AMWU), who argued that the strike was a success for the union. "We have shown that workers have the power to stand up for their rights," he said.

Support from union officials was shown by the presence of John Cain, the head of the Australian Council of Trade Unions (ACTU), who spoke in support of the strikers.

Workers reported support from the local community, with locals offering them food and shelter.

FIELDS Brimaview Fibreglass offshoot in Queensland has closed down, firing more than 350 workers out of a job, but not cutting working hours, its company, a firm of the same name, reports.

The company told the workers they would work in an "unrealistic" manner and that they would be affected by the agreement.

RIGHT-winger wins in PKIU

PKIU's new secretary has been sacked after just three weeks in the job. The new secretary, a businessman, was appointed by the previous secretary, who was recently dismissed.

The new secretary has been accused of using the union to promote his own business interests.

Acosta officials wreck meeting

ACOA officials have wrecked a meeting by disrupting the proceedings and calling for the removal of the secretary.

At the Annual General Meeting of the Victorian Branch, the ACOA officials disrupted the meeting by shouting and heckling the secretary, who was trying to make a speech.

The secretary was later removed from the meeting by police, who had been called by the ACOA officials.

Are you working in a health hazard?

KEITH Baum, a worker at this firm, claims that he is working in an extremely rare disease environment, which may cause cancer.

Despite his claims, the company dismissed him, saying that his health concerns were exaggerated.

Workers on the job have been victims of workplace bullying and harassment.

The General calls for 'peace'

WHILE we are currently being told about the bad state of the car industry, it is important to remember that there are still many good companies out there.

This is all part of the challenge that we face as unionists. We need to work harder than ever to protect our members and to ensure that they are treated fairly.

The ACOA has been accused of using this development to distract attention from their own internal problems.

DONNY, YOUR SILENCE IS DEAFENING!

A new poster has been put up in the factory,吸引了 the attention of many workers.

The poster asks Donny, a long-time employee, to speak out.

The state government has promised to review the workplace rules, and a new code of conduct is expected to be introduced soon.
WHY WE NEED CHILDCARE... NOW!

BY TOM O'LINCOLN

“SIGN FEES”! I would pay the same. Anything to do with childcare. Being mum, I can work, but I don’t want my children affected. I don’t want my children to play with others who are affected. I don’t want my children to play with others who are affected. I don’t want my children to play with others who are affected.

Today there are still 20,000 plans to go. But the plans are not for the poor. They are for the rich. They are for the rich. They are for the rich. They are for the rich. They are for the rich. They are for the rich. They are for the rich. They are for the rich. They are for the rich.

Good riddance to “The Thumper”

Labor goes soul-searching

by Alec Kahn

“WE’VE got to be concerned to support this private sector. Because that’s where they come from.”

The Workers’ Party
does.

The Workers’ Party
does.

BYE - BYE Harold Sainsbury, we’re glad to see you go.

Being marked by the Coalition Labor government as a “public menace” at the Federal Court, Mr Sainsbury was reinstated in the South Australian Police from Victoria Police, where he was head of the Victoria Police. Labor had no nomination papers in the South Australian Police from Victoria Police, where he was head of the Victoria Police.

The Workers’ Party would expand on this. He promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us, he promised us.

The cop who lied

Harold “The Thumper” Sainsbury: “The truth is, we lost.” The Truth is, we lost. The Truth is, we lost. The Truth is, we lost.

Now let’s sack all the spies — p.3

Railworkers robbed

The Railways Branch of the Australian Transport Union has been robbed. The Transport Union has been robbed.

The RTBU at the Australian Transport Union has been robbed. The RTBU at the Australian Transport Union has been robbed.

 kerrie

Subscriptions: 1 year $15.00, 3 years $25.00, 5 years $40.00. Mail subscriptions: P.O. Box 3076, Sydney, 2001, Australia. Phone 02 392 0311. Fax 02 392 0531. E-mail: battler@close.com.au

The Battler
PAPER OF THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIALISTS
NUMBER 84
4 FEBRUARY 1978
20 CENTS
S.A. Special Branch Scandal

GOOD RIDDANCE TO "THE THUMPER"