

RECENT C.A.M.P. ACTIVITIES

1. We are now being listed in the 1973 S.A. Directory of Social Resources. This is the handbook of community services available in S.A., used by all social workers.
2. The Seminar "Sexual Oppression & Liberation" held on 29th July, was a great success. Over 300 people heard nine speakers cover every aspect of this subject. We hope to be able to make available to members and the reading public a transcript of the papers presented in booklet form.
3. A large number of women attend "C.A.M.P. Women's group meetings" every second Thursday evening on the first floor, Bloor House, Bloor Court, South off Currie St., City. The next meeting is on 21st September. It will be a Social & Discussion evening. Bring your own grog (surrepticiously) and a cushion.
4. Five members addressed the evening congregation of the Enfield United Methodist-Presbyterian Church, at the end of August. The audience was mainly young, there were some good questions, and we had a very friendly reception. Previously, within the last few months, members have also addressed the Jewish Youth League, the north-western suburbs Ministers' Fraternal, the Mitcham branch of the ALP, and the medical-clerical group attached to Parkin-Wesley Theological College.

Articles have also appeared in "The Lutheran" (strongly attacked in succeeding issues!), in 'AD LIB' (young Liberals), 'INSIGHT' (young Labours) and 'ACCENT' (Catholic Graduate's Association).

5. The Religious and Moral Issues Group continues to meet each month. It has developed some useful contacts with sympathetic ministers and priests, and in its discussions, is exploring the religious problems of homosexual people. Anyone interested can ring David at 671328. The next meeting will be held early in October.
6. Rumours: a CAMP coffee lounge; a CAMP Catholic group. Details at GENERAL MEETING.
