

This student general meeting has been called by the Public Affairs Committee to consider the three month prison sentence of Robert Tillet for printing two letters of a 'FREE ZARB' sign last Saturday on a Northcote bridge.

General meeting to debate the following motions:

1. THAT this general meeting of Monash Association of Students condemn the severity of the sentence handed down to Tillet.
2. THAT Monash University students take collections to aid Tillet to gain legal aid.
3. THAT Monash Students show support for Tillet by demonstration.
4. THAT Monash Students enlist the support of all sympathetic sections of the community.

HYDE/SLOANE.

FREE TILLET !!!

Robert Tillet, a 19 year old former Adelaide student was arrested on last Saturday for painting the letters 'R' and 'B' on a sign that read 'FREE ZARB'. Tillet pleaded guilty to the charge of having painted on a railway bridge in Northcote.

Mr Pfeifer, S.M. told Tillet that he was sentencing him to the maximum term and gave him no option.

Pfeifer was the same magistrate who fined Ken Mansell, a Monash student and Adrian Desailly, a young worker $200, last Tuesday for painting the same sign.

The sentence imposed on Tillet who is now released pending an appeal seems extremely harsh, even within this legal system.
