ANZAC DAY_A DAY OF SHAME

On Anzac Day this year, when you sit listening to the boring service in the hall, telling you about our glorious heritage, ask yourself, "Should I be proud of Anzac Day?." If you study the facts and not swallow the "Heritage" crap, you will realize the answer is "NO!"

According to the Anzac legend, Australia proved herself a "Nation" on April 25 1915 when her troops jumped ashore at Gallipoli and began the campaign which turned out to be a defeat.

Australia did not prove herself a nation on that day. Rather, she proved herself an obedient lockey to Britains Imperialistic leaders who were bent on expanding the Empire. The greatest revolutionary of the 20th Century, VI Lenin, said that the First World war was "a war to decide whether the British or German group of financial marauders was to receive the most booty! He also said, "The War of 1914-18 was imperialisti (that is, an annexationist, predatory, plunderous war) on the part of both sides: it was a war for the division of the world, for the partition and repartition of colonies, sphere s of influence of finance capital".

Australia, along with the majority of countries, betrayed the revolutionary causes of the workers. The 2nd International, in their congresses at Stuttgart (1907) and Basle (1912), with socialists attending form nearly every country, solomly bound themselves to fight against war, but promised also that if war did come, they would utilize the international crisis for an attack on their own governments with the aim of a revolution.

But when war actually occurred, everything tirned out quite differently. They betrayed the workers' cause and followed the imperialistic aims of their individual countries. In short, an organisation of international dimensions collapsed into pathetic little groups, suddenly drunk with Nationalism: Only one party stood firm-The Bolshevik Party.

PIG (PREFECT) BUREAUCRACY

Last year, most of the students were deluded into believing they had a completely democratic pig (prefect) system. "Look " they said had a completely democratic pig (prefect) system. "Look " they said had a completely democratic pig (prefect). This is a known fact that "we are even allowed to vote for them! BUT it is a known fact that the nominations were screened by the staff. This is only a farce. THIS year we are denied even the minute amount of democracy allowed us, last year. All pigs (prefects) are now picked by the reaction conary establishment without the students having any say. However, we are told that these pigs are the representatives of us students. UTTER CRAP.!!

Now, for anyone to become a pig (prefect) he has to be an unquestioning lacky of the fuhrer ? Toad of Toad Hall) and reactionary to the core. Note that virtually all the pigs this year are either dedicated to sport (and thus have no time for political thought) or are "brainy" and puppets of the regime.

DOWN WITH THE PIGS !!!

The Rival News Sheet The Facts.

We notice the Spearance of a newsheet with a crappy title, which sells for 2 cents? Or S IS FREE!! WHY PAY FOR THIS NEW ONE which apart from its Thip includes a straight feflection of the Establishment's line. WE gather that the article on pigs was supposed to be funny. Laugh? I didn't think I'd ever start. WE are certainly looking forward to future issues of this paper (at 2 cents a copy).

SPY IN THE SKY....
The charade of Nixon and Hawks at Congress going into righteous indignation at the shooting down of an American espionage aircraft by the Korean government is too absurd for words. There have been several thousand violations of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea's air space and territorial waters s ince the end of the Korean War.
Wilfred Burchett in his book "gain Korea" cites evidence of 729 violations of airspace and 809 violations of territorial waters, in the first three months of 1967 alone. In view of such figures as these the amazing thing is that the Koreans have shown such ama zing restraint and only retaliated twice (the Pueblo and last weeks destriction of the spy plant) . There is a reason why the Koreans have shown so much res traint. In 1965 it was revealed in the Japanese Diet (parliament) that military plans existed for a joint U.S.-Japanese-South Korean invasion of North Korea and possibly China. The idea of the plan was that ther e should be sufficient provocation of the D.P.R. of Korea to force the Koreans to take counter measures sufficient for the U.S. to be able to brand them as aggress In "Again Korea" Burchett presents documentation of these plans and also evidence that the proliminaries to such plans were actually carried out. Burchett suggests that the reason the Yanks did not finally follow up this tactic was because they got themselves into too much trouble in Vietnam. (i.e, they are losing there) without attempting a second fight in Korea. All the same the Koran people have declared that should the U.S. attempt aggression against them then, then there will be reta liation. One thing is certain... if the U.S. invade then then the K_Orean people will drive them not only out of the North (as they did last time) but out of the South as well....ther will be no left over artificial arm stice lines.
